In St. Tammany.

Will Mr. Robert G. Klien Plant a Vineyard.

Mr. Robert G. Klien, of New Orleans, who has had an extended experience in the manufacture and sale of wines, has concluded that St. Tammany Parish would be a good place in which to plant a vineyard, and is at this time prospecting in that locality for a suitable place to locate. Mr. Klien believes he has found a kind of grapes that will flourish better in St. Tammany soil and climate than it would, perhaps, anywhere else under the sun, and already knows in a practical way what the particular variety will do in the beautiful sandy country across the lake.

His progress in this new line of industry in the south will be watched with much interest by wine-growers all over the country, for therein lies the possibility that another industry will be added to the many already profitable in that section.—Daily States.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are just what you need when you have no appetite, feel dull after eating and wake up with a bad taste in your mouth. They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach and give you a relish for your food. For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

The Covington base ball club defeated the High School club of New Orleans, on Dixon Academy campus, last Wednesday, by a score of 9 to 8.

FINE PEACHES.—Mr. Otto Strattman, of the German Settlement, presented us last Wednesday with a basket of June peaches, some measuring eight inches in circumference. They were perfectly sound and well flavored. Mr. Strattman is one of the most successful farmers in the parish, especially when it comes down to raising fine peaches.

With raw cotton at 2 1/2 cents a pound higher than it was this time last year, and manufactured goods a cent a yard lower, it is not surprising that some of the mills which have cotton on hand are selling it in preference to turning it into goods.

John P. Parker, of Monroe, is said to have made $500,000 on the recent rise in cotton. Mr. Parker got on the bull side of the market at an early stage of the rise, and there he stayed. Mr. Parker was already worth over half a million, and his recent winnings have made him the only millionaire in Ouachita parish.

The most conflicting reports continue to come from Colombia regarding the ratification of the Panama canal treaty. In view of the fact that Colombia would long ago have been absorbed by some European power, had it not been for the maintenance by the United States of the Monroe Doctrine, the reluctance to grant to this country as good terms as were granted to France, is to put it mildly, ungrateful.

"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis, of Los Yass, "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets which have helped me very much so that now I can eat many things that before I could not." If you have any trouble with your stomach why not take these Tablets and get well? For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.

Assessor's Notice

Notice is hereby given that the listing of all property situated in the parish of St. Tammany subject to taxation has been completed, and estimated valuation made thereon by me in accordance with law, and that the said list will be exposed in my office at the courthouse, in the town of Covington, for inspection and correction for a term of twenty days beginning after ten days from the first publication hereof. General Jastremski Announces His Platform and Principles.

Baton Rouge, La., May 29.—

General Leon Jastremski stated, when he made the announcement of his candidacy in New Orleans last week for the Democratic nomination for Governor, that he would announce, at a later date, the general principles and platform that he would advocate and upon which he proposed to make his campaign. To the representative of the Picayune he expressed himself this morning as follows:

"We can look nowhere else than toward the Democratic party for the power to resist and eventually overthrow the Republican party, which is the party of centralization and unrelenting sectionalism. Every man who believes in the form of free government created by the founders of the American Republic must, perforce, align himself with the Democratic party. But to draw to its ranks the men who are animated by the convictions the Democratic party should be governed by rules and usages in thorough accord with its fundamental doctrine of 'equal rights to all and special privileges to none.' The stricter shall be the adherence to this doctrine the stronger shall it grow in favor and power among the masses. Hence it should be the first duty of every Democrat who holds the triumph of his party and its principles above personal advantage to lend his influence toward the observance of this doctrine.

"The Constitution of 1898 requires an educational or property qualification and the annual payment of a poll tax to exercise the right of suffrage. To give to these duly qualified voters the unquestionable right to express their preferences in the selection of the candidates for whom they are required to vote at the election when they have participated in the primary, a law governing primary elections, which guaranteed entire fairness, is upon our statute book. With these safeguards in view, the Democratic Party should afford to its supporters all the right of the American citizen—that is to say, to voice their preferences in the nomination of candidates, and to elect all public officials whom it is practicable for the people to elect. No good reason can now be urged for the retention of methods of nomination that have been repudiated in a majority of the Southern States.

"Consequently I favor the adoption, by the Democratic State Central Committee, of the primary election system for the nomination of all the candidates of the Democratic Party.

"I have entered the canvass freely and untrammelled, with good will to all and malice to ward none. If elected, I pledge myself to a faithful observance of the preceding declarations. I shall support, with the best of my energies and abilities, every practical measure or movement calculated to promote the educational, agricultural, industrial, commercial and other interests of the State. I shall carry out the laws and deal fairly and justly with everybody and with every interest in the State.

"Upon these enunciations of my views and pledges I most respectfully solicit the votes and support of all my fellow Democrats."

Special to The Times-Democrat: The Times-Democrat herewith presents the first of its reports on the cotton crop of 1903. The conclusion of this journal's correspondents may be summarized as follows:

- 1. The increase in acreage has been trifling, probably about two per cent. A considerably larger area was originally planted, but much of this was lost through the unfavorable spring and the inferior character of seed.
2. Although the weather has been more favorable during the last three weeks, the crop is still very late, and stands leave much to be desired.
3. The supply of labor is fairly sufficient on the whole, but many sections would have difficulty in picking a full yield.
4. No important damage by insects is reported yet, but Texas looks forward to the boll weevil's activity with apprehension.
5. The outlook is in the main decidedly below the average, but the plant is so backward that an early frost would imply a far reaching disaster.

Horse Branch Items.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer:

I will give you a few more locals from this place, as I don't see anything from most of your other correspondents. What has become of grassy crops. If that is the case please hurry up and get them clean and come along with a good letter to the Farmer, for I know our good editor is patiently waiting to hear from those slothful servants. Brush away the cob-webs from your eyes and get to work.

The health is still very good in this community, so far as I know. Mr. Hiram Thompson is suffering with a very painful arm, which was twisted out of place a few years ago.

The late planting of oats will be an entire failure in this vicinity. The first planting is ready to harvest.

The corn and cotton look well, but need rain again. Blackberries are ripe and fine. Mr. Paul Townsend has returned to the city to his place of occupation.

Mrs. Lulu Konzelman and baby, and Mr. Charles Carlyle, all of the city, are visiting Mrs. Ellen Khineman. Mrs. Konzelman is a daughter of Mrs. Khineman. They will remain some time.

Andrew Thompson has bought him a fine violin.

Mrs. L. Mixon and children, of the city, are visiting Press Mixon and family, also J. H. Thompson and family.

Louis Perreand, of Covington, was a welcome writer to our Sunday School last Sunday. Come again Louis.

Miss Loretta Polk, now of Covington, is out on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Ellen Khineman, of this community. It seems to me that there is a bug under the chip somewhere.

I have been informed that Mrs. L. Mixon is going to hold forth in the Paul Townsend house, for the summer, at least, for the health and benefit of her sick baby.

I am very sorry to note that Mrs. Perreand is suffering with rheumatism for the last few days and hope she will soon recover.

Mr. Perreand has a very painful toe, which was caused by sticking a snag in it. It could hardly be pulled out by Miss Adele, his daughter. We hope he will be alright soon.

There is great trouble to get watermelon plants, on account of what is called the lady bug. As soon as the plant comes up they eat it.

Mr. Ely Glass caught a fine catfish last Friday.

Mr. Louis Mathieu is still very feeble and don't seem to improve. We hope he will soon recover.

We had an over-crowded Sunday School on the third Sunday, with Superintendent at his post. There was a motion made to select some good song book. "The Class and Choir" was chosen. There was a collection taken up to the amount of $2 50 for a starter. We will collect from time to time until the desired amount is raised. We hope everybody will be liberal in contributing to this little fund and we will soon have a nice Sunday School class.

The dry weather and hot sun are playing havoc with the gardens.

Hurrah for Mrs. Lulu Hadley, of Indianapolis. We glory in her spunk.

Mr. Eddie Allison, of Simaloosa, was in attendance at our Sunday School the third Sunday. Come again Eddie, and bring more young people with you.

Your pencil shaver cut, bound and shocked four acres of oats last Monday, from sun up till five o'clock in the evening, and nooned one and a half hours. How is that, for a lazy man? I. C. U.

DIED.—Mr. C. Bailey Rogers, a prominent citizen of the second Ward, merchant, farmer and postmaster at Losa Postoffice, died last Tuesday. His funeral took place Wednesday and was largely attended. Rev. Edmund Corkern, officiating. The deceased leaves a widow, five daughters and two sons several grand children and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss.

HIS LAST HOPE REALIZED.

[From the Sentinel, Gabo, Mont.]

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big "a" one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a severe diarrhea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.
