Culinary Miracles.

"I once attended a mandarin's banquet in Peking," said the consul, "and it was the most remarkable feast I ever eat down to. One course appeared to be plain hard-boiled eggs, came on unadorned. Their shells were intact. And yet, by Jove! when we broke into them we found that they contained nuts and sweetmeats. Another course was whole oranges with unbroken skins. Yet inside the oranges were different kinds of jelly. The Chinese guests took these two courses as a matter of course, but I, in amazement, asked our host how on earth they had been concocted. He smiled and shook his head. 'Ah,' he said, 'that is my cook's secret!'"—Dundee Advertiser.

Chimmie (fondly) — You're a peach!
Maggie (significantly) — Peaches is always served wit' cream.—Princeton Tiger.

Seven hours of sleep is the minimum amount required by the average person, according to Prof. Weygand, of the University of Wurzburg. He ascertained experimentally that reduction of the usual period of sleep by three hours diminishes the power of the memory by one-half. Fasting, he found, had a much less injurious effect.

CHICAGO AALDERMAN OWES HIS EJECTION TO CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 200 South Peoria Street, Chicago. "Two years ago, during a political campaign, I caught cold, after being overheated, which irritated my throat, and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon, and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Jos. S. Claverie, druggist.

George—Rather than remain single, would you marry the biggest fool on earth, if he asked you?
Clara—Oh, George, this is so sudden.—Chicago Daily News.

Mr. Subbubs—Great heavens Lucy! Mary Ann tried to start the fire with gasoline, and she has been blown through the roof!

Mrs. Subbubs—Well, it's her day out, anyhow. Stop at the intelligence office on your way down to day.—Cleveland Leader.
