Slidell Department
EDITED BY MRS. M. MCDANIEL.

A grand temperance meeting; well attended, took place at the Baptist church here Monday evening, Sept. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bousquet were in New Orleans visiting Tuesday.

Mr. J. A. Meire has severed his connection with the Slidell Store Co. and gone to New Or-lean to take a course at Soule's College.

Miss S. L. Hughes, of New Orleans, is back among his many friends.

Mr. W. Woodruff was a visitor to the Crescent City this week.

Mrs. S. A. Macy was a recent visitor to New Orleans.

Mr. J. G. Abel, of Columbia Junction, Miss., spent last Saturday with his friends here.

Mr. Ernest Domergue, of Covington was a business visitor here Monday.

Rev. Father Bernard, of New Orleans delivered an eloquent sermon to a crowded house Sunday morning, subject: "October, the month of Holy Rosary."

Public School opened here Monday with a fine future outlook with an attendance of one hundred and eighty-five pupils.

Prof. Crichlow will conduct a night school at the public school house. It is thought same will be very successful as this will enable many young men and boys to acquire an education that owing to work would be impossible. We wish Prof.
Crichlow every success possible.

Mrs. Tippin and two little daughters have returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in Mobile, Ala.

Mrs. Jas. Barr and little daughter have returned from New Orleans where they were the guests of Mrs. Hausner.

Miss Gladys Martin is attending the Newcomb College. She will spend Saturday and Sunday with her parents here.

Master Frank Comfort is now a student of Soule's College, New Orleans.

Mrs. G. Solberger and grandson, Master Albert Fritchie returned from an extended visit to relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Mamie Liddle, of New Orleans spent Sunday here, the guest of Mrs. Geo. Gieger.

Mrs. J. D. Anderson is visiting relatives in Newton, Miss.

Mrs. Maud D. Nutt, of Hattiesburg, Miss., is here visiting her mother, Mrs. S. Davis.

Mrs. P. R. Outlaw and children are visiting her mother at Starkville, Miss.

Master Adolph Peterson is attending the Holy Cross College in New Orleans.

Miss Leah Comfort has returned after a pleasant visit to relatives in Laurel and Meridian, Miss.

Mrs. Maud Harris, of North Carolina, has returned to the delight of her former pupils, and resumed her duties in the public school.

Mrs. Reddin and children have returned after an extended visit to relatives in the Crescent City. During their stay in New Orleans a Stork paid them a very interesting call leaving in their care a precious baby girl. They will reside in their lovely home on the bayou road.

Among the social functions of the past week was the ball given by the Slidell Social Club, at the R. M. hall.

One of the interesting socia affairs was the dreadful pounding received by Rev. A. Finch, pastor of the Baptist Church.

Pounds of everything was received from candy to cabbage.

Misses Gladys Liddle and Ella Salmen are visiting relatives on the Gulf coast.

Mrs. Garreau and family occupy the charming Swiss Cottage on Front street. Miss Garreau is noted for her splendid musical talent and is a teacher of some ability.

The New Orleans Baptist Association will meet with the Slidell and St. Tammany Baptist churches on the last Thursday in this month.

C. M. Liddle was among the recent visitors to the Crescent City.

School trustees elected Monday night for the year were:
Dr. J. F. Polk, W. A. Martin, H. Mayfield, Jno. Peterson, F.
Salmen, and U. G. Neuhauser.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Ciruti now occupy their new home in Potterville.

are now installed in the Mc-Daniel cottage on College street.

B. H. Buckley is improving his residence by adding a wing to the western portion of his cozy cottage.

Henry Hellar is anticipating building a dwelling in the near future for his personal use.

E. F. Hailey is at present at Tickfaw, La.

Mrs. Engleston, of New Orleans, recently purchased the beautiful country home of Jas.
Barr in the northeastern part of the town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barron and baby Dorris may be visitors to Hattisburg, Miss., the past week.

W. Talley, Jr., and family now occupy the Salmen Cottage on the corner of College and Cleveland Aves.

Miss Carrington, after spending a delightful summer here, the guest of Mrs. F. Richardson, has returned to New Orleans.

The City Council met Tuesday night.

The new Salmen Saw Mill will be ready for operation in the near future.

The "Ella S.," "Alice G.," "Francis" and several other gasoline boats are on the waters of the beautiful Bayou Vincent.
