Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edger, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around, but constantly suffered. I tried every thing I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

"The Louisiana Legislature met at Baton Rouge last Monday. The most important work to be disposed of by that body will be the creation of a new congressional district, the re-districting of the other congressional, senatorial, judicial and Legislative districts, and the appropriation of a sum to display Louisiana's resources at the St. Louis World's Fair."—Sugar Planter. And we might add to this another important work—better educational provisions—which should by no means be overlooked. This is in many respects one of the most important measures to come up during the session and it is the general desire of the people to see our great State kept pace with the times and do itself justice in making liberal appropriations for both the institutions of higher education and the common schools—Iberville South.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinky Hall, Springville, Ala. This remedy is for sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

Mrs. Wicker was born in New York, March 27, 1842, and had been a resident of New Orleans since 1860. Two children remain, Frank N., Jr., and Mrs. William J. Hart, of Niagara Falls, New York. Mrs. Hart, was born in New Orleans.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon, Rev. John A. Antrim officiating, assisted by Rev. F. G. Hocutt. The pall bearers were Col. Keating, Dr. Geo. McDuff, Dr. O. J. Toujan, J. H. Ducots, Hardy H. Smith, Sr., and Gordon Wimberly.

DIED—In Covington, La., Monday, May 12, 1902, at 4 A. M., Rev. John A. Antrim, aged 45 years.

The deceased was a native of Iowa, and a prominent member of the Episcopal Church. He was formerly pastor of the Church of the Annunciation, in New Orleans, but was recently assigned to the church in Covington, and was to have moved here next month to locate. He had been in ill-health some time, but held his usual service last Sunday, and on the same day read the service at the funeral of Mrs. Frank N. Wicker, after which he retired to his room, and died that night. He was well liked by the people of Covington, and was a great admirer of our town. The article in last week's FARMER, entitled "True Story of Covington, and Its Attractions," by a visitor, was written by him. He leaves a widow and many friends to mourn his death. The funeral took place from the Episcopal Church last Tuesday morning, the services being conducted by Bishop Davis Seamus, assisted by Rev. J. W. Moore, of St. George's Episcopal Church, New Orleans.

She continued a resident of Covington for thirty years, and then moved to the present homestead in the Fifth Ward.

The deceased was a member of the Baptist Church for 52 years, a devout and faithful worker for Christ and the Church, and passed to her eternal rest and reward with the serenity of that faith that smiles at death. Like the ripened fruit or garnered sheaf the work here may have ended, but brighter vistas of life await the spirit passed beyond the confines of earth. Three sons, three daughters and fourteen grandchildren survive to mourn the loss of her whom every act was to them a benediction.
