C. CHAMPAGNE, Observer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hosmer left last week for Hot Springs, Ark.

On and after next Friday, July 1, daily mail service will be established throughout the parish.

Beautiful home sites on the Garden District and Bossier City are for sale. See advertisement in another column.

A number of our citizens left on the schooner O'Rourke last Saturday, for a cruise along the Lake and Gulf coast. They returned Thursday morning.

The Sixteenth section, public school land, will be sold at public auction at the Courthouse to-day. See advertisement on page eight.

Next Friday will be the Glorious Fourth of July. Remember the excursion to Mandeville, by the Covington Brass Band, on that day.

The long drought was broken by a good rain last Saturday afternoon, which cooled the atmosphere, settled the dust, and greatly benefited the growing crops.

The first commencement exercises of Miss S. Johnson's private school will take place to-night, in the U. F. B. A. Hall, in Madisonville, at 8 o'clock.

The deficiency of rainfall since June 1 is more than 3 inches, and since Jan. 1 is more than 14 inches. This has placed the first half of the year 1902 in the category of abnormally dry epochs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy H. Smith and two sons Barclay and Warren, left last Monday for Manitou Springs, Colorado, accompanied by their daughter, Clara, who will visit friends at Salina, Kansas. They expect to remain away about two months.

There will be a grand entertainment and ball at Conrads Hall, Abita Springs, to-night, June 28, for the benefit of the engine fund of Abita Springs Fire Co. No. 2. A fine program has been prepared, and an enjoyable time is assured. Admission 25 cents, children 10 cents.

The four large public school rooms in the Pavilion have been completed. They are commodious, with plenty of air and light, and have been arranged especially for school purposes, with a view to the health and comfort of the children. The work is in all respects acceptable, and reflects credit upon the contractor and builder, Mr. W. H. Krone.

Mr. Jos. B. Lancaster appeared before the Supreme Court, in New Orleans, last Saturday, as an applicant for admission to the bar. He passed with high honors, and was complimented from the Bench for the splendid manner in which he went through the ordeal of examination, and he is now a full-fledged lawyer. We extend congratulations, and wish him much success in his chosen profession.

Poole Bros. now run a mail and passenger hack daily to Franklinton, which will be a great convenience to the traveling public. They also have a fine assortment of the latest style vehicles, and gentle buggy and saddle horses, for the accommodation of their patrons. We call attention to their advertisement in another column.

The ball at the Pavilion last Saturday night to raise funds to paint the school rooms and Pavilion was not largely attended, on account of the inclement weather. Those who were present enjoyed themselves dancing to the excellent music furnished by the string band, composed of Messrs. Kornfeld, Herrie, Champagne, Planché and Zinet.

A Delightful Excursion

Last Sunday evening the young men composing the Enterprise Club engaged Mr. Fritz Jahncke's fine tow boat, Claribel, which towed one of Mr. Jahncke's large sand barges. The barge was in every way fitted for the occasion, being roomy and protected with a four-foot gunwale, which offered protection for the many little children on board. The start was made from the Covington wharf at half-past five o'clock, with a large and merry crowd on board, which well filled both tow boat and barge. The trip down the beautiful Bogue Falaya and Tehefunctua rivers was one of the most pleasant that could be imagined, and the fine scenery was enjoyed by all. Madisonville was reached about 8 o'clock, and many excursionists joined the party from there. A run was made out in the lake, five miles from the mouth of the Tehefunctua river, where the boat shifted for about an hour. The lake was calm as a mill pond, and the full moon shone down on the waters, making a delightful picture. Where else in Louisiana can such an excursion be offered to the public? The Covington Brass Band discoursed excellent music, giving the young people an opportunity to dance to their heart's content, and refreshments were served on board at reasonable prices. In fact, the young men composing the Enterprise Club, deserve thanks for the able manner they handled the affair, there being nothing objectionable to mar the trip, from beginning to end. Many thanks are due Capt. Redding for the skillful manner in which he handled the boats, and for his kindly manner towards the excursionists, doing all in his power to make the trip pleasant for them.

It is the intention of the Club to repeat the excursion in the near future, and they will offer to the public an opportunity to take a trip down the two most beautiful rivers in Louisiana, and for the sum of 50 cents the distance of over 60 miles can be traveled, every mile of which will be one of interest and enjoyment.

EXCURSIONIST.

A most delightful surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Tnos. Brulotour, in their charming home on the Bogue Falaya River, near Covington, last Friday night. The guests were royally received, and vocal and instrumental music was in order. Selections were given by Misses Huberwald and Edna Legier, Messrs. Lawrence Pico and Jno. Pudor, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Baldey and Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Cundall. Choice refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in till a late hour. Those present were: Misses Malvina, Alice and Marie Huberwald, Edna and Corinne Legier, Corinae Briant, Cecile Le Basque, Florence Bernos, Ernst, Mr. and Mrs. V. McEnaney, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Baldey, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Cundall, Messrs. Jno. Pudor, Lawrence Pico, Frank Norman and Ed H. Kentzel.

Misses F. Colet and G. and E. Messer, Smith left for the city last Wednesday, after a stay of two months. The guests of Mrs. F. Zeitvogel. An enjoyable party was given in their honor Tuesday evening. A fine string band was in attendance and dancing was indulged in. Among those present were: Misses Philine and Julie Pochon, Miss Back, Misses Badon, B. Zeltvogel and J. Gautt, Messrs. M. and P. Poole, J. and E. Harzey, Z. Badon, P. Segond, Leon Hebert, E. Harzoro, Killilla, H. Bouton and H. Rockenshon.

The entertainment and dance at the Pavilion, last Wednesday night for the benefit of the engine fund, was well attended, and proved a highly enjoyable affair. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental music, tableaux, cake walk, etc. Dancing was enjoyed till a late hour, the music being furnished by the Covington Brass Band, and the refreshment tables were well patronized. Much credit is due the lady managers for the success of the affair, and doubtless a good sum was realized for the worthy cause.

Ludwig C. Heintz, son of Dr. F. Julius Heintz, graduated with honors at the Boy's High School, in New Orleans, on Friday, June 20. He was born in Covington March 21, 1883. He remained here until he was thirteen, when he went to the city to attend the public schools. He entered the Laurel School in the fifth grade, 1897, and the Boys High School in 1899. He will enter the Tulane Medical next session.

Alfred Deiler, nephew of Prof. J. Hanno Deiler, also graduated. Among the graduates in the Normal School last Monday, were Miss Bessie Lee Danner, niece of Mrs. Chas. Frederick, and Miss E. Deiler, niece of Prof. J. Hanno Deiler.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate to buy a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable remedy is for sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.
