

St. Tammany Farmer February 23, 1907. W. G. KENTZEL, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

The Inefficacy of Barefaced Assertions.

Under the caption, "Our Contemporary Ranting," there appears in the News a school-boy effort to be funny that is only ridiculous, which is offered in lieu of an answer to and in evasion of the question: "Who is the Ring?"

Are there Underlying Reasons?

A superficial perusal of the editorial in the News entitled, "Knocking," gives a very plausible support for the knocking that is being done in the columns of that paper; but with mature thought the deceptive underlying current of individual interests is brought to the surface, and the darkest recesses of the concealing shadows become effulgent.

Camp Sight Accepted

The regular monthly meeting of the Louisiana Anti-Tuberculosis League was held in the Young Men's Christian Association parlors this week. The league is still in process of organization, but the active work is about to begin, and then it is hoped there will be something definite to show for all the time and care that has been given to the undertaking.

Thaw Trial

New York, Feb. 20.—Continuing his cross examination of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw to-day at the trial of her husband, District Attorney Jerome brought out the fact that in 1902 Stanford White deposited the sum of $1,350 with instructions that it should be paid to the Nesbit girl at the rate of $25 a week.

An Old Covington Paper

Mr. L. C. Mix, who is employed at Greenlaw's Mill, has favored us with a copy of the Louisiana Advocate, Vol. 16, No. 6, published in Covington. It is dated Saturday, June 11, 1851. Mr. J. D. Davenport was the editor and publisher. Terms, $3.00 a year. It is printed in English and French.

CHARTER OF THE John B. Cefalu Commercial and Improvement Co.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of St. Tammany. BE IT KNOWN, That on this twenty-fifth day of the month of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seven, before me, Lewis L. Morgan, a notary public duly commissioned, qualified and sworn, in and for the Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who severally declared that, availing themselves of the laws of the State of Louisiana in such cases made and provided, they have covenanted and agreed, and do by these presents covenant and agree and bind themselves, as well as all their heirs and assigns, to form a corporation, for the objects and purposes and under the articles and stipulations following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name and style of this corporation shall be the "JOHN B. CEFALU COMMERCIAL AND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY," and under its said corporate name it shall have power and authority to have and enjoy corporate existence, and succession for the full term and period of ninety-nine years from and after the date hereof, to contract, sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal and the same to alter and break at pleasure; to purchase, lease, acquire, hold and convey, as well as mortgage and hypothecate property, real, personal and mixed, and to do all such things as may be necessary and proper to carry out the objects and purposes of this corporation.

ARTICLE II.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is established, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are hereby declared to be: To engage in trade and barter; to build, construct, operate, buy, sell, lease or hypothecate all works of public improvement or in the nature of public utility, or of a quasi-public nature, inclusive of tramways, gas, electric, water plants, and the manufacture and sale of their products or by-products, whether in or out of the State of Louisiana, or in any other State of the United States or possession of the United States or any foreign country; to purchase and otherwise acquire, lease, hold and sell real estate of all kinds and to improve said real estate and generally to exercise all such incidental powers and privileges as relate to the objects and purposes hereinabove set forth, and which may be performed in any State in the United States, or in any foreign country; and in any and all foreign countries.

ARTICLE III.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), divided into and represented by one hundred (100) shares of the sum of one hundred dollars each, and the same shall be paid for in cash at such times, in such amounts and after such notice to the subscribers as may be determined by the Board of Directors, or the same may be issued at not less than par for labor done or property actually received by the corporation.

ARTICLE IV.

All the corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors, to be composed of the stockholders, to be elected annually on the first Monday in February in each year, except the first year, when the election shall be held on the first Monday in February, 1907.

ARTICLE V.

At all such elections and at all corporate meetings every stockholder shall be entitled to vote for each share of stock standing in his name on the books of the company, to be cast in person or by his written proxy, and a majority of the votes cast shall elect.

ARTICLE VI.

Whenever this corporation may be dissolved, either by limitation or from any other cause, it shall be dissolved by three commissioners, to be appointed from the stockholders at a general meeting of stockholders convened for that purpose, and after notice shall have been given in one or more newspapers published in the Parish of St. Tammany, Louisiana, once a week for four weeks preceding the meeting, and by written notice to each stockholder mailed to him thirty days prior to the date of the meeting, at the postoffice address designated by him in writing.

ARTICLE VII.

No stockholder shall be liable for the contracts or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the corporation on shares of stock owned by him, and he shall not be liable in organization having the effect of rendering this charter null, or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid amount remaining on his stock.

ARTICLE VIII.

No stockholder shall be liable for the contracts or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the corporation on shares of stock owned by him, and he shall not be liable in organization having the effect of rendering this charter null, or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid amount remaining on his stock.

ARTICLE IX.

No stockholder shall be liable for the contracts or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the corporation on shares of stock owned by him, and he shall not be liable in organization having the effect of rendering this charter null, or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid amount remaining on his stock.
