Letture for Smallpox.

Those persons who do not enjoy being vaccinated, will be interested in the following statement from the New York Sun. "Letture is an absolute preventive of smallpox. No one is in the least particle of danger of catching the smallpox who eats a little letture every day. Smallpox belongs to the scorbutic class of diseases. Sailors at sea deprived of fresh vegetables get scurvy. Scurvy is a typical scorbutic disease. Smallpox is another. Smallpox always rages during the winter season, when the poor people are deprived of fresh vegetable food. Celery and onions are good for such purposes, but there is such a long interval between their being gathered and being eaten that they lose most of their antiscorbutic properties. Letture is served shortly after it is picked, and hence contains the valuable properties which will prevent smallpox. It is a thousand times better than vaccination. It has no liabilities, like vaccination, to produce other diseases. We are willing to stake our profession on the broad statement that anyone who eats letture daily will not catch smallpox, whether he is vaccinated or not."

One of Sousa's bandmen is quite a humorist. He was once a participant in conversation where the subject of tip-giving arose. The bandman said that in Germany, where the waiters are satisfied with very small tips, he always gave a gold piece. "Because, you see," he added, "when you give a German a gold piece he falls in a fit and then you can take it away from him."

According to a vagrancy law, the services of a Kentucky dude have been sold by court for $1 a month. This is another argument that in Kentucky they have no idea of the value of money.

Greatly Alarmed.

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
 Mr. H. P. Burgess, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C. had been troubled for four or five years with a coughing cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burgess, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by V. H. Frederick, Druggist.

Henry George, Jr., tells a story of the late Al. Johnson, brother of Tom L., in which he says, that Mr. Johnson sat up all one night figuring the possibility of the 50 cent fare from New York to Philadelphia paying him profits, to settle a dispute on the subject. After going over the subject thoroughly and critically, Mr. Johnson said, "I would be ashamed to tell the public how much we would make from a 50 cent fare for that 90 miles."

Minister—Once I married four couples in fifteen minutes. Captain—Let's see; that's sixteen knots an hour. We can beat that easily.—New York Herald.

First Commuter—"So you passed your station last night?" Second Commuter (wearily)—"No; there was a new brakeman who called out the name of the station so distinctly that I didn't recognize it."—Judge

Willie had swallowed a penny and his mother was in a state of much alarm.
 "Helen," she called to her sister in the next room, "send for a doctor. Willie has swallowed a penny."
 The terrified boy looked up imploringly.
 "No, mamma," he interposed; "send for the minister."
 "The minister!" exclaimed the mother.
 "Yes, because papa says our minister can get money out of anybody."

TOO GREAT A RISK.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of colic or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured, or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by V. H. Frederick, Druggist.
 "O, my!" she exclaimed impatiently, "we'll be sure to miss the first act. We've been waiting a good many minutes for that mother of mine."
 "Flour, I should say," he replied, rather tartly.
 "Ours?" she cried, joyfully.
 "Oh, George, this is so sudden!"—Philadelphia Press.

Mrs. Helen Moorman vs. Mandeville Yacht Club—No. 212.

By virtue of a writ of seizure and sale from the honorable the aforesaid court and to me directed, bearing date April 18, 1903.
 I will proceed to sell at public auction, at the front door of the Courthouse, in the town of Covington, Louisiana, on SATURDAY, May 30, 1903, between legal sale hours, the following described property, to-wit:
 A certain portion of ground, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon, situated in the town of Mandeville, St. Tammany Parish, La., described as lot in square No. 5, on a plan or Brangler, surveyor, dated Jan. 13, 1884, and comprised within Lake, Claiborne, Claussel and Foy streets less a portion of ground taken from the rear portion thereof, heretofore sold by O. F. Vallett, (former owner) by an act of indulture, registered in the office of the Parish of St. Tammany, on the 3rd day of Sept. 1883, said portion of ground measures 140 feet in depth and front on Calbon street, by a depth and front of 163 feet on Foy street, American measure, more or less, of which O. F. Vallett was owner or proprietor on the 18th day of March 1899.
 Seized in the above entitled suit.
 Terms of sale—cash, with the benefit of appraisement.
 T. E. BREWSTER, Sheriff.

NOTICE.

A reward is offered by the undersigned for any party or parties caught trespassing or cutting any timber on my land, (known as the Crossman's land), situated three miles from Abita Springs. They will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.
