ST. TAMMANY ENTERPRISE.

A Local Concern That Has Outbid Concerns in Chicago, New York, Texas and Other Places.

The following letter speaks for itself. Nearly everybody knows the W. H. Kentzel printing house of Covington, but there are perhaps few of the merchants and professional men who have taken the trouble to investigate as to the fact that this house is turning out work in competition with the best printing concerns in the country, both in price and quality. The Kentzel printing house is deserving of credit for its enterprise and up-to-dateness, and is entitled to the appreciation and patronage of the people:

Mr. W. Kentzel, Covington, La.
Dear Sir—Relative to the order for one hundred thousand bill heads which we have been getting a price on, we beg to say that after we have gone over the various quotations, which we received from Chicago, Texas, New York and many places in Louisiana, we find that your prices are the lowest, we therefore ask that you get us out as quickly as possible one hundred thousand bill heads as per enclosed.

Remain Yours Truly,
Covington Grocery and Grain Co.
E. J. DOMERGUE.

THE OSSNING NOW READY

The Fast Little Steamer of the St. Tammany Steamship Co. Overhauled.

In purchasing the Ossning the St. Tammany Steamship Company secured one of the best boats possible for the trade, but a series of unfortunate occurrences have prevented her giving the service she is capable of, and some difficulty has been experienced in maintaining schedule time. Salt water getting into the boilers has caused considerable trouble. We understand that she has been completely overhauled and placed in first-class condition. A new engineer, Mr. Chas. Delroix, who is second to none in standing, will take charge of the engine room, and being one of the fastest boats, that has ever been put in the lake trade, she should now give perfect satisfaction and prove a great convenience to those who are fond of a ride on the water and wish to make regular trips across the lake for the sake of the beautiful and delightful excursions, which are both cheap and healthful.

The boat will leave Houltouville at 5 a. m. and Mandeville at 6:25 a. m. Returning, she will leave Houltouville at 3 p. m. and Mandeville at 4:15 p. m. She will leave West End at 9 a. m. and 6:35 p. m.

PARTY AT GOODBEE.
A musical was held on Tuesday evening at the country home of Mrs. J. P. Mohr, "Tanglewood," on the Tchoufouctia river, which was the first held out in the woods. Mr. Robert Stanga lent his assistance with a phonograph, entertaining with many fine operas and ballads. Among the contribution to the evening pleasures was a medley sung by Messrs. Chris Dutch and John Porter; song by Mr. B. Mercia; song, "Roses," by Miss Emily Eschenbrenner; song, "How-Worm," Miss Vera Mohr; song, "Good Old U. S. A.," Miss Phirby Bennett; duet, "My Old Kentucky Home," by Miss E. Eschenbrenner and Miss Vera Mohr. The singing was enjoyed very much.

Mrs. J. P. Mohr, Misses A. Mohr and V. Fuhrmann Messrs. Richard, Ernest, August and Sidney Fuhrmann and P. Nusmann. The concert wound up with a watermelon party in the basement. After parting at 12 o'clock midnight, the young ladies all of whom remained at the house for the night, were serenaded by a quartette of young men with the song "Good-Night," which was answered by all the young ladies from the balcony with "Good-Luck Mary."

This entertainment, which was greatly enjoyed by all, we hope is only a forerunner of many more which the young people of Goodbee will give in the future.

MADISONVILLE NOTES.

KOPPENOL-HOOVER.
The marriage of Miss Annie E. Hoover to Mr. Harry J. Koppennol was celebrated on Wednesday, Aug. 10, at 10:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride, in the presence of the immediate family and closest friends. The bride, who was given to be married by her father, Mr. T. Hoover, was lovely in a dainty lingerie gown combined with baby Irish and valenciennes. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She was preceded by two of the daintiest little ring bearers an art could dress. The little maidens were Myrtle and Marie Galatas, cousins of the bride. The bridesmaid, Miss Beulah Hoover, wore a very becoming lingerie gown. The groom was accompanied by his best man, Mr. J. Hoover. Rev. Ottmar Bliel performed the ceremony under a horseshoe of flowers. The dining room and hall were embellished with ferns and flowers where the dainty refreshments were served.

Among the beautiful presents was a huge wedding cake presented to them by Mayor O. Oulliber and Mr. E. Galatas.

At two o'clock in the afternoon the bride changed her costume for a pretty traveling dress, and the happy couple left, midat a saunter of rice, on the steamer New Camella for New Orleans, where they will spend a short time. On their return they will reside in their cozy home, which has been expensively furnished.
