Bogue Falaya Grove, No. 21
Meets on the first and third Saturdays in the month, at 7:30 P. M., at Castle Hall, K. of P., Covington, La.
Louis Marat, Noble Arch.
F. B. Haxpel, Secretary.

Frost happened for several days during the early part of the week.

The handsome building of the Bogue Falaya Club is rapidly nearing completion.

Mr. Hardy Smith, Jr., a student of the Tulane Medical College, is home for the holidays.

Blank citations, suitable for any ward in the Parish, for sale at this office. Price 10 for 5 cents.

We take this occasion to wish our readers a Happy New Year, and many returns of the day.

Mr. John Cefalu has arrived from Central America to spend the holidays at home.

Mr. H. D. Bullock, who is attending college in Sewanee, Tenn., is home for the holidays.

We hope "I. C. U.," of Horse Branch, will continue his new year letters. There is room enough for all.

Miss Lenora Cefalu, after a few weeks stay in Mobile, Ala., arrived this week to spend the holidays at her home, "Pinehurst."

Miss Carro Gnyol, who is attending school in New Orleans, arrived last Friday evening to spend the Christmas holidays at home.

A sixteenth section, situated in Honey Island, will be sold to the highest bidder on January 31. See advertisement in another column.

Misses Gertrude and Margaret Mullings, who have been attending school at Clinton, La., have returned home to spend the holidays.

Miss May Kentzel, a student of the Louisiana Industrial Institute, of Ruston, La., arrived home last Tuesday evening, to spend the holidays.

Mr. Ferdinand Stern, who is attending Tulane University, in New Orleans, arrived Tuesday morning to spend the holidays at his home in Covington.

Mr. J. T. Stroble underwent a surgical operation in New Orleans last Saturday. We learn he is doing very well, and hope will soon fully recover.

Mrs. S. M. Gage, accused of arson, was released last Tuesday, under a bond of $5,000, to appear for trial at the March term of the District Court.

On Thursday, January 1, the Feast of the Circumcision of Our Lord, there will be holy mass in Madisonville at 8 o'clock, and in Covington at 10 o'clock.

Mr. H. Q. Parker, Police Juror for the Sixth Ward, presented us last Wednesday with some fine rata bagas, their average weight being four pounds.

We acknowledge the compliment of a delightful serenade last Sunday night, by the Symphony String Band, which we thoroughly enjoyed. There is nothing like music to soothe the savage breast.

S. D. Felts, charged by Crawford Williams with assault with a dangerous weapon, with intent to kill, surrendered himself last Tuesday, waived examination, and was placed under $300 bond to appear for trial before the District Court.

Mr. J. J. Willis, of Pearl River, now has a fine flowing well, yielding 60 gallons a minute. It was put down by Mr. John Swinson, of the Eighth Ward, and is an evidence of his skill and ability as a well driver. It is 325 feet deep, with a two inch pipe.

The Methodist Conference in Alexandria adjourned last Monday. We note the following appointments of local interest:

Presiding Elder, W. H. LePrade, Covington, P. H. Fontaine, Slidell, H. Green.

Mr. J. D. Thomas, of Thomasville, presented us Tuesday with a mammoth radish. It was 13 inches in circumference, and 22 inches in length. With vegetables growing to such immense proportions, the sooner we establish a canning factory the better it will be.

We acknowledge the receipt of a bottle of pure old Rye Whisky, last Wednesday, with the compliments of Mr. B. Labat, a fine sample of his well stocked bar-room and store on Boston street. It will come in good in case of sickness, and we don't feel very well at present.

The Christmas tree entertainment in the Presbyterian Church, last Tuesday night, was an enjoyable one. The large tree was decorated, and the children who participated in the program acquitted themselves in a charming manner, and Santa Claus dispensed gifts to the children in his usual happy manner.

The program was as follows:
Song—Joy, Joy, Joy, by the Sunday School children.
Opening Address—Genella Everett.
Scripture Reading—C. K. Mullings.
Prayer—Rev. J. M. Williams.
Address—Janie Smith.
Song—Welcome Beautiful Day, by the children.
Recitation—Sing and Be Glad, by Winnie Wadsworth.
Recitation—The Silent Skies, John Mullings.
Song—Ring the Bells, by the children.
Recitation—Glad Xmas Bells, Cecile O'Donnell.
Song and Recitation—Merry Christmas Time, by five little girls.
Recitation—When Christmas Comes, Sydney Burns.
Song—What Saw The Shepherds, Misses G. Mullings and A. Perroncel.
Recitation—Busy Bee, Camille Stream.
Song—Pity The Poor, Miss Lucille Goyol.
Recitation—A Merry Christmas, Hattie Williams.
Duet and Chorus—Christmas Farewell, Miss Lucille Goyol and Mr. H. N. Holmes and the children.

Mr. Chas. Schallmaker, aged 20 years, an employee of Mr. W. T. Jay, on the tugboat Expert, was accidentally drowned in the Ichee funeacriver, near Goodbee's railroad, last Tuesday. He was standing on a log when it overturned, and being unable to swim he was drowned before aid could reach him. His body was recovered. A short time after his death a Christmas box arrived for him from his parents in Newark, N. J., and the news of his untimely death will be a severe shock to them.

W. W. Johnson, a negro, has been appointed Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue in New Orleans, vice Mr. Morgan Earhart, a white gentleman of intelligence and good social and business qualities, who was requested to resign for purely political reasons. Johnson claims to be a "Lilly White," and has some influence among the negroes in political matters.

During a dance at the residence of Mr. Wm. J. Fitzmorris in the Second Ward, between Thos. F. Fitzmorris and Collie Jenkins, in which the former was seriously cut in several places, and dangerously stabbed. He is being attended by Dr. Marrero, and will probably recover. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Jenkins, charged with cutting and stabbing with intent to murder.

COUGHING CAUSED DEATH
"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 at V. H. Frederick's drug store.

Dr. Chas. E. Glenn, Dentist, of Allegheny, Pa., is on a short visit to Covington, and is stopping at Claiborne Hotel. He is delighted with our climate and scenery, which is quite a change from the conditions which have prevailed in the frozen Northland.

The booming of dynamite cartridges re-echoes through the pines all day, as the work of blowing up stumps progresses, clearing the right of way for the new railroad that is to be built by the Greenlaw Lumber Company. It will be of standard gauge. Mr. Paul Guzman is the survivor, and Mr. Henry Keller has the contract for the grading.

A Grand Ball.
On Saturday, Dec. 27, 1902, a grand ball will be given by the Ladies' U. F. B. A., in their hall, in Madisonville, for the benefit of the public school building fund. Choice refreshments will be served. Admission, 25 cents. An enjoyable time is assured, and there will doubtless be a large attendance to aid in the worthy cause.

Notice to Stockholders.
The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Covington will be held at their banking house, on SATURDAY, Jan. 3, 1903, at 10 P. M. for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors for the ensuing year.
C. Z. WILLIAMS, President.

STRAYED—A Jersey cow, branded S. M. Color yellow, weight about 100 pounds. A reasonable reward will be paid for her return to St. Joseph Monastery, Covington, La.

When you go to New Orleans stop at Penn's Hotel, corner of St. Charles and Poydras streets. All front rooms, newly furnished throughout. Charges reasonable, by the day or week.

FOR RENT.
Maison Blanche.
Apply to J. M. BERNICHAN.

A COSTLY MISTAKE.
Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills, for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache, Liver or Bowel Troubles. They are gentle yet thorough, 25c, at the City Drug Store, J. L. Watkins proprietor.

Notice to Road Tax Payers.
Notice is hereby given to road tax payers, that if the taxes are not paid by the 31st of December, 1902, they will be indicted by the court, as the law directs.
T. E. BREWSTER, Sheriff.

Bargains in Violins and Mandolins at the Madisonville Drug Store.

FAVORITE FAMILY REMEDY.
Frequently accidents occur in the household which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises: for use in such cases, Ballard's Snow Lintment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at V. H. Frederick's Drugstore.

For Sale.
A large young bay mare, double-gaited. Will work anywhere. Perfectly gentle. Can be driven by women and children. Will be sold under a guarantee. Apply to B. LABAT.

FOR SALE—Choice corner lot, with good dwelling house, in Covington, La. Address inquiry to 55 Oak Street, Mobile, Ala.

Notice.
Any one trespassing and cutting timber on my land, and such lands as are in my charge, without my permission, will be under the penalty of the law, will be in my power to prosecute.
DORVILLE COUSIN.

NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL LAND.
STATE OF LOUISIANA,
Parish of St. Tammany.
Under and by virtue of an order issued by the Hon. W. S. Frazee, Auditor of Public Accounts of said State, dated Dec. 20, 1902, I will proceed to sell, according to law, at public auction, to the last and highest bidder, at the front door of the courthouse, in the town of Covington, Parish and State aforesaid, on SATURDAY, January 31, 1903, at 11 o'clock A. M., the following described school land, viz:

Section sixteen, township eight, south range fifteen east, in St. Tammany Parish, in quantities of not less than 40 acres nor more than 100 acres, as per plat of survey to be exhibited on the day of sale, after due appraisement, according to law.

Terms—Ten per cent. of the purchase price cash, and the balance in five annual installments, the interest to be paid on the whole amount annually, at the rate of eight per cent. per annum; the notes to be made payable to the Auditor of Public Accounts, secured by special mortgage on the land sold, and personal security in solido, until final payment of principal and interest. Or if the purchaser prefers, he can pay the whole amount of the bid in cash, deducting the interest the credit would otherwise draw.

In the event of the purchaser neglecting or refusing to pay any of these installments or interest at maturity, the mortgage shall be forthwith closed and the land resold.

Given at Covington, in said Parish and State, this 23rd day of December, 1902.
ADOLPH FREDERICK,
Treasurer of St. Tammany Parish, i. a. de27-61.
