THE BOLL WEEVIL.
Mr. Lunn has brought from his place, a few miles from Covington, a matured cotton plant that illustrates the ravages of the boll weevil. The plant is about 6 1/2 feet high and is otherwise perfectly healthy. Only a few bolls remain in an unaffected condition. The top branches are completely deprived of its bolls, they having dropped off by reason of the ravages of the insect. He says that his whole field is affected in this way.

CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED.
Farmers and parties operating corn shellers having shelled corn for sale in car lots. R. F. CLERCQ, 323 Board of Trade Place, New Orleans, La. Sept 10-30d.

If you wish to enter the contest on the 20th inst write to the superintendent at once for blanks and give the names of three of your neighbors who will act as a committee to measure your plot and corn.
H. B. MESSICK, Superintendent

FOR BUILDING ROADS.
"Everywhere that sand and clay are available," said a thoughtful man the other day, "the farmers ought to start a campaign this summer in behalf of sand-clay roads. In all such communities no cheaper way of bettering the highways can possibly be found. Last year I went through a county where the roads had not been improved. This year I went back and found that sand-clay roads had been made, and I could hardly realize that I was in the same community."—Progressive Farmer and Gardette.

Jones, of Memphis, was shot and probably fatally wounded by his wife while standing on a crowded thoroughfare here early to-night. They Have a Definite Purpose.
Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief in cases of kidney and bladder ailments. Mrs. Rose Glaser, Terre Haute, Ind., tells the result in her case. "After suffering for many years from a serious case of kidney trouble and spending much money for so-called cures, I found Foley for so-called cures, I found Foley for so-called cures, I found Foley for so-called cures. I am glad to say I have a permanent cure. I am glad to say I have a permanent cure. I am glad to say I have a permanent cure."—I shall never hesitate to recommend them. Sold by Theo. Strain & Son.
