A Kiss in the Dark.

To-day I asked of Madge, the winsome sprite.

To whom I'm pledged, by grace of love's old story,

Were you not startled when, last night,

I caught you in the dark conservatory

And kissed you?" The effect of her reply

I'll leave for you to glimpse, and then draw the curtain:

"Well, no; not startled," came her answer shy:

"I rather thought 'twas you—but wasn't certain!"

Editor ST. TAMMANY FARMER:

Here comes your pencil shaver again with a few more scrapings and cullings from our thriving little community and surroundings.

The health is not as good as the present writing as it has been in the past.

There has been so many thunder showers of late the farmers could not make much hay.

Mr. Luke Allison passed through this neighborhood a few days ago on his way to a broken down carry-log.

Wm. Jordan is on the sick list for the last few days.

Rev. D. A. Boothe is still very punny.

Mrs. Kinneman and her daughter, Miss Loretta Pelke, of the city, but formerly of this place, came over Sunday on a business trip, and returned last Wednesday. We think they will move back to Horse

Branch, as anyone that lived here can't stay away very long. We welcome them in our midst.

Although it rains nearly every day, still the ground is dry underneath as I never saw it before.

The late setting out of cabbage is looking well.

Mr. Louis Gotti has the flux.

We hope they will not prove serious in his case.

Mr. Louis Mathien and Jas. W.

Allison went to Covington last Saturday and hauled out Mr. Medal's broom corn threshing machine to clean his broom corn and get it ready for the market. His sample is the best I have seen.

Josh Gaines is camping in the old Coyne house, and is moving logs at a lively rate. He is buying all the timber he can get, paying one dollar per thousand, half down in cash. He has now 1600 acres bought. He will put in a poled road to run from Bogue Fa-lia River to Tchouctouctou River.

Hurrah for Josh!

There will only be Sunday School at Horse Branch every first and third Sunday in each month.

Mr. Louis Mathien wants some reader of the FARMER to give him some advice how to catch or get rid of the flying squirrels, as they are destroying a good portion of his pecan crop. Any remedy will be acceptable.

We are sorry to note the illness of Aunt Polly Allison, a congestive chill. We hope she will recover soon.

Mr. Louis Mathien went fishing last Friday and caught a string of fish and a large turtle.

The sporting men, with their dogs and guns, should look over the new game law and profit thereby, as there are several new features in the law.

Your pencil shaver is very proud to see his namesake in the FARMER, and I want to know if it is a girl or a boy. I always give a few yards of coffee to all my namesakes.

Best wishes to the FARMER.

WATER CURE FOR CHRONIC CONSTIPATION.

Take two cups of hot water half an hour before each meal and just before going to bed, also a drink of water, hot or cold, about two hours after each meal. Take lots of outdoor exercise—walk, ride, drive. Make a regular habit of this and in many cases chronic constipation may be cured without the use of any medicine. When a purgative is required take something mild and gentle like Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by V. H.

Frederick, druggist.

Notice.

Any one trespassing and cutting timber on my land, and such lands as are in my charge, without my permission, will be under penalty of the law.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 75c the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Whooping Cough and Lung troubles without losing its popularity all these years, you will be the wiser if you call your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap, and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Cough Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world.
