Something of a Whopper.

The St. Louis Chronicle awarded its anecdote prize for the following story:

"A commercial man stopping with a farmer in Barry county, on asking as to the productiveness of the land in that section was told the following: 'If you will come out to my garden I will show you how the soil will produce.' Taking a few cucumber seed the two stepped into the garden. The farmer informed the commercial gentleman that it would be necessary for them to run as soon as he dropped the seed. Of course the visitor did not comprehend the situation, but when the farmer dropped the seed and covered them and started to run for the house, the visitor was amazed. Noticing the ground moving he started also, but alas, too late. Before he could reach the fence the vine had wrapped about him. His first thought was of his knife to free himself. But in reaching to his pocket he found a large cucumber completely filled it."

Cut this out and take it to V. H. Frederick's drug store and get a box of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. The best physic. They also correct disorders of the stomach. Price 25 cents.

Last Sunday we noticed two kids, a young man just out of knee pants escorting a young girl still in short dresses. As they arrived at the excursion train, his smiles indicated that he felt like a tub of butter swimming in honey, cologne, nutmeg and pineapples, while she looked as though something was traveling through her arched over feet of diamonds, escorted by several cupids in golden chariots drawn by pink butterflies, shaded with honey suckles and the whole spread over with melted rainbows. As the train pulled out they were still giggling.—McComb City Enterprise.

SAVES A WOMAN'S LIFE.

To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from a severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often," she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was completely cured." Sufferers from Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung Trouble need this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by J. L. Watkins, of the City Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

In a village postoffice Miss Peck had a job at six pinks per week. But she near had a fit And threatened to quit. When a postal came written in Greek. (Exchange.)

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T. writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at V. H. Frederick's Drug Store.

Leading Up To It: Bobbie—"You know them preserves out in th' pantry wot you told me not to eat?" Mother—"Yes." Bobbie—"You know you said they'd make me sick if I et 'em, didn't you?" Mother—"Yes." Bobbie—"Well, they didn't."—Ohio State Journal.
