A Sign of the Season.

The wagon sticks its tongue out When the wood begins to shed, And the bell rings down the curtain When the bed stands on its head; The table tries to cross its legs, The carpet always lies— Meanwhile the new potato Is making goo-goo eyes.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked, run down, men and weak sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them, only 50c. Guaranteed by J. L. Watkins, of the City Drug Store.

Senator Money, of Mississippi, distributed his garden seed recently. He received a letter from a constituent stating that he had received the peas, and that his family had enjoyed them very much, but there were not enough to go around. Could the senator send him some more?

Reveals a Great Secret.

It is often asked how such startling cures, that puzzle the best physicians, are effected by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Here's the secret: It cuts out the phlegm and germ-infected mucus, and lets the life-giving oxygen enrich and vitalize the blood. It heals the inflamed, cough worn throat and lungs. Hard colds and stubborn coughs soon yield to Dr. King's New Discovery, the most infallible remedy for all lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. L. Watkins' City Drug Store.

An obedient husband in Pierpont was objecting to doing certain work about the house and quoted Scripture to his wife, showing that the household duties should properly be assigned to the woman. The wife replied by reading to her liege 2 King 21:13: "I will wipe out Jerusalem as man wipeth out a dish, wipeth it and turneth it upside down." That husband, without a murmur, has wiped the dishes ever since.—Pierpont Signal.

FOR THOSE WHO LIVE ON FARMS.

Dr. Bergin, Pans, Ills., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at V. H. Frederick's drug store.

Double the price of everything obtainable, add about 5 per cent. to the earnings of the average man, and the result will be what the Republicans label "great prosperity."

The Most Common Ailment.

More people suffer from rheumatism than from any other ailment. This is wholly unnecessary, too, for a cure may be effected at a very low cost. G. W. Wescott, of Meadowdale N. Y., says: "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for some time and it has caused me much suffering. I concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm and am pleased to say that it has cured me." For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

Nonsense

What nonsense it is to talk about going to the other side of the earth to find land to cultivate. There is one State in this Union—Louisiana—which has 25,000,000 acres of tillable land now lying idle.—Charleston News.

No Loss Of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to the threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even the greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at V. H. Frederick's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac.
