A CARD.

Words cannot express our appreciation of those friends who have shared with us the lonely vigils by the bedside of our loved one. No sweeter memory can live in our hearts than the memory of their untiring devotion to the one who has just left us. Waves of sorrow break upon every shore, and we can but hope that friends as true may gather about each of them when sorrows involve their homes.

GOOD CANE SYRUP IN CANS. NEW CALENDARS.

We extend thanks to Mr. Jos. J. Schack for a gallon can of excellent pure cane syrup. The idea of putting it up in gallon tins we think is an excellent one. In this shape the syrup keeps perfectly fresh until it is used, while in barrels fermentation usually takes place.

The Farmer has received a very pretty calendar for Mrs. M. McDaniel, of the dry goods and notions house of Slidell. It represents a basket full of lilacs and ferns, behind the bunches of lilacs are the calendar months, exposed on pushing the lilacs aside.
