

AN INFERENCE.

"Pa," said Bobbie, "I go fishin'?"

"No, you can't," said the old gentleman from his newspaper.

Pause.

"Pa, kin I go in a fishin'?"

"I've told you several times already."

Pause.

"Say, ma, kin I go out and play with the hose?"

"No, Bobbie, you get yourself soaked," replied Mother.

Pause.

"Ma, kin I go out to Willie Smith's for a little?"

"No, my son, you can't. Willie Smith is not a companion for a boy like you."

Pause.

"Pa, kin I cut pictures out o' the Sunday papers?"

"No, three; you're not going to have those littered up with scraps of paper."

Pause.

"Ma, kin I—"

"No, Bobbie, you can't! Don't make me have all you that again."

Pause.

"Say, pa, kin this a prohibition state?"—Judge.

Effect of Practice.

She had her finger in everything. So when he showed an engagement ring it wasn't much more than a minute. Before she had her finger in it.

—Baltimore American.

WHY SHE LIKED PARIS.

Miss Dasher—So you liked Paris, eh?

Mrs. Parvie-New—Oh, immensely, and the people are so intelligent. Why even school children speak French.

A Coward of Conscience.

Tired and dusty, the excursion was returning from the bank holiday trip, and Simkins, a little bald man with big ears, overcome with his day of happiness, dropped off to sleep. In the hat-rack above, another passenger had deposited a ferocious crab in a bucket, and when Simkins went to sleep the crab woke up, and finding things dull in the bucket, started exploring. By careful navigation Mr. Crab reached the edge of the rack, but the next moment down it fell, alighting on Simkins' shoulder. Not feeling quite safe it grabbed the voluminous ear of Simkins to steady itself, and the passengers held their breath, and waited for developments. But Simkins only shook his head slightly.

"Let go, Eliza," he murmured. "I tell you that I have been at the office all the evening."—Royal Magazine.

FAULT OF THE SEX.

Mrs. B. (leaning over the rail)—George, look at that yacht. Just see how clumsily she tacks.

Mr. B.—What is the name?

Mrs. B.—Helen.

Mr. B.—Well, no wonder. Anything feminine always tacks clumsily.

Recipe.

"How do you make a campaign speech?"

"That's easy," answered the spell-binder. "You talk a little on general topics; then mention the candidate's name; then wait for the applause and then begin over and go through the same procedure until your time is used up."—Washington Star.

His Favorite Position.

Mr. Windfall—My wife wants me to buy a seat on the Stock Exchange, so here's a check for $100,000 for the ticket.

The Broker—Ticket? For what?

Mr. Windfall—The seat, of course! And be sure to get one on the aisle, about three rows from the front!—Puck.

All Wanted.

"Why can't I have eggs for supper?" asked the guest.

"You can't have eggs for supper," answered the landlord of the hotel, "because a gentleman is going to lecture to-night, and we want 'em all for him! You have some public spirit, I perceive?" He had.

A Misty Evening.

Wink—What became of you last night, Jinks?

Totho—I spent the evening with you, old chap.

Too True.

ATTRACTS ALL OTHER ODORS.

Union Can Be Used to Get Rid of Disagreeable Smells.

Everyone knows that an onion has a distinct and unpleasant odor, whether cooked or raw. But everyone does not know that this odor of an onion will draw to it every other disagreeable odor and clear the house atmosphere in a day.

The onion can then be thrown away, and with it goes the disagreeable smell that came about in a house that has been closed for the summer.

And this is also a good thing to know: That it will absorb all the odor from fresh paint and turpentine. If the house has been freshly painted and cleaned for the winter's occupancy, the people moving into it will be miserable with the smells that come from walls and floors.

After the fresh country these odors will be unendurable.

One onion should be cut into small pieces and placed about the room in two or three saucers. Allow an onion to each room and let the saucers remain there over day and night. If every bit of odor hasn't gone in that time put a few fresh pieces in for the next day.

TO MAKE ORANGE MARMALADE.

Old Scotch Recipe Which Can Be Followed by Any Housewife.

The Americans have adopted the British plan of eating marmalade at breakfast. It is put on dry or buttered toast and taken with the coffee. The following is an old Scotch recipe which is used in British homes:

Seville oranges are the best for this marmalade if one can get them. The juice is pressed out and the rinds put into a preserving kettle with plenty of water to cover them. This is cooked until soft, adding more water as it boils away. When very soft it is turned into a jelly bag and the juice squeezed out.

This is mixed with the uncooked orange, and to every pint a pound and a half of sugar is allowed. It is cooked 20 minutes. The best way to test it is to drop a little on a cold plate. If it curls up at the touch of a finger it is ready to take from the fire. It should be put into glasses or small stone jars. It should stand uncovered for a night and after this the jars may be covered with paraffin.

Bay State Cruisers.

Break three eggs into a bowl, add 1% teaspoonful of sugar and one teaspoonful of fresh milk. Stir all together thoroughly, then add five even teaspoonfuls of lard and drop or two of extract of lemon. To one cupful of flour add 1% teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar and one of soda. Stir in the bowl and add sufficient flour to make a firm dough. Roll the dough out to a quarter of an inch in thickness—four the rolling board, of course. Cut with a "cooky cutter" which has the center ring, and drop carefully into smoking hot fat. They should puff at once and turn slightly brown. Turn with a silver fork and when done remove by lifting with the fork inserted in the hole center. Lay them on a water covered with a sheet of white paper and sprinkle sparingly with cinnamon and pulverized sugar. When cool, pack them in a stone crock and cover. This recipe makes a goodly number, but they will keep fresh for ten days if put away as advised. But remember the dough must be smooth and firm, the lard smoking hot, and the cook thoroughly interested.

Egg Salad.

While this is a little too hearty for a dinner salad, it is just the thing for the Sunday night supper. Boil the eggs hard, remove the shells, cut in halves crosswise or lengthwise, and take out the yolks, using a silver fork; then season with minced chow chow, with a little of the mustard sauce from the bottle, a little melted butter, salt and pepper, and if desired, minced olives. Return to the whites of eggs, arrange on a bed of lettuce or cress, dress with French dressing or mayonnaise. If no olives have been used in the filling of the eggs a few olives or pimientos scattered over the salad add to its decoration.

Jack Raiser Pie.

Cover your bread riser pan with pink crepe paper. It can be pasted or tied on. Then put a little present for each child if it which is tied with narrow ribbon long enough to let a piece hang on outside of pie. Put pie in the center of table and then, when lunch is over, let each child pull a ribbon and receive the gift. This makes a pretty center piece, and the children enjoy it. Different color ribbons may be used, one for boys and one for girls.

Scalloped Chicken.

Boil a chicken or fowl until done; remove the skin and gristle and chop the meat. Butter a large dish, put a layer of pounded crackers in the bottom of the dish and some bits of butter and moisten with cream. On this put a layer of chicken, seasoned with pepper, grated lemon peel and nutmeg; add bits of butter, put over this more of the cracker, butter and cream, and then a layer of chicken. Cover the top with buttered cracker crumbs. Bake in a hot oven.

To Clean Bottles.

When one is not the possessor of a bottle washer, take a piece of twine about a quarter of an inch thick and two yards long. Insert enough of this in two bottles to be able to shake well after pouring in a suds with soda in it. Then remove twine and rinse in clear water. This will clean any soiled bottle.

To Prevent Rust on Flatirons.

Beeswax and salt will make rusty flatirons as smooth and clean as glass. Tie a lump of wax in a rag and keep it for that purpose. When the irons are hot rub them first with the wax rag, then scour with a paper or cloth sprinkled with salt.

Sandpaper Cakes.

To remove the burned edges of layer or loaf cake, use fine sandpaper as soon as the cake is "set," but before it gets cold. A piece of paraffin paper, cut the shape of the cake, will prevent the cake sticking to the plate on which it is to be set away.

Nothing Would Help Him—Mother Almost in Despair—Owes Quick Cure to Cuticura.

"Several months ago, my little boy began to break out with itching sores. I doctored him, but as soon as I got them healed up in one place they would break out in another. I was almost in despair. I could not get anything that would help him. Then I began to use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and after using them three times, the sores commenced to heal. He is now well, and not a scar is left on his body. They have never returned nor left him with bad blood, as one would think. Cuticura Remedies are the best I have ever tried, and I shall highly recommend them to any one who is suffering likewise. Mrs. William Geeding, 102 Washington St., Attica, Ind., July 22, 1907."

As He Saw It.

Once upon a time there was a very little boy who desired to go out for a walk with his nurse, but it was raining that day, so he couldn't. But he was consoled when informed that he might go the next day.

Alas! When the next day came rain was still coming down without abatement. The little boy looked disconsolately at the heavens.

"God is getting very careless," he said.

This Is No Joke.

Hunt's Cure has saved more people from the "Old Scratch" than any other known agent, simply because it makes scratching entirely unnecessary. One application relieves any form of itching skin disease that ever afflicted mankind. One box guaranteed to cure any one case.

Mercenary Marriages.

"Dinna marry for the siller, Jock," said old Sandy, shogly, to his son, who seemed to show symptoms of the awakening of a young man's fancy; "gin ye dae, ye'll ave regret it. For a'm tellin' ye, when I marrit ye'r mither, I hadna but ae shillin', forby she had tucent pence. And for all the 15 year o' our marrit life, I ne'er heard the last o' the odd sarpence."—F. C. Luck, in West Coast Magazine.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Name of Dr. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Real Meaning of "Aftermath."

"Aftermath" is a persistently ill-used word. Early July is the time of the "math," that is, the first mowing of the meadows. The short grass—with a sufficiency of rain—will grow again, and later will come the "second mow" or "aftermath."

A Lady's Words

It's not so much what we say, but what other ladies say, about Cardui, as a cure for female ailments, that we ask you to believe. Cardui has benefited so many ladies, that it should surely help you. Being prepared from harmless, vegetable ingredients, it is a safe, natural medicine, that can always be relied on.

Take Cardui

Mrs. Verna Wallace, of Sanger, Tex., writes: "Cardui has done more for me than I can describe. Last spring I was taken with female inflammation and consulted a doctor, but to no avail, so I took Cardui, and inside of three days, I was able to do my housework. Since then my trouble has never returned." Try it.

Woman Chosen City Alderman.

Mrs. H. J. Gates has just been elected one of the six aldermen of Magee, Tenn. For several years she has taken an active interest in the educational work of her town and wanted to be elected alderman because it would help her in this work. She is reported to have made about the most aggressive campaign ever witnessed in Magee, if not in Tennessee. The town people seemed pleased with her election, and even those who voted against her believe she will make a first-class alderman.

Where Others Failed.

"Each spring for five or six years I broke out with a kind of Eczema which nothing seemed to relieve permanently. Finally I tried a box of Hunt's Cure, which promptly cured me. Two years have passed by, but the trouble has not returned."

Proof is inexhaustible that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carries women safely through the Change of Life.

Read the letter Mrs. E. Hanson, 304 E. Long St., Columbus, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was passing through the Change of Life, and suffered from nervousness, headaches, and other annoying symptoms. My doctor told me that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good for me, and since taking it I feel so much better, and I can again do my own work. I never forgot to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me during this trying period."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?
