Mr. J. M. O'Berry of Pearl River was a visitor to Covington this week.

Mrs. M. E. Burns and Mr. Jno. P. Carroll, of New Orleans, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Kentzel.

Messrs. J. J. Cusachs, Aaron Todd and Harry Culbertson of Bayou LaCombe, were in Covington last Monday on business.

There was no baseball game last Sunday, owing to some misunderstanding.

At the tax sale last Saturday there were very few buyers. The larger part of the properties going to the State.

Last Tuesday all the children of the Deaf Mute Institute left for a vacation under the guidance of Father Bede and some of the Sisters.

If you want your Laundry well done see Mrs. C. C. Robinson, Local Agent, Ideal Laundry, formerly Doty, Columbia Street. Phone 217-2.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Richard who went to Oklahoma a short time ago to reside have returned to Covington and will occupy their former residence.

Mr. Chas. Biggio, of Abita Springs, is suffering from a dislocated shoulder the result of a friendly scuffle between himself and Herman Oalman in Covington last Wednesday.

The heavy rains of Saturday night and Sunday morning were much needed in some parts of the parish which had not been favored by the numerous showers that have fallen in other sections.

Editor W. F. Holland, of the St. Helena Echo, was in Covington last Monday looking up a stray trunk that had failed to get on the right road at Baton Rouge, during the press convention.

Mr. B. Lahat is putting down a brick sidewalk in front of his property on Boston street, extending around on Florida street as far as the Mortice residence. "Every little bit, added to what we've got, makes a little bit more."

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cook announce the marriage of their daughter Ada Louise to Mr. John Scott Dimitry, to take place Wednesday, June 24th, at 3.30 p.m., at the residence of the bride-elect's parent, 910 Twenty Third Ave.

The printing press of the Covington News and ninety-seven shares of Leader Publishing Company was sold at public auction last Saturday to satisfy judgment of Farmer and Merchants Bank. It was bid in by W. L. Fussell for $50.

Mr. A. F. Helwich, the florist, presented the Farmer last Saturday with a basket of delicious Early Ines Grapes. Mr. Helwich is very successful in his grape growing, having numerous varieties that are doing finely, but the Ines are the earliest we have seen. They somewhat resemble the Concord.

Messrs. A. Blattner and F. B. Hempel went on a crabbing expedition to Mandeville last Saturday evening, and barring the bad weather that always lays low for such an occasion, had a very nice time. Very few crabs were caught, but Mr. Hempel caught a fine red fish and Mr. Blattner caught a nice bunch of croakers.

The excursion to Corbin last Tuesday was a success in every particular. Two long trains pulled into Corbin, and over four thousand excursionists attended the sale. While it seems incredible that two sales of lots in Corbin at such short intervals should be so successful, we easily find the reason in the ability with which Mr. A. Harris hustles things. We presume Mr. Harris works other towns as he works Covington. He has shown himself here to be a man who uses both brain and muscle. He does not seem afraid of any kind of work, and withal finds time to be congenial and pleasant. We have put a good mark down for Mr. Harris.

In Denunciation. Covington, La., June 19, 1908. The article appearing in the Covington News of June 18, under the caption "A Slap in the Face" I denounce as a lie, from top to bottom. C. L. SMITH.

St. Scholastica's Academy. The friends and patrons of St. Scholastica's Academy are cordially invited to be present at the Annual Commencement Exercises, Wednesday, June 24th, at 10 a. m., in the lower hall of the school.

The graduation of two young ladies from the High School, seven from the Grammar School, one from the Musical Course, and four from the Shorthand Course will be celebrated on this occasion.

On Tuesday, June 23, there will be a full dress rehearsal at 9 o'clock in the morning. All children under fifteen are invited to attend, also others who may not find it convenient to attend on Wednesday. No children, excepting relatives of the graduates, will be admitted on Wednesday.

The class work, final examinations and needle-work done by the pupils during the scholastic year will be exhibited in one of the Convent parlors, from Monday evening till Wednesday afternoon. All who are interested in the cause of education, most especially the patrons, are welcome to come and inspect the work.

Visitors who desire to manifest their appreciation of the exhibit, may do so by placing a donation in the contribution box for the school library, which is to be established for the exclusive use of the attending pupils of this institution. It is a worthy cause to promote, and every contribution, be it ever so insignificant, will be gratefully accepted.

5 or 6 doses "666" will cure any case of Chills and Fever.

The occasion of the first communion of little Louise Bosquet was made memorable by a party of friends who celebrated the occasion at the residence of Mrs. Bosquet, last Thursday. The following were present:

Abita Springs Items. Abita Springs, La., June 17. Editor St. Tammany Farmer: Mr. and Mrs. Alexis were pleasant visitors here one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Langham came over on last Thursday's excursion to renew old friendship with their many friends here. Miss Jackens paid a Washington call to her aunt Mrs. Simon on Thursday.

Mr. Spitzfadden and children spent a very enjoyable day Wednesday on the banks of the Abita river, waiting for the fish to bite. Some say he really did get a bite—fleas, red bugs or mosquitoes.

On Tuesday of this week the new council, elected a few weeks ago, were sworn in. The mayor, Dr. Heintz, and Aldermen Mendow and Mutti were re-elected with Mr. Chas. W. Schmidt as newly elected alderman.

The councilmen immediately settled down to business, and the result was as follows: Mr. Mendow elected mayor pro tem; Dr. L. Heintz, Emile Aubert and J. L. Reed, Board of Health; and Fred. J. Heintz, town attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. Balter came over from Biloxi to spend a week in Abita. Mr. Fuerst of the firm of Fuerst & Cramer, the well-known confectioners, makes an excellent auctioneer. His wonderful talent in this direction was displayed on Thursday last at the picnic, when he by means of his charming "Merry Widow" smile and persuasive reasoning powers, managed to sell all the stock of goods which would have been left over otherwise, and he pulled off some excellent bargains, too.

By the way, this reminds me that there was a picnic and excursion here on Thursday of last week. About 3,000 people in attendance. Over 2,000 people came over from New Orleans on a special excursion arranged for the event. Twenty coaches and two baggage cars brought over the crowd.

Many were left behind because they could not secure additional coaches, as there were none to be had. The baggage cars were filled as were the coaches. Everything came off lovely. No accidents and no disturbances whatever. Mrs. C. L. Becker, president of the Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran Church, had charge of the picnic grounds, and under her skillful management, made it comfortable and pleasant for all. All the ladies took a lively interest in the affair, and hence the great success. The Aid society wishes to thank all who assisted in making their picnic such a good success. This society expects to realize about $800 on their excursion and picnic.

A grand dance will be given Saturday, June 20, 1908, at the town hall, for the benefit of erecting a dancing pavilion, given by Abita Social Club. Admission 25 cents.

The Misses Guzman came over Wednesday to get their house in shape for rental this summer, as they will remain in New Orleans all season. A disastrous fire having destroyed their store last week in New Orleans.

A dear little girl was born to Mrs. M. N. Harvey Thursday, June 18, 1908. LUTHERAN CHURCH BULLETIN. Divine services Sunday night, 7:30. Ladies' Aid Society meets Friday, June 26, at 2:30 p.m.

Meeting of voting members on Sunday, June 28, after morning service. Mandeville Items. Mandeville, La., June 16, 1908. Editor St. Tammany Farmer: The reception given by the Mandeville Branch of the St. Tammany Banking Co was a pleasant social event; the building and furnishings reflect much credit to those who had it in charge.

The people of Mandeville have reason to be very proud of their new Bank building. Miss Mary Rodd left last Friday to be absent several days in New Orleans Prof and Mrs. Douglas Anderson entertained quite a house party in honor of their tenth anniversary. Miss Huger, Miss Ruth Leeds, Miss Jean Gordon, Mrs. John Anderson, Dr. Brown Ayres of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mr. Randolph Gurley were of the party.

Rev. Mr. Rennie held two services here last Sunday, both were well attended. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kelley and family are occupying the Galbraith home for the summer. Dr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell are guests of Mrs. Shiels for the summer.

Stein Jr. Chester Bohning and Emile Oulliber.

Mr. Chas. Mugnier, of New Orleans, was a welcome visitor here last Sunday. CATCH ON.

Madisonville, La., June 18, 1908. Editor St. Tammany Farmer: Sunday, June 14th, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cannon gave a party in honor of their charming little daughter Irma's first birthday. There being present quite a number of ladies and gentlemen and forty-five little girls who enjoyed themselves to their hearts content singing, dancing and playing games.

Misses Evelyn and Eleanor LeBlanc and Miss Alice Badeaux sang quite a number of beautiful songs and Miss Janie Canulet and Miss Eugenia Oulliber played the piano until the arrival of Mrs. Gaste, the local music teacher, who rendered a number of beautiful selections. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cannon. Little Irma was the happy recipient of many beautiful presents. Among these present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. P. Policar, Mr. and Mrs. S. Goldate, Mrs. B.
