Summer Sweethearts.

ONE EVENING.
They sat beneath
The leafy trees,
And in the listless,
Languorous breeze
They whispered
Lovers' rhapsodies.

They spoke in Murmurous undertone
And called each one
The other's own,
To have and hold
As their's alone.

ANOTHER EVENING.
They sat beneath
The leafy trees,
And in the listless,
Languorous breeze
They whispered
Lovers' rhapsodies.

This time the same
Old monotone,
The same old words,
Each other's own.
But now she had
A different 'chap,
And he had struck
Another snap.

The Wise Virgins.

Their lamps were trimmed and burning,
So we learn from ancient songs;
They kept them that way, doubtless,
Just to heat their curling tongs.

DO YOU WANT TO YAWN?

Feel cold shiverings, aching in the bones, lack of energy, headache, and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it.
Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work a cure in any stage. J. A. Hobkins, Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Herbine, for several years.
There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, headache, biliousness, and for a blood-purifying tonic. There is nothing as good." See at V. H.
Frederick's Drug Store.

After the Doctor: "What profession do you follow?" "I follow the medical profession; I'm an undertaker."—Town Topics.

Rule of Success—"What is your rule of business—your maxim?" we asked of the Wall street Baron.
"Very simple," he answered. "I pay for something that I can't get with money that I haven't got, and then sell what I never had for more than it ever cost."—Life.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 75c the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap, and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Cough Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world.
G. G. GREEN, Woodbury, N. J.

The dark side of farm life is not any darker than the dark side of any other kind of life. The city attracts by the light, bustle, gaiety and amusements, and the bright side is supposed to represent it all; but the dark side of city life is darker than anything in the country, and the battle of life in the city is often a prolonged struggle for shelter and food. A little more light in the houses and a little more amusement among the families of the farmers, and they will find themselves without any dark side at all.

It is well known that the Moors are inveterate coffee drinkers, especially the merchants, who sit in their bazars and drink coffee continually during the day. It has been noticed that almost invariably when these coffee drinkers reach the age of forty or forty-five their eyesight begins to fail, and by the time they get to be fifty years old they become blind.

IT DOES RIGHT TO THE SPOT.

When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Lintment will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. C.
R. Smith, Prop'r Smith House, Tensas, Texas, writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Lintment in my family for several years, and have found it to be a fine remedy for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at V.
