Nature's own Sanitarium for sufferers from Catarrh, Asthma, Rheumatism, Gout and Brights Disease. A Sure Balm for the Overworked Body Needing Rest.

LOCATION. Just north of Lake Pontchartrain, in the heart of a great pine forest, on the banks of the beautiful Bogue Falaya river, is the quaint and beautiful town of Covington, long since made famous as the one place in all the world that never has, and never will, quarantine against yellow fever and other dread diseases. HEALTH.—So pure is the air in this favored region that the most malignant diseases do not propagate, but, on the contrary, are arrested and give way to its healing balm. Thousands of people annually come here to rest and recuperate from overwork and to find health, and in a few weeks return to their homes with a new lease on life. HOTELS.—So great has been the influx of people seeking pleasure and health that local capital has erected and equipped the modern and up-to-date Southern Hotel, where every convenience and comfort is afforded the tourist and health seeker. There are also many first class small hotels and large boarding houses, where health seekers can secure accommodations at reasonable rates. GOOD ROADS invite wholesome recreation for those who enjoy a ride through picturesque woods. FISHING in the Bogue Falaya and Tchefuncta rivers is good, and fine strings of green-picturesque trout, bass and perch are caught. BOATING on the rivers and nearby Lake Pontchartrain is ideal, and the open weather affords fine opportunity for all outdoor sports. CHEAP LANDS offer ideal opportunities for persons of small means to embark in the dairy or truck business, for which this section has long been famous, and which return such large dividends to the farmer. TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES to the great central west and eastern produce markets are the very best, and the freight rates are all that could be desired. On account of many natural advantages several large EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS have been located here, and with the modern public school system offer ideal facilities along this line, which, taken with its numerous CHURCHES and social life, makes this an attractive town to live in. The RICH CLAY DEPOSITS of this section offer ideal opportunities for business investments that should be investigated.
