We are all poor critics. Not long ago the editor of an exchange received a letter from a large distilling firm asking him for the names of citizens who might be interested in the literature of the firm, setting forth the merits of a new brand of whiskey, and promising him a commission on all sales. The editor, being somewhat of a practical joker, sat down and made out a list of the foremost prohibitionists of the place and forwarded it. He forgot all about the matter until a month later, when it was called to his attention by a letter from the firm of distillers, enclosing a draft for $16, with thanks for the list, which had been found peculiarly remunerative.—Ocean Springs Progress.

The protracted drouth in Australia, which has extended over a period of nearly six years, has brought ruin to the stock raisers and farmers generally, has destroyed millions of sheep and cattle and left vast areas of the continent in desolation. The drouth has lasted so long that there are said to be thousands of children, born since it began, who run in terror at the falling of a shower the phenomenon being new to their experience.

Some negroes at Fremont, O., started a "race war" Saturday night, and now it is said the entire colored population will have to leave town. If the people of Fremont aren't careful, Teddy will close their postoffice.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

She—"Doctor, I have lost my ascendancy over my husband completely." Doctor—"Why has he ceased to love you?" She—"Oh, no—he can't frighten him with my hysterics any longer."—Ally Sloper.

Jones—This talk about Friday being unlucky is all nonsense. My wife accepted me on a Friday.

Smith—But how about your wife?

Caller—Isn't this your sister's birthday? Little Bessie—Yeth, thir; but you muthn't alk me how old the fish, esuth I promised not to tell.—April Smart Set.

So you have decided to get another physician?"

"I have," answered Mrs. Cumrox. "The idea of his prescribing flaxseed tea and mustard plasters for people as rich as we are!"—Washington Star.

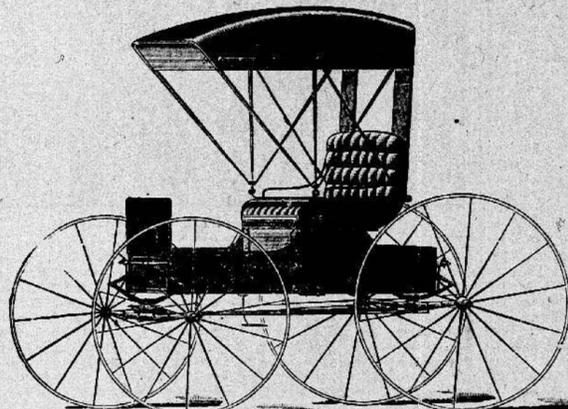

"You mustn't say 'devil,' Jimmie. It isn't polite."

"Paw says it."

"I know, but he is on familiar terms with him.—Atlanta Constitution.

"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis, of Los, Miss. "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets which have helped me very much so that now I can eat many things that before I could not." If you have any trouble with your stomach why not take these Tablets and get well? For sale by V. H. Frederick, druggist.
