A BAS TIGHT-WAD

[Twenty girls of Logansport, Ind., have sent out a protest against tight-wad beaux who refuse to spend their money on the fair sex, and hint at a boycott on all such.]
There is no show for the tight-wad beau
With the Indiana honey;
If he wants to shine he must get in line
And ladle out his money.
Po: a love this, deep is never cheap,
Says the Indiana beauty,
And a first-class plan for the Hoosier man
Is to let his purse do duty.

He must not dream he can shun ice cream
And never spend a nickel,
Else he will find that he is blind
And in an awful pickle.
For the girl he worships is not a goose,
And she will not love a dandy
Who hasn't the spunk to blow a punk
For a box of taffy candy.

You sting, boss, shell out your dough
For Maud and May and Lizzie,
For buggy rides and more besides,
And let your pelf get busy.
It may surprise, but the girls are wise,
And trouble now is brewing.
Unless you cough you will find right off
Not a single thing is doing.

The Japanese soldier fills his pockets with rice, his haversack with dried fish and is ready to march to the front. His regimental wagon is about the size of the push cart of an Italian fruit huckster, and his tent the star-lit canopy of the heavens. He comes as near working for nothing and finding himself as any soldier on earth, and is as good a fighter as is born.

Hardeman (Tenn.) Free Press: No more base ball in our'n. We agreed to umpire a game of base ball between Charlie Miller's Babies and the Boliver Assylum team for charity last Monday, and we when we called a strike on the catcher of the Babies who was at bat. He got mad and said it was too high a ball. We said that a high ball couldn't come too high, and he cussed us. We fined him the drinks and he punched us in the tank with his bat. They will have to show us afore we umpire another game.

SICK HEADACHE

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians at a great expense, only to grow worse, until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and today weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. Wright of New London, New York. For sale by Jos. S. Claverie, Druggist.

TRAGEDY AVERTED.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins, of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough had set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He is now sound and well." Dr. King's New Discovery is the only cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by J. L. Watkins, City Drug Store, and Jos. S. Claverie, Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

An advertiser proposed to reveal for 25 cents an easy way for any young lady to keep her hands nice and soft. A budding damsel in Sturgeon Mo., sent the cash and received this advice: Soak your hands in dishwater three times a day, while mother rests."

J. Pierpont Morgan's cigars are very large and strong, and cost him forty-five cents a piece, even when he buys them by the thousand. One of his business associates pays eighty-five cents for each of his smokes, but Mr. Morgan regards this price as wasteful and extravagant.

The Queen & Crescent has secured the contract for transporting the Southern troops to the Manassas battlefield, for which it will receive $175,000. The contract was made by J. C. Conn, division passenger agent, and the government will foot the bill.

The Publishers Auxiliary suggests that country newspapers are charging too little for their paper. They say owing to high price of paper, we ought to charge at least $2 a year. That is true; and if publishers would work for their own interest they would adopt the suggestion. As it is, the subscription price of $1 barely pays the cost of the paper and labor.

Not much. "I tell you these ice trust magnates will get their reward in the next world for their avariciousness here."
"That's right; they won't cut much ice over there."
—Houston Post.

ONLY DID HIS DUTY AS HE SAW IT.

"I deem it my duty to add a word of praise for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, says J. Wiley Park, the well-known merchant and postmaster at Wiley, Ky. "I have been selling it for three or four years, and it gives complete satisfaction. Several of my customers tell me that they would not be without it for anything. Very often, to my knowledge, one single dose has cured a very severe attack of diarrhoea, and I positively know that it will cure the flux (dysentery). You are at liberty to use this testimonial as you please. For sale by Jos. S. Claverie, druggist.
