The warship truly is a grand But perishable trinket.

It takes five years to build it and A half an hour to sink it.

Washington Star.

The fair at St. Louis will be as good as a trip abroad, will cost less, be of less risk and every person should go that possibly can.

Judge Gaynor of New York discharged the ball players who were arrested to test the Sunday law, and, going outside of his jurisdiction, scored the police and described Sunday ball playing and golf as innocent and healthful amusement.

LOST—A gold pin, crescent shaped, with a fleur de lis of pearls, between Schmidt's store and Duquesne Cottage, about four weeks ago. Return to Miss L. Duquesne and receive reward.

Howard Fogle died at La Porte, Ind., in terrible agony from meningitis brought on by excessive drinking of pop, eating popcorn and smoking cigarettes. He was 15 years old.

Rather indefinite: "Say," remarked the village lawyer, as he entered the general store, "I want a ribbon for my typewriter." "All right, sir," answered the new clerk. "Do you want one for her, or for it?"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

FOR SALE—Damaged Corn, 35 cents a bushel, at the Covington Warehouse and Commission Co.

You can tell a successful farmer by the condition of his live stock. You can tell a slovenly woman by looking at her hair. You can tell a dry goods book politician by the patches on the bottom of his pants.

MADE YOUNG AGAIN. "One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my teens again," writes D. H. Turner of Bensenville, Pa. "They're the best in the world for Liver, stomach and Bowels. Purely Vegetable, never price. Only 25c at the City Drug Store, J. L. Watkins, proprietor."

Sacred Concert. The Presbyterian choir, directed by Mr. Holmes, will give a sacred concert for the benefit of the mausoleum, Saturday night, May 14th, at the Pavilion, St. Charles Chamberlain, of New Orleans, will be the soprano soloist for the occasion and our best local talent will help to present an attractive program. One of the leading features will be Gonou's "By Babylon's Wave," sung by a chorus of twelve voices. The recital will be given in the Presbyterian Church in order to receive the advantage of the vocal organ. There will be no admission fee but a collection will be taken for the purpose mentioned.

U. A. O. D. BALL. The second grand annual ball of Bogue Falais Grove, No. 21, U. A. O. D., will be given at the Pavilion to-night, May 14th, for the benefit of their Mutual Relief Fund. CURED HIS MOTHER'S RHEUMATISM. "My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Bennett of Dubuque, Pa. "At times she was not able to move at all, while at times walking was painful. I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is now able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain, that she was formerly troubled with. For sale by Jos. S. Claverie, druggist."

For Sale Six acres of ground, with small house, good stable, chicken house, grape vines and fruit trees. All in good condition. Two miles from Covington and a mile and a half from Abita Springs. Apply to CARLE ALAUM, Covington, La.

BASE BALL.

The game at Enterprise Park last Sunday, between the Covington Club and the Carambats, of New Orleans, was highly interesting throughout. The score was close until the seventh inning, when the Covingtons got in a home run with the bases full, and quickly followed it by three more runs on errors. Besides the home run, Covington made five two base hits. The Carambats made one home run and two two-base hits.

As usual Claverie pitched a fine game, striking out ten men, including William Smith, late of the New Orleans Southern League team. The features of the game were the catch by Hickman, in the right field, and the batting by Bahr, of Covington, and Williamson of Carambats, both of whom knocked the ball over the fence.

The batteries were Riley, Schneider and Miller, for the Carambats, and Claverie and Stetu for Covington. Umpire, Hook de Shea.

The score by innings was as follows: Carambats 0 1 0 0 1 0 4 4 0 10 Covington 1 0 0 2 0 0 7 3 13

There will be a game to-morrow, Sunday, at the Park, between the Covingtons and the Owis, of St. Bernard Parish. The game will begin at 2:15.

The popularity of the game is clearly demonstrated in Covington, the citizens, including many ladies, turning out in large numbers to witness the games, and cheer the home team to victory. They were satisfied with last Sunday's game, and favorable comments could be heard on all sides, and vociferous applause from the grand stand and bleachers showed the appreciation of the crowd. Enterprise Park is going to be more popular than ever this summer, and everybody might as well get into the game and enjoy this most entertaining pastime.

SUCCESS IN THE FOGG.

The roasting farce "In The Fog," was presented by Covington amateurs at the Pavilion last Friday night, to a large and appreciative audience, for the benefit of the M. C. B. Circulating Library. The cast of characters included Miss L. Poteyant and Messrs. Jos. B. Lancaster, F. Roehl, Silas Smith and J. F. Dierdorf. All were well up in their parts, and displayed rare talent and fine perception, which met with the hearty applause of the audience. The piano duet, by Miss Dor. Delcroix and Miss Dor. Jansford, was well rendered, and the recitations of Prof. Lyons, and vocal solos by Miss Lillian Smith and Mr. F. Roehl, were charming features. The refreshment tables were well patronized, and dancing was enjoyed till a late hour. The handsome block was won by Joseph Bradford Lancaster, Jr.

A STARTLING TEST.

To have a life Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. 11 Broadway, Pa., reads a startling story, revealing in a wonderful manner. He writes, "I have heretofore signed my name and affixed the seal of said court thereto, at the office of Covington, this 27th day of April, 1904. H. R. WARREN, Clerk."

WHOPPING COUGH.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whopping cough," says Mrs. O. W. W. of Covington, La. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever used for 'whopping cough.' This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of coughing spells, and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Jos. S. Claverie, druggist."

Opera at the Pavilion.

There will be an entertainment given at the Pavilion, Friday evening, May 27. The entertainment will consist of an opera entitled "Echoes From Childhood," and carries one back to the days of Old King Cole, Old Mother Hubbard, Jack and the Beanstalk, Mistress Mary, Quilt Contrary, Little Bo-Peep, Little Boy Blue, Little Miss Muffet, Little Jack Horner, Tom, the Piper's Son, and Little Red Riding Hood. The cast has been well selected from local amateurs, and a good performance is assured.

The music of the opera is chosen from several of the late comic operas as well as some of the older ones. The libretto and all the arrangements of the music is by Miss Deeden Williams, who is here now conducting the rehearsals.

MAKES A CLEAN SWEEP.

Terms of Sale.

On said day of sale I will sell such portion of said property as each debtor will point out, and in case the debtor will not point out sufficient property, I will at once, without further delay, sell the least quantity of said property of any debtor which any bidder will buy for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due by said debtor. The sale will be without appraisement, for cash, in legal tender money of the United States, and the property sold shall be redeemable at any time for the space of one year, by paying the price given, with 20 per cent interest, cost and penalties added. T. F. BLEWETER, Sheriff and Ex-Officio Tax Collector, Covington, La., April 9, 1904.
