To My Baby. They say that time will cure my grief, and others take thy place: That ensuing years shall completely blot out memories of thy face. This may be true of the day, with its trials and schemes. But they little know what happens in the midnight realm of dreams. There thy presence oft envelopes me with a love that mocks at death, And I feel that I shall smother in the fragrance of thy breath. For "the fairest things have fleeting ends, their scent survives their close: But the roses' scent is agony to him that loved the rose. "All that begins and all that ends, begins and ends in tears: For we are born in other's pain and perish in our own." S. D. THOMAS, Chairman. MRS. E. KAHL, MRS. CLARA CROW, DAVE EVANS, FRANK SILVEST.

BASEBALL. The Covington team and St. Peter and Paul Ushers will play ball at Enterprise Park, Sunday. The Ushers are expected to put up a good game, and they are a strong team, but Manager Bradley claims that he has got the Covington's in good shape and has a wonderful pitcher in young Downey, and with Maloney behind the bat make a team hard to beat. All signs point to a good game next Sunday, which is ladies' day. The Ushers will bring a crowd of ladies with them from New Orleans.

The Covingtons and the Eagles, of New Orleans, played ball at Enterprise Park Sunday, resulting in a score of 6 to 5 in favor of the Eagles. The game Tuesday between the Covingtons and the O'Harrigans was also against the Covingtons. Score 8 to 2.

Dr. Martin proffered the assistance of the State Medical Society for a series of lectures on subjects to be chosen by the Parish Society.

Judge Robt. R. Reid, a prominent citizen and jurist and old resident of the town and parish, will deliver the dedicatory address. Other prominent speakers have been invited. The citizens of Amite City and vicinity will prepare a barbecue and basket dinner and afford other amusements for the assembly. Everybody is invited to attend.

Covington Steam Laundry. There has been a large increase in the business of the Covington Steam Laundry since the people got wise to the kind of work that was being done by this company. Those people who have taken interest enough in the matter to go to the office and examine the work have not only been surprised at the excellence, but have expressed the determination to hereafter not only become patrons themselves, but advise others to do so. If there are any doubting Thomases who still believe that they can get better work done in New Orleans, let them take a trip to the laundry and be convinced of their error. They will find the management courteous and attentive, and ready to give you any information you desire. The experience is worth the trip and will more than repay you for your trouble.

Card of Thanks. I wish to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to Dr. H. E. Guatreux, Rev. J. M. Williams, Poole Bros., and the neighbors, for their kindness during the illness, and at the death of my husband, Gustave B. G. Kundert. Mrs. GUS. KUNDERT.

Thursday, the 16th inst., Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kelly gave a very pretty birthday party for their little daughter, Adele. Unfortunately the rain made the little ones leave the yard, but they were happy playing the games so dear to children. The families that were represented were Aldige, Coyle, Stuhl, Smith and Montgomery. Judge and Mrs. Clegg left Monday on a launch for New Orleans. Judge Clegg's serious illness was the cause of their departure. Their many friends hope to hear good news from them. Mr. and Mrs. G. W.
