The St. Tammany Sale.

The sale of lots at the town of St. Tammany last Saturday was a success. The company ran two free excursion trains, and about 1,000 people went over and picnicked in the woods, ate lunches and bought lots.

Ed Curtis was the auctioneer, and although there was a tremendous rain storm, which drove the people into the pavilion, during which the lightning struck a tree, Mr. Curtis continued to sell lots.

W. H. Sadler had his right arm crushed last Tuesday afternoon, at the Salmen planing mill, in Slidell. He was taken to Hotel Dieu for treatment.

The troubles of the young King of Spain have already begun. His counselors have picked out a wife for him.

A train on the Lake Shore and Pennsylvania railroad recently made the trip from Chicago to New York in nineteen hours and fifty-seven minutes.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have a serious time of it.

Why the Brass Band Didn't Play.

In answer to Mr. Harry Smith's notice published in last week's Farmer, that the Brass Band would not play as advertised, it was merely contrariness of some of the band boys.

Happy Time in Old Town. "We felt very happy," writes R. N. Revill, Old Town, Va., "when Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scald head."

Hotel and Sanitarium In St. Tammany.

A large sanitarium, rest and water cure is to be erected in St. Tammany within a short time. That much was decided at a meeting of a dozen or more capitalists and physicians held in New Orleans last week.

At the last meeting of the Louisiana State Medical Association, which was held in Shreveport early this month, the matter of erecting a sanitarium in St. Tammany was discussed, and the physicians who spoke on the question were unanimous in declaring that such action should be taken in the immediate future.

Slidell Items.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer: If you will allow me space, I will give you a few notes for publication.

We had a little rain here Saturday, which was much appreciated, as the dust and mosquitoes both at the same time were too much.

Rev. Mr. Williams preached to a very interesting sermon yesterday. Miss Rosa Robert was in town shopping Saturday. We are always glad to welcome her in our little town.

Miss Olivia Provost left last Sunday for Perrington, Miss., where she will spend a few weeks with friends. We hope she will soon return, as she is a charming young lady.

Blackberries were plentiful here in spite of the dry weather. Folks could have blackberry pie four stories high.

Mrs. S. Todd has been very sick, but is improving, and we hope she will soon be able to take her class at Sunday school again.

What can be the matter with some of the correspondents, they have been silent so long? I hope nothing serious. I guess Wildwood is having trouble with his Mary again, and Orlando is busy talking to his girl these warm days.

Come out, one and all, and don't be courting so much. If this short letter does not find its way to the waste basket, I may write again. I am THE MAYFLOWER.

Losa Notes.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer. Dry weather has served Losa badly but the rains have revived us so here we come again.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll have the sincere sympathy of the community, in the loss of their little baby Russell, aged 1 year and 1 month. It's little soul has been wadded away to happier scenes than this earth can produce.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, of Kentwood, are visiting friends and relatives at Losa, much to our delight—always glad to see pleasant faces.

Miss Anzella Bateman opened school this week in the Blackwell school house, 20 pupils enrolled. Miss Anzella is very popular, being one of Losa's belles.

Mrs. Josie Core returned home, after an extended trip of six weeks to Kentwood. Glad to have you back Mrs. Joe, as your smiles always bring sunshine in our midst.

Mr. Bozeman will hold services at Welcome Church on the 4th Sunday in July.

Mr. Howard Burns is home again, after an absence of six months in Dixon Academy.

We see our friend Mr. C. B. Rogers has purchased a new buggy—that's right, friend Bally is fast coming to the front.

Mr. Aleck Rogers visited Losa this week.

Mr. Willis Fortinberry will hold services in Bogue Falaya Church next Sunday, June 29.

Mr. George Fenderson was a visitor to Losa last Sunday. LOTUS.

Mr. T. C. McLain paid his mother a pleasant visit Sunday.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Jas. Rogers is progressing fine with his school. Both teacher and pupils are very much contented.

An ice cream party was given at the house of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rogers in honor of Miss Mollie Hirschwitz, a charming young lady of the crescent city.

Oh! how pleased we are to have Miss Dara Rogers back to her old home once again.

We were pleased to have the company of Mr. Mark Fitzgerald. Come often, Mark.

Well, so long. As the weather is so very warm, I sign my name. Yours truly, FEWCLOTHES.

Bayou Lacombe Locals.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer: The health of this community is above an average.

We have preaching every fourth Sunday of the month by Rev. Carter, our worthy pastor.

The farmers of this section are as busy as bees in a tar bucket. You ought to see Dan and Aaron Todd Sunday.

Miss Louisa Rillieux was spending a few days in our town. She has now left to make her future home in California.

Miss Barbara Pierce is home again, after a long stay up North.

Mrs. Louis Cousin and Miss America Cousin, and little sisters, Inez and Zola, of New Orleans, arrived at Bayou Lacombe, Sunday, on a visit to their cousin, Miss Lucille Cousachs.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Aubry, of New Orleans, were visiting the Misses Rouquette. The community gave them a warm reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Felix are comfortably located at the Mulberry Cottage for the season.

Mr. D. Cousin made a flying trip to the city this week.

Ask John Todd where he went Saturday. We saw you, John.

Mr. Ernest Mitchell is on the sick list this week. Sky readers, look out for a wedding soon.

All are glad to learn that just in one week more the mail will be delivered every day.

Until I come again, I remain, with best wishes for our parish paper, HILDA.
