C. CHAMPAGNE, Observer.

At this time of year, the days are not long in getting shorter.

Several places in Western Nebraska report a light frost last Monday night.

Dr. A. F. Brooks, of New Orleans, is the guest of Mr. E. Bischoe, of Covington.

The public schools will open on Monday, Oct. 2, or as soon thereafter as possible.

Miss Maggie Rockenschuh is spending some time in New Orleans, visiting friends.

We publish a synopsis of the game law, in another column. Cut it out for future reference.

The young men of Covington gave a most enjoyable dance at Claiborne Hotel last Tuesday night.

Mr. Jack Bokenfohr and family, of New Orleans, are spending the balance of the summer in Covington.

Work on the approaches to the new steel bridge has been delayed on account of the non-arrival of lumber.

Messrs. Archie Smith and Edmund Stern returned last Sunday from a few weeks sojourn at Crockett Springs, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Clarke, Miss Mabel Clarke and Miss M. Palmer, of New Orleans, are spending a few weeks in Covington.

Parties and entertainments are being constantly given, and our residents and sojourners are enjoying themselves to the fullest extent.

Read the Grand Opening Sale of Jones & Pickett, on the first page. A rare chance for bargains in carpets, shades, rugs, matings, lace curtains, etc.

The City Board of Health of Atlanta, Ga., have refused to quarantine against infected points, same at Covington and other towns in St. Tammany Parish.

You need not fear lightning any longer, as the St. Tammany Plumbing Company have a full supply of lightning rods.

We join the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Poole in extending congratulations on the birth of a fine son, last Friday, Sept. 1.

Mrs. Bernard Schneider and daughter, of Pearl River, and Mrs. James Guthrie, Jr., of New Orleans, spent last Wednesday in Covington, guests of Mrs. Ed. Kentzel.

Misses Barbara Fisher, Annie Hasen, Leona Sutherland and Sarah Brooks, of West New Orleans, are stopping with Mrs. W. N. Patrick, at Oak Grove Cottage.

Mr. Crawford Williams, one of the best practical farmers of the Fifth Ward, presented us, last Monday, with some of the largest and finest Dooley yams we have seen this season.

Mr. E. A. J. Comb, the expert shingle maker, formerly with Planche & Willis, of Pearl River Station, is now in charge of the mill of Carpenter Bros., at Abita Springs.

Last Wednesday night there was an enjoyable hay ride from Covington to Abita Springs, where dancing and refreshments were enjoyed at the pavilion. Twelve young folks participated, chaperoned by Mrs. Fielding.

Messrs. George Perry, Edward H. Behlar and Emile Sweedland were the pleasant guests of Capt. and Mrs. A. Rockenschuh on Sunday last.

The entertainment at the pavilion, at Abita Springs, last Monday night for the benefit of the Catholic Church, was a complete success, both socially and financially.

The monthly cotton crop report of the department of Agriculture gives the condition as 73.1.

The entertainment last Monday and Tuesday nights, at the residence of Mr. E. Domergue, Jr., for the benefit of the Presbyterian Manse, were well attended and thoroughly enjoyed.

There was a good attendance at the Lawn Party at the Pavilion, last Tuesday afternoon, for the benefit of the Baptist Church. All present enjoyed themselves, and the refreshment tables were well patronized.

Rev. Frank Poole Johnson, of St. Andrew's Church, New Orleans, will hold services in Christ Episcopal Church, Covington, on Sunday, September 24, at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. All good people are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Jos. Voegtle, after spending the summer at her home, "Villa Josephshoff" and her guests Mrs. S. Extein and her daughter, Miss Alma, and Miss R. E. Miller, returned to their home in New Orleans last Sunday.

Preston Ard, the negro assailant of Town Marshal J. B. Sowell, of Amite City, La., was captured near Franklinton, La., last Tuesday, after being shot and slightly wounded by a posse, whom the negro resisted.

The workmen employed in setting up the fixtures of the St. Tammany Bank and Savings Bank have completed their work, and the bank presents a most pleasing appearance. The fixtures are of dark oak and marble, with bronze trimmings and plate glass.

Capt. Albert Rockenschuh, Misses Bertha Bourg, Loretta Pelke, Rose Rockenschuh and Mr. Allie Davenport were the honored guests of Mr. Ootave Aubert, of the New Abita Springs Hotel, on Sunday last. A most delightful evening was spent.

A pleasant ride was given Saturday, Sept. 2, by the guests of Villa de Castro, to St. Joseph's Monastery. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hautot and family, Misses E. Andre, Gertrude Van Hosen, Agnes and Annie Lehman, Isabel Mazzie, Mr. and Mrs. Askew and Mr. and Mrs. W. Long.

A delightful birthday party was given Monday, Sept. 4, in honor of Miss R. Hilda de Castro, at their summer home, "Villa de Castro." The house was elaborately decorated with wild ferns and clusters of foliage. A large number of guests were present. Miss R. de Castro was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. W. Long and Miss Isabel Mazzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and family set sail from Long Beach, Mississippi, last Tuesday, on a "prairie schooner," for the Pecos Country, Texas. Their two older sons, Irving and Foster rode bicycles. They will stop en route at Covington and Hammond, La., to visit relatives.

Miss Bertha Bourg, one of New Orleans' charming and most popular young operators of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Co., is spending her vacation with Capt. and Mrs. Albert Rockenschuh and daughter, Miss Rose, also a popular young operator of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Co. Miss Bourg is having a very delightful time and is much pleased with Covington. She will be ready for work on her return to the city.

We beg again to call the attention of the public to the play to be given next Thursday and Friday nights, Sept. 14 and 15, at the Pavilion, for the benefit of the Library. Both the cause and the play are worthy of munificent support, and it is confidently expected that the people will respond heartily to the appeal. The sale of seats has now begun and is proceeding as nicely as hoped for. Get in early and avoid the rush, especially for reserved seats.

Col. W. C. Dufour, of the Baton Rouge, Hammond and Eastern Railroad, was in Covington last Saturday in the interest of his road. He investigated the matter of the petition of the taxpayers of the town, which is to come before the Town Council, and states that he was more than pleased with the almost unanimous indorsement by the people here of his proposition. There is no doubt of the voting this tax, as the taxpayers feel that the road is necessary to the best interests of the town.

Dr. Durel Suffers Broken Leg.

Dr. Wallace Durel, of the Tabernacles Sanitarium, located three miles north of Covington, suffered a painful accident Tuesday morning while on his way to Covington. For the first time he attempted to use spurs while riding a young horse, and the animal threw him. In the fall Dr. Durel's left leg was broken midway between the knee and the hip. He lay in the road some time until found. Dr. J. F. Pigott, of Covington, was summoned, but he found that the fracture was of an unusually ugly character, and Dr. Gessner was summoned from New Orleans. Dr. Gessner arrived on a special train, and at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon started back to the city with Dr. Durel. He will be treated at the Sanitarium in New Orleans.

Abita Springs Rules

At a meeting of the Village Board of Health, Abita Springs, last Monday, by a unanimous vote, all persons coming from New Orleans must provide themselves with a health certificate showing that they are in good health and have not been in an infected house for six days, and further that all persons having had yellow fever must have been convalescent for at least ten days.

An open air candy pulling was given by the guests at Summer's Cottage, Abita Springs Thursday night August 31. Those present were: Mrs. Kiroberg, Mrs. Bernard, Mrs. Summers, Misses E. and M. Kentzel, L. C. Strain, L. Shaffer, Meers, L. Kiroberg, Lamoth, O. Summers, Bernard, Stafford and E. Strain. All spent a pleasant evening.

Card of Thanks

Mandeville, La., Sept. 1, 1905.
Editor St. Tammany Farmer
I desire to thank you for the kind notice of the entertainment of July 29, at the Pythian Hall, and at the same time apologize to the kind people who helped to make the affair a success, for delay in announcing the net result in cash of same. After paying all expenses, there is in my hands to the order of the Pythians, $109.25 toward paying said building. Respectfully,
Mrs. C. S. GALBRAITH.
