A Little Talk About Our Clothing Department

Seeing is Believing.

As the old saying goes, "seeing is believing." Therefore, if so, let us show you our new line for the fall and winter which we have just received. We can show better than we can tell.

Foremost fashions for the fall have invaded our popular Men's Department. You will find in our line some of the richest coloring and patterns that have never been shown before.

Brown is the prevailing color this fall, and we have been very careful to select only such shades of brown as would not be found in all ready-made garments. The style of the coat will not be as long as formerly. We have provided a display of Men's Ready-to-Wear Clothing that is distinctive in style and in quality, and notable for the reasonable prices.

SAVE THE EXPENSE.

Now let us reason with you. If you can buy in your own town the same style, the same quality and the same price clothing as you can buy in any city, why not save the expense of railroad fare and hotel bill?

We have taken great risk this season in handling a fine line of goods, ranging from $15.00 to $25.00. But we feel convinced that after you have examined our line you will find it one of the best, and you will give us your assistance in maintaining this class of clothing in this town, where it has never been handled before.

HOME FROM EUROPE

Mr. Hugh McClosky Says Docks in New Orleans Are Equal to Any In the World.

"I am a businessman, just returned from a four-months absence, and I am far too busy to give up time for discussion; but I will say this to you—that the completed dock facilities of New Orleans are unsurpassed by any in the world, except possibly the docks of Liverpool."

With this brief summary of his observations while abroad during the past four months, Mr. Hugh McClosky, president of the Dock Commission and head of the McClosky Bros. Co., of this city, dismissed a five-minute discussion on the subject of his journey across the globe.

Mr. McClosky was pouring over an immense stack of accumulated correspondence and was deluged with callers when called upon by a representative of the States, and was not in a position to give up any time to a discussion of the impressions gathered by him during the extensive tour.

"At some other time I will go more extensively into my impressions and observations," declared the head of the Dock Commission, "but at this time it is utterly impossible for me to give you any time. Of course I saw and studied the dock facilities of Europe and the East; but, understand me, that was not the sole mission for the trip. I traveled extensively into the interior as well as on the coast, and was largely engaged in private research."

England, Scotland, Ireland, Germany, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy and France were visited by Mr. McClosky. He was accompanied everywhere by his family and enjoyed the tour immensely. Shipping and business consumed the larger portion of his time, and at all the points touched on the coastwise territory Mr. McClosky made a point to give as much of his time as possible to a comparison with the docking facilities of New Orleans.

Nowhere in the world, with the possible exception of Liverpool, said Mr. McClosky, did he find docking facilities surpassing the completed facilities of this port. Mr. McClosky has been head of the Dock Commission almost since its inception, and even before he was elevated head of the body he was, as a member, one of the most active men in New Orleans in the advancement of the river front. It has been since his term as president that the immense steel wharves and new sheds have been projected and completed. He has been the most active in all the big projects, and is known as one of the most versatile men in the country on the subject of harbor improvement and shipping.

During his extensive tour Mr. McClosky went for a pleasant jaunt to the vicinity of the Lakes of Killarney, Ireland, then to Dublin, Belfast, Londonderry, Port Rush, visiting the Giant's Causeway, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Tronies, London, Paris, Strausburg, Munich, Vienna, Venice, Florence, Rome, Naples, Geneva, Luzerne, Montreux, Interlaken, Dresden, Berlin, Hamburg, Antwerp, Cologne, Brussels, thence back to Paris, London and Liverpool, and returning via New York and Chicago to New Orleans.

The itinerary will show that Mr. McClosky made it a point to take in all the great European shipping points, including Dublin, Belfast, Liverpool, Glasgow, Dresden, Hamburg, Antwerp and other modern shipping ports. The opinion expressed by President McClosky will carry great weight and will attract much attention to the New Orleans docks, because of the well recognized authority of that gentleman on the subject. Being identified as one of the most competent students of the subject, his conclusions will be looked upon as the views of an expert.

OUT OF SIGHT
"Out of sight, out of mind, is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Files too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by C. C. Champagne & Co., druggist, 25c."

HIS DEAR OLD MOTHER

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters, writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well. That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by C. C. Champagne & Co., druggists, 50c."

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CROUP, USED FOR TEN YEARS WITHOUT A FAILURE.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City Ind. hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough.

For sale by C. C. Champagne & Co., druggists, and J. L. Watkins' City Drug store.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned at his office in the town of Covington, Louisiana, up to 4 o'clock p. m. Saturday, October 12, 1907, for the entire completion of the new public school house, in the town of Covington, Louisiana, which is now partly constructed.

 - Certificates numbered 75 to 80, both inclusive, will be payable in 1917.
- Said certificates will bear interest at the rate of five (5) per cent per annum from date until paid. Interest payable annually from the date of issuance.
- The town reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

C. Z. WILLIAMS, Mayor Covington, Louisiana.

HOW TO CURE A COLD.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me."

Lizzie Brady vs. Octave Aubert—No. 31048. Civil District Court, Division E, for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias from the aforesaid honorable court and to me directed, bearing date September 1, 1907, I will offer for sale and sell for cash to the highest and best bidder at the front door of the Courthouse, in Covington, La., between 10 o'clock and 12 o'clock, SATURDAY, November 9, 1907, the following described property, to-wit:
