ORDINANCE NO.

An ordinance relative to the collection of delinquent taxes due the town of Covington for the years 1907, 1908, and 1909, and providing for the collection of same.

WHEREAS, it appears from the assessment rolls and other records in the office of the secretary and tax collector of the town that various property owners have failed to pay the taxes due on said property for the years 1907, 1908, and 1909, as well as the special tax for the erection of the public school house; and whereas the finances of the town have thereby been curtailed and many public needs have in consequence thereof gone unprovided for, now therefore Section 1. Be it ordained by the town Council of the town of Covington, in regular session convened, that the tax collector of the town of Covington is hereby instructed, empowered, and authorized to proceed to the collection of all delinquent taxes due the town of Covington for the years 1907, 1908, and 1909, as per assessment rolls of the town for said respective years; that previous to proceeding to collect said delinquent taxes, he shall notify all delinquent tax payers to come forward and pay the taxes due by them for the years 1907, 1908, and 1909, or any one or all of said years, within twenty days from date of said notice. Said notice shall be in writing and addressed to the delinquent tax payer, and shall show the amount of assessment and amount of taxes due for each of said years. Said notice shall be served by said tax collector on the delinquent tax payer by registered mail, addressed to the last known address of said tax payer.

Section 2. Be it further ordained, etc., that after the expiration of said twenty days notice, or as soon thereafter as practicable, counting from the day when last of said notices are mailed, the tax collector shall proceed to advertise for sale the consolidated delinquent tax list under one form, as provided for judicial sales, all the property on which the taxes are due, in the form and in the manner as now provided by law for the collection, advertisement and sale of property of delinquent state tax payers, for the non-payment of state and parish taxes.

together with the registry receipts, which list shall be certified to by him as correct and shall be filed in the office of the secretary of the town, and shall be proof of the service of said notice.

Section 4. Be it further ordained, etc., that this ordinance shall go into effect immediately after its promulgation, and after the tax collector shall give notice by publication in the official journal of the town, calling the attention of all the delinquent tax payers and others to the provisions of this ordinance, and notifying them that he will enforce its provisions within ten days after its promulgation.

Section 5. Be it further ordained, etc., that the tax collector shall be entitled to collect from said delinquent tax payer the sum of twenty-five cents as costs of said notice and service thereof; and he shall keep an alphabetical list of all delinquent tax payers so notified by him.

Adopted August 1, 1910.
F. MARRERO, Mayor.
N. M. HEBERT, JR., Secretary.

L. B. Penton vs. W. M. Smith.

Fifth Ward Justice Court, St. Tammany Parish, State of Louisiana.
