Sunday two coaches of passengers alighted at Florenville, en route to Bogalusa.

Get your knives and scissors sharpened at the St. Tammany work guaranteed.

The new restaurant and barroom of Messrs. Penn & Patrick, in the Badon building, opened last week, and has been doing a fine business from the start.

The Saturday excursions to the city are being well patronized, and are a great convenience to the traveling public and a credit to our enterprising railroad managers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sheffield, Miss Doris and Master Frederick, after spending the summer with Mrs. M. Fitzsimons, at Oak View, have returned to their home in New Orleans.

Our enterprising and progressive Police Jury this week advertises for bids for another steel bridge, to be built at Flidell. Thus the good work goes on, with the right kind of men at the helm.

Mr. A. O. Pons, has bought the stock of merchandise and good will of Mr. H. Kuttwitz in Abita Springs, and took charge of the store last Monday. We wish Mr. Pons success in his new venture.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Todd, of Bayou LaCambre, are the happy parents of a fine daughter, their first girl baby, born last week; and grandpa Pierce is as proud of the new arrival as the parents.

An alarm of fire was sounded last Wednesday, and as usual our citizens turned out in force. It proved to be the roof of the Poole House, at the end of the railroad. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

Look out for that magnificent new public school building which will be built in the near future.
Bids are invited by our popular Mayor and Town Council for its erection. See notice in another column.

Mr. T. J. Hood, who has been ill in New Orleans for the past three weeks, was brought to his home in Covington last Wednesday night, and is getting along very well. We hope soon to record his complete recovery.

The last quarter of the public school funds amounts to $82,727.28, based upon an 18 cent per capita and a total enrollment of 459,696 children in the public schools of the State. The allotment for St. Tammany Parish is 696 24.

The excursion train was late last Sunday, owing to a tank car being derailed near the outskirts of New Orleans. This editor was on board, and must admit that after the obstruction was removed the train made excellent time coming through.

The Cumberland Telephone Company is making big improvements in its line, putting up fine crooked poles in place of the old and unsightly cedar poles heretofore in use. This will be a great improvement, not only in appearance, but in improved service all along the line.

Progressive Union Working for Parks and Street Lighting.

At a meeting of the Abita Springs Progressive Union last Tuesday it was unanimously voted that a committee be appointed to take public subscriptions for two small parks on the vacant land near the depot.
A fair sum of money and fencing was subscribed on the spot. A committee was appointed to interview Mayor Heintz, to ask the Council's assistance in the premises.
Lighting the town was another subject that was taken up, and it will be pushed for all it is worth.
Dairy farmers looking for country locations will be given all the attention and assistance possible, by corresponding with the Corresponding Secretary, G. E. Millar.

The Covington Skating Rink opened last Saturday night, and there was a large crowd in attendance. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palm and flowers and a gorgeous display of electric lights. The large rink was a scene of animation, and the skaters, both male and female, enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Choice music was furnished for the occasion. There was also a large attendance Sunday evening.
Mr. L. Bourgeois is the enterprising manager, and he deserves and will doubtless meet with success.

DIED—At Elitaville, Miss., on the 26th ultimo, Mrs. Lida Cooper nee Simpson, wife of Mr. Curtis Cooper, of Meridian, Miss., and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos.
Simpson, of Pearl River, La.
Mrs. Lida Simpson was well and widely known and her untimely death was a terrible shock to her family and friends. She was happily married to Mr. Curtis Cooper, of Meridian, Miss., a year ago last October, and went to Arkansas with her husband to live. A few months ago they returned to Elitaville, Miss., where she died. Her remains were taken to Birmingham, Ala., for interment.

The Salmen Brick and Lumber Co. has reduced the hours of its employees to ten instead of eleven hours. This will effect about 600 employees.

We learn that the Swede who was recently shot by Mr. Tuloc Dupre, in the Fifth ward, and who was taken to the Charity Hospital in New Orleans, is in a fair way to recovery.

Rev. T. M. Boley left last Monday for the annual conference of the Methodist Church in Shreveport. Mr. Boley has made many friends during his past year's services in Covington, and it is the wish of his congregation that he will be returned to this circuit.

The Sheriff's office is a busy place right now, and the taxpayers are coming forward with their funds to replenish the parish treasury. Mr. T. E. Brewster, our general Sheriff, and his efficient and courteous deputy, Mr. Walter Gal-latas, are always on hand attending to the business of the office and looking out for the interests of the parish and the public.

The quarterly statement of the Covington Bank and Trust Company will be found in another column, and, as usual, makes a fine showing. The capital stock is $100, 000. The individual deposits subject to check, are $320,042.92. This is not only a fine exhibit for the bank, but is an evidence of the confidence shown by the business community in the able and efficient President, Directors and officials.

When you come to Covington stop in and see our complete supply of feed stuff which we are selling at low prices.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of applied was Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore places. This caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. Sold at
