A Word to Boys

You are made to be kind, boys, generous, magnanimous. If there is a boy in school who has a club-foot, don't let him know you ever saw it.

If there is a poor boy with ragged clothes, don't talk about rags in his hearing.

If there is a lame boy, assign him some part in the game that doesn't require running.

If there is a hungry one, give him part of your dinner.

If there is a dull one, help him learn his lesson.

If there is a bright one, be not envious of him; for if one boy is proud of his talents and another is envious of them, their are two great wrongs and no more talent than before.

If a larger or stronger boy has injured you and is sorry for it, forgive him. All the school will show by their countenances how much better it is than to have a great fuss.—Horace Mann.

Edward Bellamy made $6000 by "Looking Backward." This was better than Lot's wife, who merely earned her salt.

"Johnny," said the teacher, "Write a sentence containing the word 'contents.'" After a few moments' hard labor Johnny submitted the following: "The contents of a cow is milk."—Chicago News

"Try one of our new sofas," said the man in the furniture shop; "they're very healthy. Every one is stuffed with a new breakfast food."—Yonkers Statesman.

Bobby Bingo: "How long did it take you to learn to swim?" Willie Wise: "I learned in fourteen lockings."

The dude with his first moustache cannot understand why a girl who has an opportunity to kiss him should prefer her dog.

Teacher—Johnny, of course you know what a lawyer is? Johnny—Yes, ma'am; one lives next door to us.

Teacher—Well, then, please define the word.

Johnny—I can't, teacher, dere is young ladies in de class.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

A young man being accidentally seated in a pew with a young lady with whose charms he became smitten, stuck a pin in the following verse: Solomon's Song i. 15, and handed it to her. She read it, placed a pin in II Corinthians ii. 11, and Galatians vi. 3, and handed it back. He again handed it back marked Solomon's songs i. 10 and 11, John i. 5. She read it and handed it back marked Ruth ii. 10. He read it and marked Psalm xxxix. 58, and Solomon's song iv. 9. Again she handed the book back marked Solomon's song vii. 6, and II John i. 12.

The largest hotel in the world, the Ansonia of New York, has 2,500 rooms and there is not a piece of wood in the building.

GREATLY ALARMED. By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Barge, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C. had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Barge, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it.

Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by W. H. Frederick, Druggist.

Mr. John Wanamaker, who began business with confidence, a few goods and a wheelbarrow, will erect in Philadelphia a twelve story building to cost five million dollars.

The British postoffice department handled last year ninety-two pieces of mail master per capita of population, while the United States postoffice handled 197 pieces per capita.

TOO GREAT A RISK. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by W. H. Frederick, Druggist.
