Bogue Falaya Grave, No. 21 Meets on the first and third Saturdays in the month, at 7:30 P. M., at Castle Hall, E. of P. Covington, La.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—Rev. J. M. Williams, Pastor, will hold services in Covington on the 1st and 3rd Sundays, Madisonville 2nd Sunday, Sibley 4th Sunday.

Pay your poll tax now. You can pay your property tax later on.

What's the matter with Babington and Settoon? They are all right.

Thanksgiving Day was bright and clear with cold and bracing weather.

The excursion train last Sunday was a long one, just the same as mid-summer.

Fruit cake supplies, nuts, etc., at Lacroix & Singletary's.

The primary election last Saturday passed off quietly throughout the Parish.

Covington is rapidly coming to the front as the most popular winter resort in Louisiana.

The fine Lake steamer New Camella is being thoroughly renovated and fitted up for the next summer season.

Mr. Forsyth has also received a very fine assortment of Christmas toys. Call early and make your selections.

Magnolia, Miss., voted to issue bonds for a system of water works. Not a vote was cast against the proposition.

FIRE! That is the cry you will hear some night, when you least expect it. A policy on your house is a sure relief for insomnia. Try it.

Best Fruit Cake only 25 cents per pound, at People's Bakery.

We have had to order two more quires of paper this week, in order to keep pace with our rapidly increasing subscription list. New names are being continually added.

The police jury last week let the contract for building 300 miles of public roads in Tangipahoa parish, to Dr. J. H. Butler, of Mississippi, at $100 per mile of 17-foot roads, and $120 per mile of 20-foot roads.

The Sibley branch of the Covington Bank and Trust Co. will open for business about December 15, and will be temporarily located in the L, on the north side of Salmen's store.

Get your fruit cake ingredients from Segond & Hebert's.

Rev. E. Oscar Browne will hold a Sunday School Institute to the Presbyterian Church Monday, November 30. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. Chas. Beaujeux, of Mandeville, presented us last Saturday with some mammoth white sugar cane. It measured six and one-half inches in circumference and was very juicy and well flavored. He also brought us some fine pumpkin yams.

Thanksgiving Day was quietly observed in Covington. Services were held in the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches, the public schools were closed, and the day was appropriately celebrated at Dixon Academy.

Last Wednesday was one of the darkest days on record. The sun failed to put in an appearance, and things bore a gloomy aspect. Smoke from burning woods, aided by a cloudy sky, was the cause of it.

Louis W. Lyons has been found guilty of the murder of District Attorney J. Ward Gurley, of New Orleans, and the sentence will be death. The verdict is a just one. It is a too common thing for murderers to plead insanity to escape the gallows.

Don't fail to witness the nuptials at the store of Mr. G. C. Forsyth. Every purchaser to the amount of one dollar will be presented with a ticket, and the holder of the greatest number of tickets will be presented with the bridal party on Christmas Eve.

For the Cemetery

A number of ladies met at the residence of Mr. Hardy H. Smith, last Monday afternoon, to consider the question of improving and caring for the Cemetery. Two committees, of three each, were appointed to wait upon those concerned in the good work, and one to correspond with those living out of town. When the ladies take charge of a matter of this kind they know no such word as fail, and their success will be an honor and credit to themselves and to the town. Put us down as a subscriber and helper in the worthy cause.

At the meeting, Mrs. R. A. Ford was elected treasurer, and Mrs. H. T. G. Weaver corresponding secretary.

The soliciting committees are as follows: Mrs. S. D. Anderson, Mrs. L. L. Levy, Mrs. Charles Frederick, Mrs. Preston Burns, Mrs. S. M. Poole and Mrs. H. H. Smith.

Their object is to employ a permanent sexton to take charge of the Cemetery.

Rev. R. K. Tucker will hold services in the Episcopal Church every second and fourth Sunday, at the usual hours.

There was a large assemblage on the river bank and bridges last Sunday, to witness the baptizing of fourteen converts by Rev. Jackson, of the colored Baptist church.

The masquerade ball given by the M. C. B. at the pavilion last Friday night was a grand success, and one of the most enjoyable events of the winter season.

George Cooper, who killed Wm. Jones, in Washington Parish, on October 27, was tried in Franklinton last week, found guilty as charged, and sentenced to a term of 99 years in the penitentiary.

Mr. Fritz Jalncke is doing fine work in the river with his dredge boat. This week he has been engaged in removing sunken logs and other obstructions at the Covington bridge, by the use of dynamite. By clearing out our river and deepening the channel he is proving himself a public benefactor, and deserves the thanks of the community, especially our merchants and mariners.

Mr. W. A. Dutsch has completed the flowing well for Mr. Hardy H. Smith. It is 585 feet deep, 2 inch pipe, and flows 25 1/2 gallons a minute. Mr. Smith will soon erect an addition 80 feet square, all fire-proof, to his big brick store, which he will use as a depository for hardware, furniture, wagons, buggies, etc.

FOR SALE.—Four or five yoke of work oxen, with or without log cart. Apply to D. E. Kimble, Covington, or A. R. Cook, eight miles out on the L. D. Davis Road.
