From Monday, Sept. 14, the M C B Library will be opened from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m.

BORN - To Mrs. John Wallace, at her residence three miles from Abita, on August 22, 1908, a boy.

Rev. Dr. Parker preached at the Gibson street Methodist Church last Sunday evening to a large congregation. His text was: "The last shall be first and the first shall be last."

Watches, clocks and jewelry repaired and guaranteed by Jno. F. Doty, next door to postoffice.

Bids for all kinds of lumber taken by Dendinger & Co., through their agents, Alexius Bros. & Co., will receive prompt attention.

Edison Home Phonograph and one dozen records, Morning Glory horn $29.20. Buy from Jno. F. Doty, next to postoffice, and save money.

Among the new advertisements will be seen the professional card of F. J. Buquoi, M. D., who will be found in his office at the Southern Hotel. Dr. Buquoi also has an office at Abita Springs, at McNulty's drug store.

Division passenger agent of the Illinois Central, A. J. McDougal, has recommended that special rates be put in from Covington and intermediate points to Baton Rouge, for the East Feliciana fair, from October 21, to be good until October 25.

The Woodmen of the World are to give a grand entertainment on September 17 at Cantrelle's Hall. A comedy in three acts, "A Bachelor's Divorce," is the principal attraction and will be well worth seeing.

If any unpaid or insufficiently paid letters or other matter bear the card or address of the sender, or he be known or can be conveniently ascertained by the postmaster and is without postage, it will be returned to him for proper postage.

The W. H. Ketzler printing house has just issued from the press the new Business Directory of Covington, for 1908 gotten up by Mr. Julian Lafaye.

It is well printed in large, clear type and contains information that will be useful to the merchants and to all classes of citizens. It is something that Covington has needed for some time.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Church was held at Fitzgerald Chapel on Saturday and Sunday, in charge of Rev. F. F. Parker, D. D., of New Orleans. There was a good attendance and a large amount of business was transacted at the business session.

Card of Thanks.

I take this the first opportunity I have had since the date of the primary, to thank each and every one of my friends in the district for their loyal and unselfish support accorded me at the primary last Tuesday. I wish I had the means and the time to write a personal letter to each and every one of my friends in the District and thank them individually for the kindness shown me on last Tuesday.

Card of Thanks.

To the Voters of the second Railroad Commission District of Louisiana: Words cannot express my deep appreciation for the magnificent vote that I received at your hands for Railroad Commissioner on September 1, 1908. Being in the race with three distinguished and honorable gentlemen it is indeed gratifying to know that I have led in the race by about 2,000 votes.

Card of Thanks.

As I am entering in the Second Primary by such a handsome majority over my opponent, Mr. Cade, I hope by the continued loyal support of my friends and the friends of the candidate who were not successful in the first primary, to be able to win easily in the second primary on September 23, 1908.
