CHARTER OF THE SANFORD MANUFACTURING AND REFINING COMPANY, Ltd.

State of Louisiana, Parish of St. Tammany.

Be it known, that on this 10th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-second, personally came and appeared before me, Harvey E. Ellis, a Notary Public in and for the Parish of St. Tammany, State of Louisiana, duly commissioned and qualified, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, the persons whose names are hereto subscribed, all of full age and residents of St. Tammany Parish, La., who declared that, availing themselves of the provisions of all laws of this State relative to the organization of corporations, they have contracted and agreed, and do by these presents mutually contract and agree and bind and obligate themselves, their successors and assigns, as well as each other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation and body politic in law, for the objects and purposes and under the conditions, agreements and stipulations following, which they hereby adopt as their charter:

ARTICLE I. The name and title of said corporation shall be THE SANFORD MANUFACTURING AND REFINING COMPANY, LIMITED, and under said corporate name, it shall have power and authority to have and enjoy succession for the full term and period of ninety-nine years from and after the day and date hereof; to contract, sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal and the same to break or alter at pleasure; to hold, receive, lease, purchase and convey, as well as mortgage and hypothecate, under its corporate name, property, both real and personal; to acquire any and all such property (real and personal); to buy, sell and hold the stocks, bonds and securities of other companies engaged in similar lines of business; to erect all such buildings, machinery, fixtures and appliances and apparatus, and do all such acts and things, as are or may be necessary and proper to carry out the objects and purposes of said corporation.

ARTICLE II. The domicile of said corporation shall be in the Town of Covington, Parish of St. Tammany, in the State of Louisiana, and all citations or other legal process, shall be served on the President of said corporation, or in case of his absence, upon the Vice President, or Secretary thereof.

ARTICLE III. The objects and purpose for which this corporation is established and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are declared and specified to be as follows: To buy, sell, manufacture and refine sugar, molasses, syrup and all the by-products of sugar producing substances, and to do any and all other things incident or pertinent for the promotion and success of the objects and purposes and the business hereinabove stated.

ARTICLE IV. The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of one million dollars, divided into or represented by ten thousand shares of one hundred dollars each, which stock may be issued at not less than par for cash, or in payment or exchange for property or rights actually received or purchased by said corporation, provided that all stock certificates shall be signed by the President and Secretary of said Corporation, and no stock shall be issued unless the consideration therefor has been received by said corporation.

All transfers of stock shall be made on the books of said company at its office at Covington, St. Tammany Parish, La., on the surrender of the certificate therefor.

This corporation shall commence doing business as soon as three thousand dollars of its capital stock shall have been subscribed for.

ARTICLE V. All the corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors composed of three stockholders to be elected annually, on the first Thursday of February, the first election to be held in 1910. At such election each stockholder who may be present in person or by written proxy, shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him, and a majority of votes cast shall elect; and the persons elected at each election shall constitute the Board of Directors for the ensuing term, shall at once take their oaths as such, and shall serve and continue in office until their successors shall have been elected. A failure to elect directors as above provided shall not dissolve the corporation, but the Board of Directors in office at the time of such failure shall continue to act until an election shall be held.

Vacancies occurring in said board from any cause whatsoever, shall be filled by the remaining directors. Two directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business.

The said Board of Directors at its first meeting following the election in each year shall elect from its number a President, a Vice President, and a Secretary, and shall appoint one of said officers to act as Treasurer.

The Board shall also appoint from time to time, and dismiss at pleasure, such officers, clerks, agents and other employees as they may deem necessary for the business and purpose of said corporation, and may make and establish, as well as amend and alter, all by-laws, rules and regulations requisite for the support and management of the business of said company.

Said Board of Directors shall have power and authority to borrow money, execute mortgages, issue notes or bonds, and generally to do all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the objects and purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI. This act of incorporation, or any article in this charter, may be changed, altered or amended, its capital stock may be increased or decreased, or the corporation may be dissolved at a general meeting of the stockholders convened for such purpose, after notice shall have been given by mail; provided the owners of three-fourths of the shares shall vote in favor of such change, alteration, amendment or dissolution, and provided that notice of such changes as may be made in reference to the capital stock shall be given as provided by law, and that no change in the capital stock shall be made except in the manner and on the vote required by law.

ARTICLE VII. The First Board of Directors shall consist of George E. Sanford, John I. Sanford and T. A. Vaughan, of whom George E. Sanford shall be President and Treasurer, T. A. Vaughan, Vice President, and John I. Sanford, Secretary, who shall continue in office until a new Board of Directors are elected, and new officers selected.

ARTICLE VIII. No stockholder shall be held liable or responsible for the contracts or said corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance, if any, due on shares of stock owned by him, nor shall any mere informality in organization have the effect of rendering any stockholder liable beyond the amount due on his stock, or of annulling this charter.

Witnesses: W. A. WHITE, J. V. ROBINSON, GEORGE E. SANFORD, 50 Shares. JOHN I. SANFORD, 1 Share. T. A. VAUGHAN, 1 Share. HARVEY E. ELLIS, Notary Public.

I hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the charter of the SANFORD MANUFACTURING AND REFINING COMPANY, LIMITED, and that same is duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of St. Tammany Parish, La., in Mortgage Book P, page 43-6.
