C. CHAMPAGNE, Observer.

Timberland leases for sale at this office.

New Year's Day was dark, rainy and disagreeable on the outside.

Miss May Beary, of New Orleans, is on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Lacroix.

We had a heavy frost and thin ice last Saturday, the coldest weather of the season.

Miss Mamie Unsworth, of New Orleans, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emile Frederick.

Beautiful Bed Comforts, only $1.75 at the Nottion Store, Madisonville, also Fire Dogs, Tonges, etc.

Misses Lucy Wadsworth and Mertina Abney left this week for Brookhaven, Miss., to attend Whitworth College.

The fireworks are all gone, and the absence of their noise and threatening danger to life and property, brings a sense of relief.

FOUND—A gold and silver watch chain, containing the letters "K. O. P." 1885. The owner can recover the same by calling at this office and proving property.

Sheriff and Mrs. T. E. Brewster are the happy parents of a fine daughter, born Christmas Eve. She arrived just in time to hang up her hose for Santa Claus.

What is the greatest need of Covington during the coming year? Don't all answer at once.

Our answer is: A thorough and complete system of fire protection.

The holidays are over, and the students of Dixon Academy and the public and private schools are doubtless glad to resume their studies, after a season of rest and justification.

There was an enjoyable dance at the residence of Judge Milton Burns, in the Second Ward, last Monday night, and all present had a most enjoyable time. A number of young people from Covington were in attendance.

E. C. Palmer & Co., dealers in paper, type and presses, in New Orleans, sent us a handsome calendar. The picture is that of a beautiful girl, and would be an ornament to any parlor. Many thanks for the same.

The New Year was ushered in as usual, with a grand display of fire works and the ringing of bells, the blowing of steam whistles, etc. If its blessings are in proportion to its hearty welcome, we will all be rolling in wealth and enjoying good health, when it comes to a close.

The grand ball at Madisonville, last Saturday night, given by the Ladies U. F. B. A., for the public school building fund, was largely attended, and was both a social and financial success. The music was furnished by the Covington String Band, and our town was well represented.

We have received a handsome calendar, with the compliments of Mr. Jas. Prevost, manager of the Continental Fire Insurance Co., 823 Gravier street, New Orleans. The figures are large, and the beautiful colored picture represents the battle of Oriskany, 1777, where Gen. Herkimer was mortally wounded.

Miss May Kuntzel, who has been home for the holidays, returned to the Industrial Institute at Ruston, last Monday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hardy H. Smith and daughter, Miss Clara, who will enter the Institute as a student. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will visit friends in Vicksburg and Jackson, Miss., before their return.

An enjoyable dance was given at the residence of Mrs. Everhart on New Year's eve, attended by a number of young people from Covington.

The stockholders of the Bank of Covington will meet at the Bank this (Saturday) afternoon, at 5 o'clock, to elect a Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

Rev. P. H. Fontaine, the new pastor of the Methodist Church, arrived last Wednesday evening and will hold service Sunday, at the usual hours.

On Wednesday, Dec. 24, Mr. John Barker, of the Second Ward, while alighting from a street car in New Orleans was thrown to the ground, the car starting before he was on the street. Another car, following, struck him, badly crushing his hand, and he received other injuries: about his face and body. He was taken to the hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate his hand.

There came very near being a conflagration on Christmas Day, when the roof of Mr. J. Gilbert's residence was discovered to be on fire, supposed to be caused by sparks from the chimney. The alarm was given, and as usual our citizens rushed to the scene and the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. Mr. Gilbert tenders his sincere thanks to all who came so promptly to his assistance.

We acknowledge, with many thanks and best wishes, the receipt of the following groceries on Christmas Day:

From Mr. Emile Frederick, a bottle of fine Old Rye, and a bottle of Sherry Wine.

From Mr. R. G. Kleeman, a bottle of fine Red Top Whisky.

From Mr. J. L. Lacroix, a bottle of fine Old Pepper Whisky.

As a consequence, we are well supplied in case of sickness or snake bites during the coming year.

Covington Lodge, No. 188, F. and A. M., observed St. John's Day last Saturday night, Dec. 27, by the election and installation of officers for the ensuing year, followed by a grand banquet at the Commercial House. The officers are as follows:

Albert Theobald—W. M.
Milton Burns—S. W.
Albert Rockensoluh—J. W.
John Theobald—Treasurer.
Chas. Heints, Sr.—Secretary.
H. R. Warren—S. D.
R. Baden—J. D.
Wm. Dupriest—Tyler.

In honor of Rev. F. G. Hocutt and his wife, the members of the Covington M. E. Church South assembled Friday evening, Dec. 26, to bid them adieu before departing for their new home at Biloxi, Miss. Arriving at the parsonage they sang the beautiful hymn "Jesus Lover of My Soul." At the conclusion they walked in and took possession of the house. It was a complete surprise to the old couple. Rev. J. B. Kent, one of the members, made an address, speaking of the good, faithful work done by both Mr. and Mrs. Hocutt, and with best wishes for their future home, then presented him a purse made up by the members of the church. Rev. Hocutt, also his wife, responded. In conclusion they sang "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again."

Rev. F. G. Hocutt was superannuated by the last annual conference, and in his stead they appointed Rev. P. H. Fontaine.

Mr. S. W. Hammonds, with his charming daughter Mae, son John and daughter-in-law, all of Carley, Miss., spent the holidays very pleasantly with their relatives here, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Mullins. It being their first visit to Covington, their admiration and praises for our beautiful little city and its progress was great.

Mr. Willis Hartzog, of Seminary, Miss., also spent a week most pleasantly in Covington, with his old friend Mr. P. D. Mullins, returning home Sunday, so well pleased with the progress of our city to become a resident soon. Mr. Hartzog was in Covington some 20 years ago, and can well see the progress of our town.

Other guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Mullins during the holidays were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marx, of New Orleans, and their nephew, Mr. Edgar Conley, of Columbia, Miss.

The new Covington Presbyterian Church is now completed, and the people who worked so zealously for it are to be congratulated, especially Mrs. E. John Ellis, who was instrumental in doing so much in raising funds and giving advice for the construction of this church. The building is of a Gothic Architecture. The auditorium is 35x45, with a seating capacity of about 200. The main entrance has a vestibule, and the other side opening is entered by the tower. In the rear of the rostrum is a choir with a side entrance to the right. To the left is the Pastor's study all arranged for comfort. The interior is made of the native yellow pine, and finished in its natural color. The acoustics are perfect in every respect. The ceiling is arched very handsomely and laid out in panels supported by consoles. The floor is building. The Gothic windows are made to sections. The sashes swing on centers to assure ventilation. They are glazed with colored glass which makes a pretty effect. All has been planned to make it a modern little church, and the architect and builder, Mr. W. H. Krone, has surely succeeded. It is an ornament to Covington, as well as Jefferson Ave., which will be before long adorned with many more handsome buildings. Rev. J. M. Williams is pastor of this church. Mr. N. G. Pearsall, Chairman of the Building Committee, has taken a great interest in the erection of the church.

Mr. E. Domergue, Jr., local agent of the Liverpool and London and Globe Fire Insurance Co., sent us a handsome calendar, representing a vase filled with rare flowers. It is a work of art, besides being useful for reference.

Mr. Hiram Cook spent last Saturday and Sunday in New Orleans with the Misses O'Neil, and Miss Ida O'Neil and Mr. Cook witnessed the performance of the "White Slave" at the Crescent Theater Saturday night.

The members of the Omega Club were most enjoyably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hardie, last Wednesday night. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion. There was an interesting game, participated in by thirteen couples, also vocal and instrumental music, dancing and a display of fireworks, and choice refreshments were served. The score cards were hand painted, by Miss Jessie Evans, and as each game was won a small brass bell was attached, to ring out the Old Year. The winners were as follows: Miss Jessie Evans, ladies' first prize; Mrs. J. B. Lancaster, second; Miss Lola Pottevant, consolation. E. D. Evans, gentlemen's first prize; C. F. Hardie, second, and Robert Aubert, consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. Delery will entertain the Omega on Tuesday, January 13.

Tuesday evening, Dec. 30, the Covington String Band visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lacroix in honor of their guest, Miss May Barry, of New Orleans. A most delightful time was spent. Music, dancing and singing were kept up until a late hour, and refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lacroix, Misses May Barry, Mamie, Alice and Jimmy Doyle, Jossie Lacroix, Clarabelle Duplant and Prof. Herrie, Messrs. Theo. Zinser, Jos. and Louis Canatte, Louis and Fred. Beck, Walter Gaiztas, Paul Segond, James Bowen, Mrs. Brauer, Mrs. T. Lacroix, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Day and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Doyle.

Miss May Barry will return to the city Sunday after spending a delightful time.

STRAYED.
A large red cow, no mark or brand, came to my place, about four miles from Madisonville, on Monday, Dec. 29. The owner is requested to call for same, and pay costs, or same will be advertised for sale, according to law. jas-st M. WAGER, Madisonville, La.
