A Bold Robbery.

The time has passed when a citizen can retire at night in all-sufficient protection against the casual straggler with light fingers and a blunted conscience, and bolts and bars and strong safes, while not immune, are necessary adjuncts to a feeling of security.

Last Monday night the store of H. H. Smith & Sons was entered by thieves who threw the empty cash drawer in the back yard, and then proceeded to the iron safe. They succeeded in forcing open the outer door, but apparently could get no further, and contented themselves by taking three 32 and one 38 special revolver and cartridges, and supposedly helped themselves to pocket knives, as the drawer containing them was open.

It was probably after midnight when they entered the store, and it is supposed they are the same parties who did the shooting as they passed over the Bogue Falaya bridge about that time of night.

There is a good chance for the officer with detective ability to make a reputation for himself and do the people a service by apprehending the guilty parties.

To Voters of Ninth Ward.

To the Property Tax-Paying Citizens and Voters of the Ninth Ward, St. Tammany Parish, La.:

Having received the nomination for member of the Police Jury for the Ninth Ward, at the Democratic primary, Jan. 23, 1908, I wish to thank my friends, one and all, for their staunch support, as it has been currently circulated before and since I received the nomination, that it was bad policy to support me, for I would move the much-talked-of magnificent iron bridge across Bayou Vincent to some other location. Now the author of this has manufactured the fabrication out of whole cloth, for when I appeared before the Bridge Committee of the Police Jury as one of a committee and presented several petitions protesting against the location of the bridge, we were thrown down and given to understand, "the people be darned!" So let the bridge stay where it is, for I am neither autocrat, dictator nor pretender, and should I be fortunate in not being defeated by a Republican, as I understand such action has been contemplated by some of the sorehead, mugwump, Democrats-for-a-purpose people, I will endeavor to get everything that is due us here in this ward, and will use my best efforts to expend it to the best advantage of the parish and ward, according to the dictates of the people at large. As I have been chosen by them, I will endeavor to represent them to the best of my ability, regardless of cost, class or creed.

Respectfully, J. W. DECKER.

Little Miss Council Sat on a town-council. Trying to give it some light; There came a spider Who sat down beside her And said, "Not a dollar in sight."—Covington News.

Little Miss Froggy, Up from a boggy; Indignant at such a bold lie, Swallowed the spider, Now he's inside her, Awaiting the "sweet by and by."

THE JUMPING OFF PLACE. "Consumption had me in its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery; and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimesland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia, New Discovery is supreme. 50c and $1.00 at all druggists.

Pearl River

Editor St. Tammany Farmer: One month of the glad New Year is gone and many good resolutions have gone with it, still it does one good to make them, even though they should topple over and break, "like the vase in which roses have once been distilled."

"You may break, you may shatter the vase, if you will, But the scent of the rose will cling to it still."

So the memory of good resolutions will abide with us and make us stronger to live up to our ideals.

Every one talks about the weather. When people meet that is the topic, just as if we never had such weather before; but Good old Mr. Ball, Said he was thankful he had Any Weather here at all.

Mr. Jim Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Willis, is quite ill from an attack of La-Grippe and Pneumonia. Dr. Outlaw is in attendance and two nurses. The family have the sympathy of the whole community. Jim was attending college at Tulane and came home Sunday morning, complaining of a cold, which increased so rapidly as to become alarming, but all are hoping for his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake of Hintonville, arrived last night to see the brother of Mrs. Blake, and are at the home of Mrs. Blake's mother, Mrs. J. J. Willis.

Mr. Jackie Willis, from Birmingham, came this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sullivan, were visitors at Mrs. Carrie Porter's home last Sunday.

Mr. Willie Crary, from the city, was visiting relatives here Sunday.

Mr. Jim Rippard was visiting his mother last Sunday. Miss Hellen Bailey, from the city, spent a lengthy visit with her friend, Mrs. Lewis Talley. Her many friends were glad to see her.

Rev. Mr. Peters visited his little flock and preached an interesting sermon. Rev. Mr. Williams preached in the evening.

Mr. Theodore Atchison, visited his father last Sunday and returned to the city that night. Mr. Edgar Robert is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Blackburn and children from Folsom, were visiting her mother, Mrs. T. Simpson last week.

Mrs. Ida Fraser is recovering from quite a long spell of sickness and her friends are glad to see her out again. Mr. Donaldson was a visitor last Sunday.

MRS. L. CRARY SADLER.

In Memoriam.

Written by George M. Fenderson, in memory of little Herbert Cecil Jenkins.

In memory of little Herbert Cecil Jenkins, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jenkins, who departed this life on Saturday, at 4:30 a. m., January 15, 1908. After a lingering illness of one month, the fond parents, together with Dr. May and friends, did all in their power to keep this young and tender blossom from wilting. But alas our Heavenly Father knew better, when he said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

As soon shall this bloom be shaken By the warm, sweet touch of spring, Nor the breeze from this life be shaken By the brush of the angel's wing.

We know Cecil is now in Heaven. His joy is now complete. "Dear parents, will you not strive harder This little angel of yours to meet."

When we think of things supernatural, When we long for him who is at rest, We hope in Heaven eternal To clasp Cecil again to our breast.

We entered this valley of sorrow, With our hearts so heavy and sad, That it seemed to us there was nothing in life to again make us glad.

While over our sorrow we brooded, The tears were bitter that fell, For we failed to recall the assurance That the death of all things is well.

But when his love's bright ray illumed Our hearts so burdened with grief, There appeared the rainbow of promise, Which brought us a blessed relief.

Then the peace of God, which passeth Understanding, fills our souls, And comforted us, thus making Our afflicted spirit whole.

Now, fond parents, for Cecil who grieving, Take courage and be brave, For he has taught us that there's a meeting, A meeting beyond the grave.

Abita Springs Notes.

Editor St. Tammany Farmer: Abita Springs, February 8, 1908.

At a meeting of the Progressive Union January 30, the question, "How to make the best use of our finances," was discussed and finally tabled until next meeting.

It was resolved to give a smoker after the next regular meeting, February 19. Each member will be permitted to bring a friend.

The following committee will have charge of all arrangements: J. P. Rausch, Rev. A. Kaub, C. E. Millar.

Election of officers will take place next meeting. The livery stable of Morin & Thomson was sold this week. Mr. H. Oallman will be manager for the new owner.

Miss L. Duquesne was over Sunday to visit her father, who is quite ill, and has been for two weeks.

Uncle Pete Waldmann, the genial lumber inspector for Vaccaro Brothers, spent Sunday in Abita. Mr. Latonio, Mr. Vaccaro's brother-in-law, accompanied him.

Mr. Geo. McNulty, the druggist, is all smiles since Monday night. Another Mc is added to his family circle—a fine lad of twelve pounds.

Folsom Notes.

Folsom, La., Feb. 6, 1907.

Mrs. J. Core spent last Tuesday afternoon here with her cousin, Mrs. A. H. Hammett. Mrs. Hart spent last Monday afternoon in Covington.

Mr. Bart Springs, after a year spent in Franklinton, has moved his family back to Folsom. Mr. W. Carroll, of Alabama, spent last week here with his brother.

Mrs. Walter Davis and little son are visiting relatives in Mississippi.

Quite an enjoyable picnic and fish-fry was given by the Misses Carroll, last Wednesday, in honor of their uncle.

Miss Maggie White left last Thursday to spend the rest of the winter in Hattiesburg, Miss., much to the regret of her many friends in Folsom.

Miss Bell Stevens is visiting at Blackwell, where she went to attend the Thomas-Blackwell wedding.

Mrs. Blackburn, Miss Ruth and Master Ester spent last week with relatives in Pearl River.

Miss Edith Brauhm attended the cotillion at the Southern Hotel, in Covington, Friday night.

A most enjoyable tacky party was given at the home of Miss Beulah Carroll, last Monday night, in honor of her birthday.

Quite a large crowd assembled at the beautifully illuminated home. Games were indulged in until a late hour. After choice refreshments were served, the prizes were awarded. Miss Belle Stevens won the prize for the tackiest dressed lady and Mr. Steve Tracher for men.

CORRESPONDENT.

Friends and Voters

A falsehood has been circulated—no doubt for political effect—that I would not make the race for ASSESSOR in the second primary on February 25.

Voters, be not deceived by such reports. I am in the race to a finish. I want your support, and will do my best to repay your confidence by making a trustworthy official if elected.

Thanking you for past support and soliciting it again on the 25th instant, I am, most respectfully,

D. C. WALLIS, Loss, La.

For wear, comfort and general appearance, there is no shoe on the market to day that excels the Hamilton Brown. Go to Schmidt's store, Abita Springs, La.

SUFFERING AND DOLLARS SAVED. E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found."

Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles; 25c at all druggists.
