After the performance the chairs were cleared and dancing became the amusement of the evening. The diamond ring was won by Mr. Lutze. A peculiar thing about it is that Miss Edna Lacroix, the charming daughter of the late Louis Lacroix, had entered the contest for the ring some time ago, but the Carnival Klub having called the contest off, Miss Lacroix was given a suitable prize in consideration of the interest she had taken in the contest. When Mr. Lutze bought his rickety watch one evening he remarked to Miss Lacroix "If I win the ring you shall have it." He won it and Miss Lacroix has the ring.

A part of the performance that delighted the audience and that deserves special mention was the Selection Dance from Madam Sherry, by little Aris Mercadet. She was self-possessed and the very embodiment of grace and ease and won the hearts of everybody.

Thanks are due to Mrs. Sydney Proce, Mrs. J. L. Watkins, Mrs. F. L. Marzoo, Mrs. W. A. White, Mrs. Max Loyd and Mrs. Jas. Mally, in charge of the refreshments stand, and Messrs. Frank Norman, George Menetre and Leon Hebert, in charge of the punch bowl, and to the ladies who furnished cakes, etc.

Special thanks are due to Mrs. B. W. Warren and Mrs. Preston Burns for their assistance in getting the children together and seeing them properly costumed. Those who took part in the performance not only have the thanks of the Carnival Klub, but of the public who enjoyed their performances.

The Carnival Klub is grateful to all who in any way assisted in making the affair a success. The gross receipts were $335.57. Net door receipts, $65.91; net receipts from refreshments, $344.65; net receipts from the ring, $69.30; net receipts from program, $23.00.

H. B. MERSICK, Supt.

THE TELEPHONE GIRL.

The telephone girl sits still in her chair and listens to voices from everywhere. She hears all the gossip, she hears all the news; she knows who is happy and who has the blues; she knows all our sorrows, she knows all our joys; she knows every girl who is chasing the boys; she knows of our troubles, and she knows every man who is mean to his wife; she knows every time we are out with the boys; she hears the excuses each fellow employs; she knows every woman who has a dark secret; she knows every man who is inclined to be fast; in fact, there's a secret 'neath each saucy curl of that demure looking telephone girl. If the telephone girl would tell all she knows, it would turn half our friends into bitterest foes. She would become a gale, engulf us in trouble and land us in jail; she would let go a story which (gaining in force) would cause half our wives to sue for divorce; she could get all the churches mixed up in a fight and all our days into sorrowing night; in fact, she could keep the whole town in a stew. If she'd tell the tenth part of the things that she knew, now doesn't it make you head simply whirl when you think what you owe to the telephone girl? —Walt Whitman.

ST. TAMMANY NOTES.

One of the social events of the past week was the party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Crow, Saturday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Refreshments were served. Everybody went home wishing Mr. and Mrs. Crow would entertain again soon.

Mrs. J. T. Keller spent the day Saturday in Covington.

Mrs. Daniels and two sons, of Lacombe, were here Sunday evening. Misses Viola and Ruby Keller and Lorena Ezell enjoyed a drive to Clifton Hill, Sunday evening.

Mr. Ralph Miller, of Mandeville, was the guest of Miss M. Sticker, Sunday.

Mr. Max Lamers, of Abita Springs, spent a few days here last week. Messrs. H. Ezell and J. Powe, of Slidell, spent the day here Sunday. Mr. Berry Todd, of Lacombe, was here on business last week.

Mr. Jas. Constant spent two days in the Crescent City and returned Wednesday.

Mr. W. Lancaster spent Wednesday in Mandeville, selling lots. The musicale of Mrs. Marie Dyer's pupils had to be postponed to the 9th of September on account of a halt given the same day.

Mr. W. Tract is still lingering in our midst, to the delight of his many friends. The meeting of the bridge committee was a grand affair. Mandeville was crowded from one end of the town to the other. The platform was decorated most artistically and presented a beautiful sight. Miss Mildred Smith, the charming daughter of Mr. John L. Smith, is to be complimented for her skill, as well as for her taste. Mr. Alphonse Depre also worked in assisting Miss Smith.

The speaking of the gentlemen from New Orleans aroused enthusiasm and cheers. Let us hope that their efforts will not prove in vain and all together will work in making the cause a success. Bouquets were presented to Mayor Behrman, of New Orleans, and to Mr. Garland by little Miss Adrienne Picton, who delivered them in the name of the ladies of Mandeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Livandals, of Galveston, Texas, are spending their vacation with their aunt, Mrs. Demaree.

Messrs. Beaucoudray and Hardy Smith attended the bridge meeting Wednesday.

Mrs. Augusta Hopkins passed through our city Wednesday en route to Raceland, Louisiana, estate of H. Harteau.
