The Public Circulating Library has just received a large number of new books.

All goods delivered free by the People's Warehouse.

Mr. Jas. Prevost and family are located in their summer residence in Covington.

Mr. Charlie Greet forbids trespassing on his place. See notice in another column.

Mrs. Chas. Flotte and family, of New Orleans, arrived last Wednesday evening to spend the summer in Covington.

The popular Lake Steamer New Camelia is being thoroughly renovated, and will soon resume her regular trips, between the city and Old Land ing.

The work of building brick sidewalks on Columbia street is progressing, and when completed will be a decided improvement to our main business thoroughfare.

Try your luck on a 42 piece tea set, given away free, by L. Medal & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steiner are the happy parents of a fine daughter, born last Monday morning. She is the first girl baby born in Mailville.

Miss Lillian Williams and Mrs. R. J. Holmes, of New Orleans, arrived last Tuesday, on a visit to their brother Rev. J. M. Williams, and wife.

Mrs. Dr. Wunderlich, of New Orleans, who came over a few days ago for the benefit of her health, spent a short time at her summer residence near Covington, and was so much improved by the change that she returned to the city last Sunday.

Mr. Elie Duplantis has opened a family boarding house on Nineteenth Avenue, in New Covington, opposite the residence of Sheriff Brewster. Terms moderate, and table furnished with the best the market affords. See his advertisement in another column.

The entertainment to be given by the ladies of the Episcopal Church, Easter week, is progressing very nicely. An interesting program has been arranged, and a good time is assured all who attend. Dancing and refreshments.

Hon. Jared Y. Sanders has taken possession of his new residence, situated on the banks of the beautiful Bogue Falaya river. It is one of the prettiest cottages found in this part of the country, equipped with all the modern improvements. It was built by Mr. W. H. Krone, who also designed it.

The government will shortly supply applicants with silk worms. A few years ago the silk worm industry was successfully conducted in Covington in a vicinity, where an abundant supply of mulberry leaves can be had in season, and some of our residents should apply to the government for a supply of the eggs and embark in the business.

Mr. Isaac M. Kline, the New Orleans Weather Forecast Official, said last Tuesday:

"If breaks in levee forty miles above New Orleans should be closed in the next few days and no other breaks occur, a further rise will occur at this point, otherwise changes will be slight."

The above appears to be a very strong argument in favor of the outlet theory.

Bogue Falaya Club.

A Delightful Reception.

Last Tuesday night the new building recently completed by the Bogue Falaya Club was the scene of a most brilliant social event—one of the most delightful that has occurred in Covington for a long while, and beyond doubt the most charming event in recent years. The occasion was the reception, by the members of the Club, tendered to their many friends in Covington, throughout the parish and abroad. Even far off New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Pittsburg, and other cities of the North and West, were represented in the large gathering.

The building was brightly illuminated with electric lights, and the spacious rooms were decorated with rare pot plants, and fine oil paintings adorned the walls. The center lights were surrounded with a profusion of white dog-wood flowers and evergreens, and presented a charming effect. Easy chairs were found everywhere, for the accommodation of the guests.

The Covington Orchestra discoursed sweet music during the reception, and also for the dance which followed. They were stationed on a platform surrounded with flowers and evergreens.

During the evening Misses Olivia Clobey and Lola Wright favored the guests with some fine selections on the piano.

With social converse, promenading, dancing and refreshments of the choicest kind and in endless profusion, the evening was most delightfully spent, the members of the Club sparing no effort or expense that could add to the pleasure and comfort of their guests.

Handsome gowns and full dress suits were largely in evidence, and the beauty and chivalry, smiling faces, sparkling eyes, merry voices and gallant demeanors, gave a charm to the brilliant scene that could be likened only to fairyland.

Much credit is due to Mr. J. L. Smith, for the good taste and artistic skill he displayed in arranging the decorations. The reception opened at 8 P. M. and closed at 10, after which dancing was enjoyed till 12 o'clock, when all dispersed for their homes, amid cordial expressions of admiration for the inapproachable and princely manner in which they had been welcomed and entertained by the genial members of the Bogue Falaya Club.

The members of the Reception Committee were as follows: E. A. Leonal, Chairman, N. G. Pearsall, J. L. Smith, Joe. Barriere, B. M. Miller, Dr. N. M. Hebert, H. E. Ellis and J. E. Nilson.

The Bogue Falaya Club is a social organization, composed of prominent citizens of the town and parish, and its building is ornamental in design, having wide galleries and large, airy rooms, which are plastered and handsomely papered, the woodwork being oil finished, which gives it a rich and cozy appearance. It is fitted up with billiard and pool tables, reading rooms, with all the latest periodicals, and has a porter in charge. In fact it is one of the finest and most complete social club houses to be found in the State, and is a credit to our town and parish.

The officers of the Club are as follows:

Harvey E. Ellis, President.
B. M. Miller, Vice-President.
E. J. Domergue, Treasurer.
Jos. Dolery, Secretary.

Directors—E. A. Leonal, Fred. Ily, Jas. M. Thompson, N. G. Pearsall, C. Z. Williams, Louis Medal, T. E. Brewster.

DEID—In Slidell, La., on Sunday night, March 29, 1903, James Keyser, aged 45 years.

The deceased was a resident of Slidell for a number of years, where he conducted a barroom and restaurant. He served four years as member of the Police Jury for the Ninth Ward. He leaves a widow, several children and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Call up 96-2, and get prices from the People's Warehouse.

The regular Wednesday excursions of the East Louisiana Railroad will be resumed for the season, commencing next Wednesday, April 8. The Sunday and Wednesday excursions will run on the same schedule time. We call attention to the advertisement, in another column.

For Sale or Rent.—Good dwelling house, on choice corner lot, in Covington, La. Address 50 Oak street, Mobile, Ala.

Mr. Jules Pechon, one of our oldest residents, has rented the Abney place, in Claiborne, and will conduct a first-class boarding house for both permanent and transient guests. See his advertisement in another column.

The dilapidated brick sidewalks on the square leading to the Bogue Falaya Club House are a menace to the life and limbs of pedestrians. This fact was remarked by many last Tuesday night. They should be repaired by the property owners along that street without further delay, in the interest of progress and public safety.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS.

The examination of applicants for certificates of qualification to teach in the public schools of Louisiana, which were to be held on Thursday and Friday of the second week in April, is hereby postponed until Thursday and Friday, April 16 and 17, in order to avoid work on Good Friday, which falls in the second week of April.

JOS. B. LANCASTER,
Parish Superintendent.

More Sidewalks.

The Rice Belt News, of Crowley, has the following to say on the sidewalk question, where the situation seems to be the same as it is in Covington:

Now that the weather has cleared up Commissioner Matt Little says that he will resume the work of sidewalk building, and every property owner on the line of the proposed improvements can expect to receive notices to build at once.

After the experience of the past winter it seems strange that any home owner would resist the enforcement of the sidewalk ordinance, and we believe the number of kickers is beautifully less, and that the work will go on with general good feeling all around.

The city will cheerfully put in the street crossings required and there is no reason why Crowley should not have 50 miles of good sidewalks before the end of the present season.

The hoghead of crockery lost by Mr. E. Richard during the high water was recovered near the wharf when the water receded. Instead of floating down the river into the Lake and thence to the Gulf, it sought its natural element, in the earth, being earthly.

The quarterly statement of the Bank of Covington will be found in another column. As usual, it shows a gratifying increase in the volume of business transacted, and the financial condition of the Bank is ample proof of its able management, and confidence placed in it by the business men and general public.

Just received, a full line of fishing tackle. L. MEDAL & CO.

MARRIED—At "Pinehurst," the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cefalu, parents of the bride, Thursday, April 2, 1903, at 12 M. Miss Blanche Beatrice Cefalu and Mr. Jefferson Davis Hardy, Rev. Joe. Koeger officiating.

The bride was gown'd in white liberty gauze over tulle with a beautiful wreath and veil. The attendants were: Misses Mota Lachs and Hazel Conif, bridesmaids and Miss Louisa Cefalu maid of honor, Messrs. R. H. Henry and Dr. Kilgore, groomsmen, and Mr. Lemar Hardy of New York, best man.

The ceremony was performed in the large parlor under a beautiful canopy with two large hearts of natural roses. Mr. T. W. Eckert, of Grandvalda, (N. O.) played the wedding march.

A large number of invited guests witnessed the interesting ceremony, including many from Covington, New Orleans, and points in the North and East, who arrived on a special train. The residence was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and the wedding presents were numerous and costly.

Immediately after the ceremony all adjourned to the spacious dining room where a sumptuous repast was prepared by Messrs. L. Souchon and E. Aubert, of Abita Springs Hotel, with Mr. Claude Chewolla as chef.

The happy couple left in the afternoon, on a special, for points in the North and East, after which they will go to their future home, Porto Conte. We extend congratulations, and wish them a joyful and prosperous future.

DIED—At Slidell, La., March 30, 1903, James Keyser.

The deceased was well known and highly esteemed in business circles, having conducted a successful business here for many years. In the death of Mr. Keyser our town has sustained a heavy loss, as he was one of our best citizens, manly, and generous to a fault. No costly granite monument is necessary to keep his memory fresh, for by his good and charitable deeds Mr. Keyser has built for himself a monument in the hearts of our people that time cannot demolish. He leaves his mother, wife and five children. May God comfort and console them in their trouble. Mr. Keyser's funeral was largely attended.

May his soul rest in peace.

Mrs. M. McDANIEL.

DIED—Near Pearl River, La., March 30, 1903, Olie Edward Swinson, aged six months, son of Jno. Swinson and Alice Lee.

This is five little sons that death has taken from Mr. and Mrs. Swinson. It is useless to attempt consolation, for none but Christ the divine healer can console those poor stricken hearts, for it does look hard to give up so many, but God knows best and does all things wisely and for our own good.
