Angell, whose postoffice address is 113 St. Charles street, New Orleans, Louisiana, did, on the 12th day of December, 1910, file in this office sworn statement and application, No. 03280, to purchase the northeast quarter of southeast quarter, section 19, township 7 S., range 12 E., St. Helena Meridian, and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the "Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisement, and that, pursuant to such application,

CHARLESTON STORMSWEEP

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 28, Via Somerville, S. C.—Seven persons known to be dead, many injured and property damage of more than $1,000,000 seems to be the sum total of the damage wrought by the terrific storm which struck Charleston Sunday afternoon, isolating that city from the rest of the world.

The dead: W. H. Smith, Columbia, drowned under falling wharf. Motorman Cutter, drowned. Ida Robinson, crushed by roof. Rosa Robinson, crushed by roof. Alonzo J. Coburn, engineer, killed by flying timber.

Eva Myers, drowned. Tom Dooly, drowned.

In addition to the above the Cassidy family, number unknown, and the caretaker of the Wahoo Phosphate Works, are missing and are believed to have been drowned.

Great relief was felt when it was learned late to-day that the people on Sullivan's Island were all safe, having been taken off by the ferry-boat Lawrence, which tied up over night at the Mount Pleasant wharf. The harbor is filled with wreckage of small boats, schooners and launches, many piers are washed away along the water front, and in the city the streets are strewn with fallen trees, roots, fences and other debris. Among the principal buildings damaged are the Custom-house, postoffice, St. Michael's Church and the Wahoo fertilizer mills, which were practically ruined. The street car, electric, telephone and fire alarm systems are entirely out of commission.

All trains to-night are leaving the city from the old depot, the new station being entirely under water. The Southern Railway officials expect to resume regular schedules to-morrow, but no mail trains were operated in or out of the city to-day.

At the height of the storm the wind reached a velocity of ninety-four miles an hour, while the tide rose eight feet or more at the battery in front of the city. Beaufort and Port Royal Cut Off, Augusta, Ga., Aug. 28.—Beaufort and Port Royal are entirely cut off from the rest of the world by telegraph or train service. Nothing could be heard from any point beyond Yemassee to-day, and no trains have been able to cross the Coosa River since Sunday night. At 4:30 this afternoon, according to news received here, the winds were still raging and further damage may result if the wind continues high, unless the tides come in at midnight.

Has Millions of Friends.

How would you like to number your friends by millions as Bucklen's Arnica Salve does? Its astounding cures in the past forty years made them. Its the best salve in the world for sores, ulcers, eczema, burns, boils, scalds, cuts, corns, sore eyes, sprains, swellings, bites, cold sores. Has no equal for piles. 25c at all druggists.

The land and timber thereon have been appraised $169.44, the timber estimated 17,910 board feet at $1.50 per M., and the land $50.04; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 25th day of October, 1911, before clerk of court, at Covington, Louisiana.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.
