TROOP C, FIRST SQUADRON,

Celebrate their Third Anniversary With a Dance and Military Dinner at Cantrell's Hall.

Last Monday evening "C" Troop, 1st Cavalry, L. N. G., celebrated their third anniversary with a dinner and military dance, at Cantrell's Hall. The hall had just previously been decorated for the Park Association entertainment, and the company fell heir to its very pretty arrangement.

By 9 o'clock quite a crowd had gathered in the spacious hall and the floor was covered with dancers. The program of the evening being waltzes and two steps. The music was furnished by Prof. A. Guyol, whose selections were well rendered, the distinct notes of the piano being heard in all parts of the hall, and the time excellent. The bright uniforms of the Cavalry boys formed a pretty contrast to the costumes of the ladies, and it was evident that the military surroundings was an attractive feature of the occasion and exerted that same influence over the minds of the fairer sex that is always apparent in every assemblage where our national defenders take part. The feeling of patriotism that is a part of the character of the American citizen gives a prestige to the soldier that makes him a welcome companion, and especially is this so in a community of which he is a social part with ties of relationship, friendship and acquaintance. Several classic selections were played by Dr. Bass in his usual finished style, and added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Major W. W. Cockrell, First Cavalry, and wife, of Lake Charles, La., were among those present.

Many of our prominent citizens were present, and the enjoyment of the evening will always be a pleasant remembrance to those in attendance.

About 11 o'clock an excellent and much-enjoyed gumbo dinner was served, and was heartily partaken of by all. Dancing was kept up till between 1 and 2 o'clock.

THE SLEEPING SICKNESS WHICH MEANS DEATH

How many readers have heard of this terrible disease? It prevails in that far-away country—Africa—Especially the Congo district. It is caused by the bite of the tsetse fly. When it bites a person, the sleeping symptoms begin and finally the sufferer sleeps until death occurs.

Contrast this with the peaceful, balmy sleep of health. Is there anything more wearing than to lie awake at night, tossing about, nervous, with cold feet, hot head and merry moans, what else? Short of letting the tsetse fly bite us we would do almost anything for relief. How can we prevent it? Mr. George Hayes, of Union City, Pa., writes: "I had lost my appetite, was all run-down, could not sleep nights. I had tried everything without relief. Vinol was recommended, and to my surprise, it helped me at once; gave me a splendid appetite, and now I sleep soundly."

What Vinol did for Mr. Hayes, it will do for every run-down, nervous and overworked person who cannot sleep.

VINOL is sold in Covington by TROUILLY & OPLATEK
