Slidell Department

EDITED BY MRS. M. McDANIEL

The concert given by the Baptist Ladies Aid, Friday evening proved a splendid success in every way. Supper was served by the ladies; dainty refreshments were enjoyed by those who did not partake of the splendid oyster supper. The stage was tastefully decorated, green being the prevailing color, large groups of ferns and hot house plants helped to carry out the color scheme. The following program was rendered: Glory Song, by the Sunday School. Quartette "Red Wing" by Dr. Outlaw, S. L. Tillery, C. A. Everitt, Dr. Polk. Piano Solo, by Miss Beulah Bourgeois. Recitation "Henry Beams' Two Dollars" Miss Florence Moore. Piano Duet, "Sleigh Ride" by Misses Dona Everitt and Meta Moore. Quartette, "Old Black Joe" by Mrs. N. Harris, Dr. Outlaw, C. A. Everitt and Dr. Polk. Piano Solo "March Heroic" by Miss Vivian Comfort. Recitation "Pride of Battery B." Miss Gertrude Mullings. Piano Solo 2nd Mazauk-(Gohard) by Miss Garreau. Vocal Solo-Happy Cays-(Strdelzki) by Miss Gardere. Quartette-Tell Mother I'll Be There by Dr. Polk, C. A. Everitt, S. L. Tillery and U. G. Neuhauser. Piano Duet, by Misses Gladys Liddle and Dona Everitt. God be with you till we meet again, by the Sunday School. Refreshments.

Quite a pleasant surprise was rendered Mrs. R. S. Crichlow, Thursday night at the Swiss Cottage, in the shape of a birthday surprise. Those present were Mrs. N. Harris, Miss Mullings, Miss Beane, Mrs. Garreau, Miss Garreau, Mrs. Armand Garreau, Miss Ella Scroggins, Miss Mollie Guzman, Miss Violet Holdsworth and Miss Lena George. Dainty lunch was served at 10 o'clock. Music and recitations were enjoyed till a late hour, when the guests departed wishing Mrs. Crichlow many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. J. F. Polk and Mrs. N. Harris were Crescent City visitors Saturday. Mrs. F. A. Bourgeois spent several days at Picayune, Miss., the guest of relatives. Mrs. Thos. Arnold is planning to supply a long felt want to our town, she is having planted numerous flowers, buds and bushes for sale. She expects by next All Saints Day to be able to furnish many customers with flowers and so realize a neat sum and keep the money in our own town instead of the many dollars that go to New Orleans for flowers every year. W. C. Holley was a New Orleans visitor Friday last. The marriage of Miss Mary McMahon to Mr. Wm. Snyder will take place in the Presbyterian Church, December 31, Rev. J. M. Williams to officiate.

The many friends of Mr. Homes Harris are pleased to learn that he is recovering nicely from the injuries received in the Little Woods wreck. He is at present at his country home here, where he will spend several months recuperating his shattered nerves ere resuming his duties in the Bradstreet agency. The Laulemia building, recently vacated by J. W. Decker, as a furniture house, is being remodeled and fitted up for J. J. Duboussin, for an up-to-date moving picture show.

J. M. Green returned from a few days visit to relatives in Mississippi. Mrs. Simon Levy and daughter Amelia spent a day in New Orleans the past week. H. K. Hoffman, of New Orleans, was a business visitor here Saturday.

Miss Beane, the drawing teacher for our public school, spent Saturday and Sunday in New Orleans with her parents. J. G. Abel is recovering from his recent illness, we hope soon to see him out again.

The handsome new residence of Dr. P. R. Outlaw is nearing completion. The doctor expects to eat his Christmas dinner in his new home. Dr. Harrison, of New York City, is the welcome guest of his brother, Mr. Homes Harrison.

Albert Little, of Worthington, Minn., returned after a few days here, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Geiger. Mrs. Geiger and Mr. Little spent Saturday in New Orleans, guests of Miss Mamie Little.

Mr. Little departed Sunday for home, by way of Chicago. Miss Gladys Liddle spent Saturday in the Crescent city. Mr. J. A. Bousquet has the sympathy of his many friends in the death of his father, which occurred last Saturday, in New Orleans.

Rev. C. V. Peters has been re-appointed pastor of the Methodist church here and will resume his duties in the near future.

The Methodist Ladies Aid met at the Swiss Cottage on the 16th and was charmingly entertained by Mrs. Garreau. Marcus Fried, of Vicksburg, now a student at Soule, spent Saturday and Sunday here, the guest of his class-mate, Frank Comfort.

Miss Vivian Comfort will spend Xmas in Meridian, Miss. The Presbyterians will have a Christmas tree at their church on Tuesday December 21. Quite
