UAOD

Bogue Falaya Grove, No. 21
Meets on the first and third Thursdays of each month, at 7:30 p. m., in the Masonic building, Covington, La. H. H. SUDUTH, Noble Arch JAKE SEILLER, Secretary.

Call on Hainer, Alford Co., when in Town. They suit for right. We are successors of J. F. Doty.

Cozy Cottage is one of the most conveniently situated in Abita Springs. Terms reasonable and board of the best.

Widow Williams has been appointed postmaster at Payou Lacombe, vice J. J. Cusachs, resigned.

Adjutant General Stafford has issued the commission of H. H. Suduth as Captain of Troop C.

New goods arriving every day. Everything guaranteed as represented at the Hainer, Alford Co.

A negro named Will Robertson, at the North turpentine still, eight miles north of Folsom, became enraged at his wife, shooting and killing her instantly. The negro escaped to swamp, but was captured.

John Farrell, a negro switchman of the N. O. G. N., was killed at Folsom, Tuesday. He was thrown from the train by striking a post, while hanging from the side of the car, his head and one hand being severed. The body was embalmed and shipped to his home.

The double T. G.'s is the name of the new Presbyterian Sunday School organization with Miss Gladys Smith as president, Miss Lela Christopher vice president, Miss Esther Beaucaudray, Secretary.

A dynamite bomb was exploded in the St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans last week. Considerable damage was done, but fortunately no one was injured. A reward has been offered for the apprehension and conviction of the miscreant.

A man claiming to be John Williams, uncle of Avery Blount, at a meeting in the woods before a notary public and several witnesses, with a revolver in each hand to prevent capture, deposed that he was guilty of the murder of the Breclands, for which Blount has been convicted.

Bring your watches, clocks, photographs and jewelry to Hainer, Alford Co., where it will be neatly and quickly repaired.

If you want to feel well, look well and well take Foley's Kidney Remedy. It tones up the kidneys and bladder, purifies the blood and restores health and strength. Pleasant to take and contains no harmful drugs. Why not commence today? Sold by Theo. Strain.

Mayor O. J. Oulliber and Aldermen Homer Perrin, E. N. Heugben, John Dendering, Anthony Koepf and B. T. Goldate were re-elected without opposition, in Madisonville election. Victor Chatterlier was elected Marshal by a large majority.

MARRIED.—Mr. Wm. Canulette and Miss Pearl Martin were married April 28, 1909, at the home of Mr. Joseph Belling, stepfather of the bride. Mr. Canulette is engineer of the Steamer Josie. Mr. and Mrs. Canulette will reside in Claborn.

You don't have to go any further than Schmidt's at Abita, to get the best shoes on the market, Hamilton Brown is his specialty, but he has other kinds if you want them, all first class makes and at prices that are all right. Don't buy until you have examined his stock, or you may find you have lost an opportunity for a bargain.

About 5:15 Tuesday afternoon the residence of E. J. Frederick was thought to be on fire and the alarm sounded. When the firemen reached the scene the dining-room was full of smoke, but no flames could be found. A hole was cut in the roof of a series of pipes and the smoke was the result of a hot-box on an electric fan in which the fuse had been burnt out. Damage about $15.

There is to be an entertainment and ball given by the Abita Mystic Club, at the pavilion at Abita, Saturday, May 15, at 8 o'clock, for the benefit of the pavilion fund. The admission will be 25 cents.

The Mystic Club is a new organization and is composed of citizens interested in building up and progressing Abita, and this is the first of a series of entertainments for that purpose.

The pavilion is an ideal place for dancing and there should be a large crowd in attendance.

Many weak nervous women have been restored health by Foley's Kidney Remedy as it stimulates the waste matter they will eliminate. Impurities depress the nervous, causing nervous exhaustion and other ailments. Commence today and you will soon be well. Pleasant to take. Sold by Theo. Strain.

Delightful Outing.

Last Monday, April 26, the pupils of St. Scholastica's Academy, accompanied by their teachers, enjoyed a most delightful outing to Mandeville. At 9 a. m. the jolly crowd left Covington on the motor cars and returned between 5:15 and 7:30. Every one is loud in acclamations of praise and thanks to kind and generous-hearted Mr. Clay Riggs, who graciously facilitated this pleasant trip. Many thanks are due also to the obliging motormen and the hospitable people of Mandeville for courtesies extended.

Assessor's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the listing of all property situated in the Parish of St. Tammany subject to taxation has been completed and estimated valuation made thereof by me, in accordance with law, and that said list will be exposed at my office in the courthouse, in the town of Covington, for inspection and correction, for a term of twenty days, beginning after ten days from the first publication hereof. WARREN THOMAS, Assessor, Parish of St. Tammany, Covington, La., May 1, 1909.

GOV. JARED Y. SANDERS.

Slidell Department

EDITED BY MRS. M. MCDANIEL.

Mr. Eng. Ray, of New Orleans, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Miss Katie Geish, of New Orleans, spent Sunday here the guest of her brother, Harry Geish.

Mr. Chas. Swinson was a visitor here Sunday after an eight months spent in Houston, Texas.

The Memory family have removed to New Orleans, to the regret of their many friends here.

A class of men will receive Holy Communion in the Catholic Church, Sunday next at 7 a. m.

Rev. A. Finch preached at Purvis Sunday last.

Rev. J. M. Williams was a visitor here Sunday.

Miss Janie Pechon, of Bonfouca, La., was a visitor here Tuesday.

Dr. De Ballard was a New Orleans visitor Monday.

E. Elmo Bollinger visited Covington on business Tuesday.

Miss Carmen of the Crescent City, spent Thursday here as the guest of Miss Gladys Liddle.

Miss Viola Memory is to resign her position as assistant Postmistress May 1. She will be succeeded by Miss Anna V. Beck. Miss Memory has held this position some time and by her kindness and sweet disposition has won the esteem of all who know her. It is with regret we learn of her resignation. Miss Memory expects to go to New Orleans to take a civil service course. We all join in wishing her every success possible.

Mrs. B. P. Danham and children are to leave in the near future to spend the summer in Texas.

Mrs. C. Ciruti is on the sick list at present.

Mr. E. Dorby is recovering from his recent illness.

An early morning blaze occurred Saturday. The kitchen attached to a cottage owned by F. Dubuisson and occupied by R. L. Beck caught fire from the stove. For a while it was thought the entire house would burn, however, willing hands lent assistance and the blaze was soon extinguished with slight damage.

Mrs. J. L. Newman and son Marion spent the past week in New Orleans, where Mrs. Newman attended the marriage of her sister, Miss Lura Hasling.

Wednesday was "Tag Day" at the public school here. Every one wore a tag on a smile.

Mr. E. Lott is the charming guest of Mrs. J. F. Polk.

Mrs. P. H. Guthrie returned to Pearl River, Sunday, after a pleasant visit to friends here.

Mr. A. Dubourg was a Mandeville visitor Sunday.

Mr. L. Newman and son Marion spent the past week in New Orleans, where Mrs. Newman attended the marriage of her sister, Miss Lura Hasling.

Miss Lillian Benson has tendered her resignation as teacher in the public school and will leave in the near future for Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Mary Parker, teacher of the Aiton school, spent Wednesday here on route to her home in Charlton, Miss. Miss Parker reported a great increase in pupils in the Aiton school. During the last session they had an average attendance of seventy pupils. Better accommodations are very much in demand.

The funeral of little Nelioise Solberger, age three months, took place here Wednesday 28, from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Solberger on College Ave. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

Dr. and Mrs. P. R. Outlaw entertained a number of little children Saturday, April 24, in honor of the 2d birthday of their little daughter, Alice Moter Outlaw. A number of little tots were present and all enjoyed themselves immensely. We join in wishing the little Miss many happy returns of the day.

A two-weeks revival is being conducted at the Methodist Church. Rev.

Dr. Sawyer is conducting the revival, assisted by Rev. T. V. Peters. Quite a number of members have joined. The church is crowded daily. Evening services take place at 8:30 and 8 p. m. Great interest is being manifested in every way.

Next week we will submit an account of the Convention of Old Maids, which was held here April 29.

Miss Josie Williams, of Aiton, was a visitor here Wednesday.
