AN ORDINANCE
 Calling for an election by the property tax payers of the town of Covington, La., for the purpose of authorizing the issuance of bonds in the sum of forty thousand dollars, in accordance with the laws of the State of Louisiana, and the ordinances of the Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Covington, La., said bonds to be secured and retired by a special tax of four mills voted on the 15th day of October, 1906. Said bonds to be for 140 in number, and each for the sum of one thousand dollars, for the purpose of constructing, erecting and maintaining a public school house for school houses, within the town of Covington, La.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Covington, La., in legal session convened, that a special election is hereby ordered to be held in the town of Covington, La., on the 23d day of March, 1909, at which election shall be submitted to the property tax payers of the town of Covington, La., entitled to vote under the laws of the State of Louisiana, the question of issuing negotiable bonds to the amount of forty thousand dollars, for a period of ten years, in pursuance of the debt already incurred by said town council, in an ordinance passed on the 8th day of December, 1906. Said bonds being for the purpose of retiring certain certificates of indebtedness and for the purpose of completing the school house now in the course of construction in the town of Covington, La., said amount not being over 5 per cent. of the assessed valuation of the property situated within the town of Covington, La., and for maintaining public schools, as appears by the last assessment rolls of said town.

Section 2. Be it further ordained, etc., That the question of issuing negotiable bonds, in pursuance of the debt already levied by ordinance dated the 8th day of December, 1906, upon all of the taxable property situated within the town of Covington, La., for a period of ten years, and for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of said bonds, shall be submitted to the people of the town of Covington, La., entitled to vote under the laws of the State of Louisiana, at said election.

Section 3. Be it further ordained, etc., That said bonds shall be for 140 in number, and each for the sum of one thousand dollars.
 That said bonds shall be issued for a period of ten years, beginning on the first day of January, 1909.
 Said bonds shall be drawn payable to bearer and shall be signed by the Mayor in his official capacity, and attested by the signature of the secretary, and each shall have the official seal thereof, and the following words printed on the back:
 This bond, principal and interest, is secured by a special tax of four mills, and by an appropriation of a sufficient amount of sums emanating from other sources to meet the deficit in said special tax.
 They shall all bear interest at the rate of five per centum, from the day of their issuance, and said interest is to be evidenced by coupons attached to said bonds, payable annually at the rate of five per cent.

Section 4. Be it further ordained, etc., That the Town Council of said town of Covington, La., shall have the right to negotiate said bonds, but shall not sell them for less than par.
 Section 5. Be it further ordained, etc., That there shall be set aside out of the revenues arising from the above mentioned special tax, which has already been levied by ordinance dated the 8th day of December, 1906, all sums in excess of the interest on said bonds, which sums to set aside shall constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal of said bonds when due, which funds shall not be drawn out of the treasury for any other purpose, and if said amount is less than the amount of the bonds at their maturity, the Town Council of the Town of Covington shall, from other revenues heretofore provided, make up the deficiency, so that the said sinking fund shall amount to not less than the bond executed and issued under the ordinance, which fund shall not be diverted for any other purpose, or by any other authority.
 Section 6. Be it further ordained, etc., That the said interest on said bonds shall be paid out of the funds arising from the collection of the special tax heretofore mentioned, and the treasurer of the town of Covington, La., shall be and he is hereby authorized to pay any and all coupons that may be due when presented by any bond holder or holder of any of said bonds.

 Section 7. Be it further ordained, etc., That said special election shall be held according to law and at the polling places established by law, and the ballot to be used at said election, shall be of the following form:
 For issuing negotiable bonds in pursuance of the special tax already levied, to the amount of forty thousand dollars, for a period of not less than ten years, for the purpose of constructing, erecting and maintaining a school house or school houses, within the town of Covington, La.
 Every voter shall designate his or her will by stamping the circle opposite the proposition he or she votes.
 Section 8. Be it further ordained, etc., That the Board of Supervisors of Elections of the Parish of St. Tammany, are hereby requested to appoint commissioners and clerks to serve at said polling place, to give due notice of said election, to see that the polls are held at the place of holding said election, and to make their returns of said election to the Mayor of the town of Covington, who shall announce and promulgate the result of said election, according to law.

Section 9. Be it further ordained, etc., That the commissioners of election, shall after being duly sworn, in the presence of the ballots of all of the property tax payers in said town of Covington, La., entitled to vote under the laws of the State of Louisiana, and before depositing same in the ballot box shall endorse thereon, in the presence of said voters, the name of said voter and the amount of the value of his assessed property, and the said commissioners shall make a return of the above mentioned tax already levied within the town of Covington, La.
 Section 10. Be it further ordained, etc., That this ordinance be promulgated in the official journal of the town of Covington, La., for a period of thirty days prior to the date of holding said special election, and that this ordinance shall take effect from and after its promulgation.
 Section 11. Be it further ordained, etc., That the issuance and sale of said bonds, shall be placed under the supervision and control of the Mayor and Town Council of the town of Covington, La., or of any such person as may be specially designated and authorized by the said Mayor and Town Council of the town of Covington, La.
 Moved by E. J. Frederic, seconded by W. A. Blossman that the above ordinance be adopted.
