U. A. O. D

Issue Palmyra Grove, No. 21 Meets on the first and third Saturdays in the month, at 7:30 P. M., at Castle Hall, K. of P., Covington, La.

Top time is here, and kite time is near.

Mr. J. F. Pickett and family have moved to Lumberton, Miss.

Spring gardens are backward, on account of the rainy weather.

It is time to plant fresh potatoes, whenever the weather will permit.

District Court, jury term, will convene in Covington next Monday.

A fine daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jolly last Thursday, March 5.

Mrs. J. L. Murray, of New York City, is on visit to her sister, Mrs. Emile Frederick.

Mrs. Zeitvogel's new residence on the road to the big bridge, is completed, and is an ornament to the East End. Mr. Albert Zeitvogel was the architect and builder.

Mackerel, Herring, dried and pickled; Codfish, canned and boneless; Shrimp, canned and loose; canned Oysters, Salmon, Sardines, etc., at E. Richard's.

Boston street, between Florida and Kemper, is in a very dilapidated condition, and break-downs are of daily occurrence. A few hundred loads of brick bats, shells and sand would put this important street in passable condition.

Grad sale of bed quilts, flannel-lette, and winter underwear at the Notion Store, Madisonville. Everything at and below cost.

The heavy rain last Tuesday night caused another rise in the river, and considerable freight on the wharf was washed away, but may not prove a total loss, as much of it has been recovered, in a damaged condition.

Mackerel, Herring, dried and pickled; Codfish, canned and boneless; Shrimp, canned and loose; canned Oysters, Salmon, Sardines, etc., at E. Richard's.

A fine line of ladies and gent's purses just received at the Drug Store, Madisonville. Every one is a bargain, and all fine quality.

The Board of Aldermen of Alexandria, La., ordered an election for April 14 to submit a proposition to issue $28,000 in bonds for street paving.

There will be services in the Episcopal Church every first and third Sunday. Morning and evening prayer, 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Fine pocket knives, all guaranteed, and cheaper than you can buy them in the city, at the Madisonville Drug Store.

Lost.—On Thursday, Feb. 26, a black and tan Scotch Collie or Shepherd dog. A reward of five dollars will be paid his return to Miss L. Hosmer, Covington, La.

Umbrellas and parasols, a fine assortment just received at the Notion Store, Madisonville, La.

We wish to say for the benefit of those of little faith that the small-pox epidemic, in which only two supposed cases of small-pox were reported, has run its course and is now numbered among the things that were, and the house in which it was confined burned, so you can come to town now without any fear of running up against a case of small-pox.—Franklin New Era.

List of Letters

Remaining in the Post Office at Covington, La., March 2, 1903: Anny Dick, Jones W J Dr, Bennett C D, Moran Annie Mrs, Carter Fidler, Mayers H E, Desmond Wm, Patter Oscar, Groves George, Stabbe Frank, Gordon Tiny, Thompson G W, Gaudin Chester, LOUISE ALVAREZ P. M.

The members of the Omega Club were charmingly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith last Tuesday night. The prize winners were as follows: Miss Letais Perroucel, ladies' first prize, Miss Salome Seiler second, Miss Genevieve Burns consolation. Jos Delery, gentlemen's first prize; E. D. Kentzel second, and J. E. Nilson, consolation.

Mackerel, Herring, dried and pickled; Codfish, canned and boneless; Shrimp, canned and loose, canned Oysters, Salmon, Sardines, etc., at E. Richard's.

Those of you who are interested in getting the best for your money are cordially invited to call and see our line of shoes, comprising the American, Jeffersonian and Lone Jack, for men and boys, Girl Graduate and Dixie Girl, for women, misses and children. These are Southern shoes made by a Southern Factory to fit Southern feet, and they wear better, look better and last longer than any shoes at similar prices over which "Old Glory" waves.

BAHINGTON & CO.

DIED.—In Covington, La., Thursday, March 5, 1903, at 1:30 A. M., Mattie L. Cox, wife of V. H. Frederick, aged 30 years, six months and 20 days.

The deceased was popular with all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She possessed many rare traits of mind and heart, and was a kind and affectionate wife and mother. She leaves a sorrowing husband and two children, mother, brother and five sisters, and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

The funeral took place Friday morning, and was largely attended. Rev. J. M. Williams officiating.

COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Sold by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

COUNCIL HALL, Covington, La., March 4, 1903. The Council met in regular session on the above date.

P. J. DULON,

Marshal and Tax Collector. On motion, duly seconded, the above report was adopted.

On motion, duly seconded, the Council then adjourned till the next regular meeting, the first Tuesday in April, at 5 P. M.

WELL AGAIN.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Mooan, Ind.) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by V. H. Frederick, Druggist.

Pearl River Dots.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer:

Pearl River was represented at the Carnival. One of our bright seventh grade scholars of the public school was in the masquerading crowd on Canal St. as big as anybody. All know that was Wallace.

Miss Maggie Sims, from Raul's Springs, is visiting Miss Lizzie Willis.

Mrs. Kate Lewis is on a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. J. Willis's.

Mrs. Blackburn, of Covington, paid her mother, Mrs. T. Simpson, a pleasant visit last week.

Mrs. P. Schneider and daughters, Mrs. Willie Sullivan, Mrs. W. F. Crockett, Miss Susie Newman and several others attended the carnival from our town.

Miss Lida Simpson sends the names of her bright scholars who are on the roll of honor for February, in her department: 1st grade, Valentine Hager, 2nd grade, Eddie Penton and Lewis Hager, 3d grade, Dollie Garretsen and Henry Bennett. The school is doing fine work, but the inclement weather last month prevented a full attendance. The pupils all think their teachers and school is the best, and are might sing:

Before all schools in East or West. I love Pearl River school the best.

Mr. Willis is having another artesian well put down on his new lots.

Rev. Mr. Troutman attended the carnival and was much pleased with his visit and enjoyed the excursion to the jetties. He being from Kansas City, feels almost like a foreigner and all things look new to him. He is much pleased with the prospect of a year in the Sunny Southland.

"J. E. B." not having sent his laurel to help construct that wreath for "Wildwood" ought to have been more charitable to "Jay Bird's" feathers.

We had some sunshine to welcome the advent of old March, but he does not seem to be very lamb-like tho' his mane is not visible yet in our corner of St. Tammany Parish.

BAYOU LACOMBE DOTS.

We are having more rain, but O. K. Thanks.

Father Laroche, of Mandeville, celebrated mass in our church last Thursday.

The Carnival is over, we are now enjoying the Codfish Balls.

The Misses Tallie and Cecilie Cousin were accompanied on their return from New Orleans by Messrs. Dan. Todd and Sam. Glover. The ladies report a fine trip and a good time.

Mr. John A. Todd returned today from Biloxi, accompanied by his niece, Miss Fanny Scarborough.

Mr. Aaron Todd is under the weather this week. We wish you speedy recovery, old boy.

It is a pleasure to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Mitchell upon being the parents of a bouncing baby boy.

Messrs. Ernest Prieto and Frank Phillips, two popular boys of Mandeville, were here Sunday, calling on the young ladies.

Mr. Perkins is back from New Orleans to resume his work at the new mill.

I have been silent for quite a while but think I will come in a little more often in the future. I enjoy reading the news of our local town, but I see my correspondents are silent also. Hope you all will follow suit.

With best wishes to the dear old Farmer, and our editor, I am HILDA.

Lewisburg Notes.

A merry party of masqueraders met at the home of Mrs. L. David on Mardi Gras night, and were delightfully entertained by their charming hostess, who received them as "Queen Elizabeth." The spacious halls resounded with music and gay laughter, and after masks were thrown aside, among the gay throng were noticed Mrs. J. Carmichael, in the garb of a Spanish girl, red and black costume with red slippers to match.

Miss Fannie Boze, Gypsy Queen, red and black costume. Miss Anais Smith, Spring, blue and white costume, garlands of roses. Mrs. George Smith, Goddess of Liberty, whose tall and stately figure never looked to better perfection than gowned in Uncle Sam's colors, red, white and blue.

Mr. Geo. Strain, as Uncle Sam, and the host of the occasion, Mr. Louis Smith, Sir Walter Raleigh. Mr. Wm. Boyle and little daughter, Florence, were among the carnival visitors.

Mr. Alex Smith has returned to Dixon Academy, to the regret of friends.

Mrs. Carmichael and Miss Boze were visitors to Chinchuba last Sunday.

Carriages were out in full force on Sunday, everyone seemingly bent on taking advantage of sunshiny weather.
