

St. Tammany Farmer

December 29, 1906.

U. A. O. D.

Neque Palaya Grove, No. 21 Meets on the first and third Saturdays the month, at 7:30 P. M., in the Masonic building, Covington, La.

The Street Fair is over and gone to Whitecastle, La.

Quit knocking and try Nutriline. J. A. Domergue & Co. have it.

Mardi-Gras will occur next year on February 12, a date much earlier than usual.

Christmas week was appropriately celebrated in the Catholic Churches throughout the parish.

The Town Council will meet next Wednesday, January 2, and levy the town license for the ensuing year.

Some of the neatest job printing that we have seen is being turned out at W. H. Ketzle's, on Gibson street.

A number of students who are attending various colleges at a distance were home to spend the holidays.

It's all over town! What? Nutriline, the best stock and dairy food on the market. J. A. Domergue & Co. have a full supply of it.

Babington-Thomas Co. will open a grand clearance sale on the 4th of January, and offer rare bargains. See advertisement in another column.

Don't forget that J. A. Domergue & Co. handle all kinds of grain and feed stuffs at lowest prices. Phone 299.

We acknowledge the receipt, Christmas Eve, of a bottle of extra fine Forest Grove whiskey, with the compliments of Mr. B. Labat.

Hebert Brothers have our thanks for a charming calendar, representing a sailor-clad boy on a chair at the phone, evidently receiving a message from Santa Claus.

There was a happy Christmas tree celebration in the Lutheran Church, at Abita Springs, last Tuesday night, which was highly enjoyed by old and young.

Next Tuesday, January 1, being the Feast of the Circumcision of our Lord, is a day of obligation. Holy mass will be said in St. Peter's Church at 8 and 10 a. m. and in Abita Springs and Madisonville at 8 a. m.

The Amusement Company have put plans in the hands of the architect to enlarge the skating rink and make it twice as long. They will also add a museum to the rink in a short time.

Sealed bids will be received by Mayor Williams up to 12 o'clock today (Saturday, December 29), for the erection of a new school building in Covington. See notice in another column.

On Wednesday, January 14, the Police Jury will receive bids for the construction of a steel draw bridge across Bayou Vincent, at Slidell. The notice will be found in another column.

Messrs. Segond & Hebert have our thanks for a beautiful calendar representing a large white swan swimming in a pond. It is true to nature, and is a work of art well worth preserving.

Mr. John B. Kent, the life, fire and accident insurance agent, presented us last Thursday with a handsomely carved aluminum cigar case, with the compliments of the season. Many thanks for same.

The handsome gold watch offered by the Woodmen of the World for the most popular young lady in Covington was awarded last Saturday night to Miss Chauvin, who had 12,000 votes. Miss Miller was a good second, with 9,000 votes.

Mr. B. Labat presented St. Sebastian Academy with a handsome bell, weighing about 250 pounds, as a Christmas offering. This handsome gift will doubtless be duly appreciated by the Sisters, as they were much in need of a fine bell at the Academy.

Mr. Thos. Evans, a prominent lawyer of Gulfport, and his wife and two children, spent the holidays at the home of Mr. J. C. Ahney, in Claiborne, father of Mrs. Evans.

The quiet of Christmas afternoon was disturbed by the blowing of the fire alarm whistles in the ice factories. A slight blaze at the new residence of Mr. Fluker caused the alarm, but it was quickly extinguished. It caused some excitement for a short time.

Next Monday, December 31, is the last chance you will have to pay your poll tax. Remember this, if you want to preserve your citizenship and be able to vote at the next State election, in 1908. The poll tax for 1907 must also be paid before the end of that year.

We had ideal weather for the holidays. It was clear and cold, the thermometer registering 28 degrees on Monday, and there was thick ice on that day and the next. It was bracing weather, and Christmas was a "perfect day," enjoyed by all. May the enjoyment last throughout the coming year.

The election for Judge of the Circuit Court of Appeals will be held on Wednesday, January 16, 1907. Hon. S. D. Ellis, of Amite City, having been almost unanimously nominated, will doubtless be elected without opposition. He is popular and thoroughly competent to fill the position. Here's to you, Judge Ellis.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday, Dec. 25, 1906, at the residence of the bride's parents Robert William Badon and Miss Blanche Willmouth Readman, Rev. J. J. Brakefield officiating.

After the ceremony the happy couple proceeded to their new home on 24th Avenue. We extend congratulations.

Woodmen of the World have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Council Commander, J. B. Lancaster; Advisory Lieutenant, H. H. Sudduth; Banker, Jos. Delery; Clerk, J. S. Brock; Assistant Clerk, Robert Dutsch; Escort, W. P. Dutsch; Watchman, A. Delcroix; Sentinel Vernon Smith.

John C. Seaman, of Baton Rouge, has developed as a candidate for Secretary of the State Board of Equalization. He is the first for the position, and is securing the endorsement of his friends for the place. Mr. Seaman was employed in the Land Office for several years, but for the past year has been Deputy Assessor of St. Tammany Parish.

The entertainment at Abita Springs on Friday night, Dec. 21, for the benefit of public school, was a decided success. The hall was beautifully decorated and a fine program was rendered by the children. Hon. Jos. B. Lancaster delivered an interesting address. The refreshment tables were well patronized, and the total receipts were $109, which will net about $75 for the school.

A very pretty Christmas celebration was given at the Presbyterian Church on Friday night, December 21. A fine musical program was rendered by the choir, the church was appropriately decorated for the occasion, and Santa Claus dispensed gifts to the children with a liberal hand, much to their pleasure and delight. These happy occasions mark an era in the flight of time, and are always remembered as an epoch in childhood's happy days.

One of the handsomest calendars we have received this year is that of Mr. Louis Pujol, dealer in oysters, short orders and oyster loaves. It represents a lady in full dress, and will be an ornament to any parlor, as well as useful for reference during the coming year.

Another fine and very attractive calendar is one from Seiler Bros., representing a basket of champagne, with the usual compliments, from their first class bar, billiard hall, etc., on Columbia street.

LONG TENNESSEE FIGHT For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface. This caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at J. L. Watkins' City Drug Store and G. Champagne & Company's Drug Store.

Two Windows Donated.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer: Chinchuba, Dec. 24.—The two windows mentioned in the last issue of the St. Tammany Farmer have been donated to the institute by the artist himself, Mr. Emil Frei, of St. Louis, Mo., a friend of the Chaplain. The institute itself is still too poor to order such costly windows, but they have been gladly accepted as most valuable gifts from the magnanimous donor.
