We had a good rain last Wednesday, the first in nearly three months.

We are indebted to the string band for a delightful serenade last Monday night.

The Covington Loaters and the Madisonville Juniors crossed bats in Madisonville last Sunday, and the game resulted in a score of 11 to 10 in favor of the "Loaters."

Mr. F. Jabucke's dredge boat is now some distance above the schooner landing, and has greatly benefited navigation. In a short time we hope to see it as far up as the Covington bridge, making the river navigable for large and small vessels up to that point.

The Enterprise Club have purchased a square of ground in New Covington, and have commenced work cleaning it off for a ball park and other amusements. The officers are as follows:

President—J. L. Smith. Treasurer—E. Beaucoudray. Secretary—W. H. Keutzel.

Sheriff Brewster has no doubt made the banner report of the State, on the taxes of 1901, having collected the sum of $840,299 more than the roll calls for. We venture to say no other Sheriff in the State can make such a favorable report.

A member of the Jefferson Guards, State militia, of Jefferson Parish, came over last Wednesday. The Company intend to camp out for a few weeks. He was well pleased with Covington and surrounding country, and should the company decide to camp here they will be given a cordial reception. No more favorable location could be found anywhere in the State.

The entertainment to be given in Abita Springs, Saturday night, July 12, for the building fund of St. Jane's Church, promises to be a very entertaining affair. The program, comprising recitations, vocal and instrumental music, will be very interesting, and a large number of ladies are as busy as bees to provide for the amusement and the refreshment of their guests. The grounds of the New Abita Springs Hotel will be decorated in order to imitate a "Venetian Night," will be richly illuminated. Covington friends who do not wish to use their own conveyance can go to Abita Springs on the 7:30 p. m. train and will be brought home at 11 p. m. But this hour may prove to be one of the most amusing, as a string band intends take possession of the superb garden pavilion and play into the cool breeze for the benefit of the mocking birds and sparrows.

To make things short the arrangers of the entertainment expect their friends from all directions, near and far, and promise to give them a royal time all around.

NEED MORE HELP. Often the over-taxed organs of digestion cry out for help by Dyspepsia's pangs, Nausea, Dizziness, Headaches, liver complaints, bowel disorders. Such troubles call for prompt use of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are gentle, thorough and guaranteed to cure. At the City Drug Store, J. L. Watkins, proprietor.

Bayou Lacombe Locals.

July 2, 1902.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer: Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Morning, accompanied by Mr. Sam Glover, all of New St. Tammany, spent a most enjoyable day on the banks of our salubrious Bayou. They were joined by Misses Lillie and Cecile Cousin and Dan Todd. This week Mr. D. Cousin got from his watermelon patch, a melon of the most enormous size. Upon weighing the same he found it to be 62 1/2 pounds. Had Mr. Cousin been going towards Covington it would have been a pleasure to present our Editor with the melon.

Dr. Van Zant, of Mandeville, was in town Tuesday, mingling among sick folks. People are saying everything nice about you, doctor, so come again.

HILDA Letter from the Philippine Islands.

Manila, P. I., May 16, 1902.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer: I write this to tell the people of your vicinity what a soldier does and how he is treated in the far off Philippines. The 28 Infantry landed on Dec. 15, in old Manila Bay, and was landed on cascos or large flat boats. Company C, of which I am a member was stationed at Indau, Cavite Province, a very nice post for two companies, about 45 miles southwest of Manila. There are no Americans in the post except officers and soldiers. Our quarters are next to the Church, which is Catholic. There is only one church in each town which has seven bells, and they chime every morning and evening. This month is a month of feast among the natives. You people in the States that never saw a Filipino have no idea what kind of people they are. Their dress is composed of a pair of breeches and a shirt made of rice straw. They live on rice and fish. Fish are plentiful in all the streams. Their language is a dialect taken from Spanish. Indau, our post is beautiful place, among the cocoanuts and banana groves which are covered with fruit, nuts and monkeys, the year round. Every morning we can see the monkeys chasing one another and throwing cocoanuts down. Mangoes is another fruit, only ripe in the month of May and June. There are also a few pineapples, which are delicious when almost ripe and are very beautiful. Our company has not had many fights, as we are stationed in a Province of civilized land, but we killed all through Rastang Province. There our regiment captured Gen. Malvar, the last leader of the Insuridos, and now there is no more fighting on the Island of Luzon. While I was on the last bike I was chasing two ladrons and I burned five shacks as we call them, and was going down a large mountain, which was so steep that I had no hold on to the brush and I fell about 30 feet and sustained my ankle, which I could not walk on for two weeks. I crawled to camp, about two miles. When I got to camp, Lieutenant sent me to the hospital at Nowogit. We, that is a corporal of company B, and myself road to the bay on ponies, about two miles from camp, where three native police and four Philipinos had brought rations to our company, and we were going to go back to Nosogit with them in a small sail boat. We got to the bay about six o'clock in the evening. All the Philipinos left us except one police and we had to stay on the boat all night, the next morning they got back and we got in the hospital about noon, and we were so hungry, had not had a mouthful to eat for 24 hours. We got back to Indau about five weeks after.

The weather is getting very warm, it is now about 115 in the shade. The rainy season is just commencing which will make it very disagreeable until it is over, that will be in December. Every morning after guard round we go down to the shacks and talk to the citizens as we call them, that is the same as sweethearts. The women run the canteens or saloons. They have the native liquor venano and coriban shell, almost the same as whiskey. As I have told some of the many things that Uncle Sam's soldiers have to do, I will close, hoping to return to my own country, I am Sincerely yours, PETER BERLIER, Company C, 28th Infantry.

Large Hotel and Sanitarium to be Built.

Covington is soon to have a mammoth hotel and sanitarium. Dr Charles O. Farrington of New York and H. C. Ames of Baltimore are here in the interest of a stock company capitalized at $150,000 which they are organizing for the purpose of building and operating this hotel and sanitarium. These gentlemen propose to place the bulk of their stock with Northern and Eastern people, who contemplate coming here during the winter. The people of this parish will be asked to subscribe for only a small portion of the stock. As soon as enough of the stock has been subscribed a site will be purchased and a modern hotel building, capable of accommodating between 150 and 200 guests, will be erected. A large sanitarium will also be built and operated in connection with the hotel. The sanitarium will be under the supervision of competent physicians; will be provided with trained nurses and everything necessary for the comfort and convenience of the sick. The Hotel will also be provided with a cafe and a complete system of baths. Messrs. Farrington and Ames are negotiating for the purchase of the famous Mulberry Grove Hotel and grounds, situated at a distance of two miles north of Covington. This is probably one of the most picturesque and beautiful spots in this section, and is eminently suited for the location of a large hotel and sanitarium. The fact that Mr. Farrington and Ames have decided to locate their hotel and sanitarium here, after having investigated all the great health and winter resorts of Florida, California and Texas, is, indeed, a very strong recommendation in favor of Covington.

THE BEST LINIMENT FOR STRAINS. Mr. F. H. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. I used it last winter for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected." For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

Railroad to Franklinton.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company will build a railroad to Monticello, as stated in our last issue. The Company has bought the railroad of the Pearl River Lumber Company, which line will be straightened and leveled and put in first-class condition for traffic. The grade will then be completed to this place, and we understand that the road will be built on to Franklinton, La., at an early date. The surveyors have moved their camp to town, and are occupying the Wilson old hotel, from which place they go out every day for the purpose of running lines. Two contractors were here this week—one from Illinois and one Missouri—with a view to bidding on the route. All bids will have to be submitted by next Saturday, and it will probably be ten days later, before the contract is let. By the first of August work should begin on the grading, and it is calculated that by the first of October trains will be running to Monticello. There are only about seven miles of new grading to be done, though of course considerable work will have to be done on the lumber road before it is accepted for regular passenger and freight service.—Lawrence County Press.

W. J. Hutton, of Alabama, J. D. Lynet, or Illinois, J. H. Murphy and J. P. Ball, of Brookhaven, who are connected with the above project, were here on Friday of last week, having passed over the line from Brookhaven to Monticello and then south to this place, which line was surveyed some time ago by the I. C. Railroad Company, making an estimate of the cost of building the road, and state that the Company will complete the same to this place at an early date.—New Era

"The way to gain a good reputation is to endeavor to be what you desire to appear." That is precisely the manner in which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained its reputation as a cure for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Every bottle that has ever been put out by the manufacturers has been fully up to the high standard of excellence claimed for it. People have found that it can always be depended upon for the relief and cure of these ailments, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

The Ellenville News man went to a picnic recently and returning home "scratched" off the following: "The picnic is upon us with its shady nooks and snakes. The flies are in the lemonade, the ants among the cakes. Mosquitoes hold the cool retreats, while through each lover's lane the flea flits like a pirate fierce upon the Spanish main. "The picnic is upon us, and the parasol is spread in the spider's shady workshop, by the woodtick's leafy bed. The forests entertain the folks from the city and the town, and they come back tired and scratchful when the picnic sun goes down."

Be it ordained, That from this date, no unlighted vehicles, or other obstructions, except building material, shall be allowed to remain on the streets or boulevards for a longer period than six hours, and that all other laws in conflict herewith be and are hereby repealed. Any person violating the provisions of this Ordinance, on conviction before the Mayor, shall be fined not more than five dollars, or imprisoned not more than ten days, at the discretion of the Mayor. Adopted July 1, 1902.

THE SAME OLD STORY J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and retold by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.
