 arrived last Tuesday on a visit to relatives.
 The commission of Mr. P. E.
 Theriot, to be postmaster at Covington, was issued by the Department in Washington last Saturday.
 We have had a week of real summer weather, and it would be too warm for comfort were it not for the variable breezes from the lake.
 The excursion of the New Orleans Glee Club, last Tuesday, to Abita Springs and Covington was one of the largest of the season.
 Rev. F. N. Parker, D. D., of New Orleans, will preach in the Methodist Church in Covington, Sunday, morning and evening, at the usual hours.
 Mr. J. H. Cassells has bought the interest of his partner in the Cassells-Brococ Lumber Co., and the firm name has been changed to J. H. Cassells & Son.
 We call attention to the big advertisement of P. J. Lacroix, dealer in general merchandise, on the first page. He will have a bargain sale, commencing July 8 and continuing one week.
 The Ladies' Club, of Abita Springs, will give a dance at Conrad's Hall, Saturday, July 6, for the benefit of the public school piano fund. Admission 15 cents, children 10 cents. Refreshments will be served.
 Picnic and fishing parties can find a full line of lunch goods at Meek & McCormack's.
 There will be a Children's Festival at Cantrelle's Hall, on Monday, July 8, at 4 p. m., under the auspices of the M. C. B., admission 15 cents. Program and dance for adults at 8 p. m. Admission, 25c.
 Col. H. J. de la Vergne and family have come over from the city, and will spend the season at their charming summer home, opposite Covington, on the banks of the beautiful Bogue Falaya.
 Mr. N. Levy, one of the oldest residents of Mandeville, and well known throughout the parish, died June 23, aged 73 years. He leaves a widow, six sons and three daughters, also thirty-three grandchildren.
 The old established firm of Smith Bros., successors to Hardy H. Smith, have been busy this week moving into their handsome new two-story brick building on Columbia street, next door to their old stand.
 Sheriff Brewster left Tuesday morning to convey three prisoners to the penitentiary; Jose Morales, a Mexican, five years for manslaughter; Monroe Jackson, colored, one year for shooting with intent to kill, and Ed Brown, colored, two years, for enticing a virtuous female.

 Albert Henry, the infant son of Henry Rockenschuh and Bertha Zeitvogel, died in Covington last Sunday, June 30, at 5 a. m., aged 7 months and 21 days. The funeral took place Monday morning from the residence of Mrs. M. Zeitvogel, Rev. Jos. Koegerl officiating. We sympathize with the parents in their bereavement.
 Handsome present with every pound of Blossom Blend tea, at Meek & McCormack.

Baseball.
 The Covingtons defeated the celebrated Derators, of New Orleans, last Sunday, in a game that was marred for errors, although some scattering good plays were made.
 The score in seven innings, was 17 to 6. The local battery was John Schneider and E. Stern.
 There will be an interesting game next Sunday, between the Coving-tons and the St. Bernards, one of the best amateur teams in the city.
 Admission 25c. Ladies free.

HYMENIAL.
 Mr. John Edgar and Miss Lola Pottevent were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. R.
 Pottevent, last Friday afternoon.
 Rev. J. M. Williams officiating.
 Mr. Edgar is a prominent architect and builder as well as property owner, and his bride is the daughter of the late Sam Pottevent, one of the founders of the East Louisiana Railroad. They left on the afternoon train for a short bridal trip, from which they will return to occupy their home in Twenty-fourth Avenue.
 We join their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. Alexander H. Hammette and Mrs. L. J. Word were married last Thursday afternoon, July 4, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kentzel, Rev.
 W. G. Evans officiating.
 The groom is a native of Monroe, Georgia, and is express agent and postal clerk on the N. O. G. N.
 Railroad, and the bride is the popular postmaster at Abita Springs.
 The ceremony was a quiet one, only relatives and immediate friends of the family being present. The happy couple left the same day for Folsom, where they will make their future home, bearing with them the hearty congratulations of their many friends in Covington, Abita Springs, and New Orleans.
 They received many handsome wedding presents.

FOR SALE—Two sur-reys and one wagon. Apply to Mr. W. G. McDuff, proprietor of the Stag barber shop, has added another barber and put in electric fans, which is a great improvement, that will be appreciated by his many customers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Burns announce the engagement of their niece, Corine Blossman, to Archie R. Smith. The wedding will take place on Wednesday, July 17th, at 4 o'clock, p. m.
 No cards have been issued, but friends and relatives are invited to attend.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Covington Bank and Trust Company, held on Thursday, June 27, a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent. was declared, payable on and after July 10, and $3000 was placed to the surplus fund.

The Police Jury met as a Board of Reviewers last Monday, and after making a few changes accepted the assessment roll for 1907. The assessment on virgin timber land was reduced from $20 to $12 an acre, and cut-over lands, from $5 to $3.50 an acre.

Mr. J. D. Powell, partner of Mr.
 Warren Thomas in the turpentine business at Pool's Bluff, in Washington Parish, was shot and dangerously wounded last Sunday night by a negro employee of the still, near Rio. After being shot Mr. Powell shot the negro, who fled, but was captured and taken to the parish jail in Franklinton. He narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of the angry citizens. Mr.
 Powell was taken to the city on the train Monday evening and placed in the hospital.
