CHANGE IN SCHEDULE.
 The St. Tammany Railway and Ferry Company have made the following changes in their schedule:
 In the afternoon they will run their cars every two hours instead of every hour, viz: Leaving Covington, 12:30, 2:30, 4:30 and 6:30; leaving Mandeville at 1:30, 3:30, 5:30 and 7:30.
 There has been no change in the morning schedule.

THE FIRE MARSHAL'S PLEA.
 To the Citizens of Louisiana:
 It is a time-honored and beautiful custom of the American people to celebrate in a fitting manner the anniversary of memorable events in their history to inculcate patriotism, to instill civic righteousness, and to teach lessons of citizenship.
 In harmony with this practice and in appreciation of the inestimable good resulting from such celebrations, the National Fire Marshal's Association has designated Monday, October 9, 1911, the anniversary of the Great Chicago fire, as "Fire Prevention Day," to bring home to the people of the country the direful calamities of such dread disasters and to urge careful co-operation with the fire prevention authorities in minimizing the possibilities of fire.
 The press is therefore, invoked to direct the attention of the people of the state to the date fixed, and to appeal to them to celebrate the day by a general cleaning up of all debris, trash, waste paper, chimneys, heating apparatus, etc., upon their premises, thereby, reducing fire hazard.
 Teachers, private, public and parochial, may perform a highly valuable public service by urging their charges through short talks to recognize the day and celebrate it in a manner prescribed by the National Fire Marshal's Association in their landable and energetic efforts toward fire prevention. Let us celebrate the day, reduce fire risks, and thus, help ourselves as well as our communities.
 Very respectfully,
 B. P. SULLIVAN,
 Fire Marshal.

ABITA SPRINGS NOTES.
 Mr. Herman Mendow was married in Memphis, Tenn., on Thursday, September 21, 1911.

Mendow-Lucas.
 Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 21, 1911.
 St. Mary's Church was the scene of a pretty, yet quiet wedding, this morning at 7 o'clock, when Miss May Lucas and Mr. Herman Mendow were married by Rev. Father Honoratins O. F. M. Palms and ferns were prettily arranged on the altar. The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of dark blue cloth, with hat to match, with which she carried a white prayer book. Miss Ivy Neriman was bridesmaid. She wore a pretty white tailored suit, with which she wore a white hat. Mr. John Jordan acted as best man. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to only the members of the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Mendow left for a honeymoon trip to Chattanooga, Atlanta and other points. Upon their return they will be at home to friends at 630 Mosby street.

MANDEVILLE NOTES.

Miss Corine Smith, with Misses Sebastian and Estorge, attended the performance at Bogue Falaya Park last Friday night.
 Mrs. Casse visited Mandeville last Wednesday.

Mr. Bagur spent Wednesday in Mandeville.
 W. Lancaster was in Mandeville on Wednesday in the interest of his land sales.

Mrs. Crozat is spending the early fall in our midst.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ducros are guests of Mrs. Crozat.

Among our visitors from Abita were Mrs. Summer and charming daughter, Clara, and son, Victor. Miss Clara was one of the pupils of Mrs. Dyer, who won great applause for the reciting of her musical piece, "Music on the Ocean." This young student returned home with a medal as a prize.

Misses Irene, Louise and Adrienne Pictou returned to New Orleans to attend school.
 Mr. P. W. Pictou was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Givens, Sunday.

Mrs. Comlet and family, of Algiers, will spend the month of October in Mandeville. They are pleasantly located in Mrs. Walter's cottage.
 Mr. and Mrs. James Givens, after spending a week as guests of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Givens, returned to Slidell last Sunday.

Mr. M. Favrot and son, spent Wednesday in the Crescent City.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. David visited the Crescent City Wednesday, business and pleasure combined.
 Prof. Robinson, principal of the Mandeville school, is a guest of Mrs. Kern.

Among the many social events of this week was the marriage of Miss Ruth Bisell to Mr. Henry Glockner. The marriage ceremony was early in the morning at a nuptial mass at the Catholic church, Father Roth officiating. From 5 o'clock in the morning a crowd gathered at the church to witness such a wedding, not being customary to marry that early at holy mass and both taking holy communion. The blessings will follow them in their journey through life. All join in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

Another marriage which happened Tuesday evening was that of Mr. Gus Smith and Miss Edna Smith. The young couple left for Gulfport, Miss., the same evening. The good wishes of their friends follow them.

It seems that Mandeville is always on the alert, either for weddings or soirees. One given by Mrs. Emile Dubourg at the home of Mrs. Robert Wise was very pretty, the occasion being the birthday of little Ruby Dubourg. Mrs. Dubourg, assisted by Mrs. Wise and Miss Cahill, spared no pains to make the occasion one for the friends who honored Ruby by their presence. Many presents were given. Refreshments were, ice cream, lemonade. Dancing was kept up till late in the evening. Among those present were: Irene, Louise and Adrienne Pictou, of Algiers; Victor, the Menant, Lydia and Leona Schaffer, Iona Peter, Alice Esquinance, Norman and Adolph Dubourg, Edna Toomer, Celine Smith, Florence Tricot, Earl and Geo. Golden, Robert Wise, Ruffin, Alfred and Rene Dubourg. The little ones departed Tuesday for another birthday to take place soon.

Miss Lily Glockner spent Wednesday in New Orleans.
 The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wise received invitations to the birthday party of their twin daughters, Lizzie and Kate, to take place this week.

The Catholic school will open the first Monday in October. A great many people are waiting for the opening to send their children.
 Mrs. Marie Dyer spent Tuesday in Abita, attending to her music class in that place.

List of guests at Mugnier Hotel, Sept. 29:
 Jos. L. Rolling, Hy. J. Weber, E. C. Jhanks, L. Carriere, New Orleans; P. E. Payne, E. B. Pickenning, W. Welch, Tylertown, Miss.; L. T. Jamin, Jr., New Orleans; Mrs. K. V. Bonn, Peru, Ind.; E. J. Frederick, M. P. Planche, Covington; M. H. Hoffman, Jr., New Orleans; Geo. Thompson and wife, Algiers; H. H. Hargrove, Baton Rouge; B. Desportes and daughter, Gretna; Henry Rand, Westgrove; Jos. Vamp and sister, Gretna; William Sancho, Alma, Atmea, Randall, Harold Legaal, Jas. J. Legaal, Gilden Tanney, New Orleans; M. G. Harris, Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Leocadie Gardache announces to the public that she is ready to receive orders for wreaths, emblems, crosses or anything pertaining to decorations of tombs for All Saints Day. Either delivered or at her place of business on Carroll Avenue, opposite the St. Tammany Bank. Prices, moderate, and to suit all.

Attacks School Principal.
 A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvan, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50 c at all druggists.

Mr. Henry Gonzales, of Bogalusa, spent Monday here.
 Mr. Harold E. Middleton spent Sunday in Mandeville with relatives.

Misses Cora, Christine and Annie May Magee, of Forest, Miss., are visiting here as the guests of their sister, Mrs. E. McDaniel.
 Miss Ella Salmen returned home last week, after many months absence.

Dr. Griffith has the sympathy of his many friends in the death of his fine horse.
 Miss Enola O'Rourke will leave shortly for the Toure Infirmary to take up the study of a trained nurse.
 Miss Edna Dickerson, of New Orleans, is visiting Miss Gladys Martin.

Misses Ada Dabbs, of Tittman, Miss., and Ida Louise Williams, of Meridian, will witness the Martin-Eddins wedding.
 Quite a number of the boys went fox hunting Wednesday and brought back a large opossum.

Miss J. Keller will leave soon to take up the study of a trained nurse at the New Orleans Presbyterian Hospital.
 Mrs. Hazelwood, of Meridian, Miss., is the guest of Mrs. W. A. Martin.

Mrs. Dorris Hurry, of New Orleans, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Lacroix.
 Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy, Jr., have moved to Pearl River, La., where they are conducting a hotel. We wish them success.

Mr. Sebastian moved his family to Slidell. They are located in Salmen town and are welcomed in our midst.
 Mrs. J. H. Guthrie, of Pearl River, spent Thursday here as the guest of Mrs. M. McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holly will leave shortly to make their home at McComb City, Miss., to the regret of their many friends.
 W. E. Gause spent Thursday in New Orleans.

Mrs. H. J. Willis, of Pearl River, spent Wednesday as the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Polk.
 Miss Marceline O'Flinn and Miss Amelia Cornibé spent the week-end in New Orleans as the guest of Miss Cornibé's aunt.

A wave of sorrow passed over the community here on learning of the sad death of young Mr. Dudley White near Poplarville, Miss. Mr. White was a signal engineer and was killed accidentally while at his post of duty. It seems the young man was running his motor-cycle at full speed when a calf crossed the track just in front of the rapid moving car, causing such a terrific collision that the young man was thrown quite a distance and was injured internally.

Mr. White was picked up by the south bound express and conveyed to Slidell where every effort was made to check the dreadful hemorrhages, but to no avail. The train physicians endeavored to restore him at least to consciousness or taking him to the hospital in New Orleans. Every effort proved futile as death relieved the sufferer before they reached the city. Mr. White was well known and very popular here, and stationed in this town with the block signal crew. A boy of splendid habits that any mother would be proud to call "son." Kind and gentle with the aged, polite, merry and full of life and happiness. No wonder so many bright eyes grew dim when learning of his death. Mr. White's parents live at Carthage, Miss. He leaves a father, mother and two sisters, he being the only boy in the family. Death is always sad, but more so when the young and happy are called; when life seems to be like a rosy path before them and their future appears so bright. In those cases death is indeed saddest. However, "God in His great wisdom does all things well."

SOCK AND HANDKERCHIEF SHOWER GREAT SUCCESS.
 The sock and handkerchief shower given by the young people of Slidell Wednesday night in honor of Mr. T. Eddins, was a great success. We believe that Mr. Eddins will have no excuse for buying either socks or handkerchiefs for some time to come. Mrs. Dunham, as hostess, made every one feel at home.

Dr. Griffith, especially, looked very cute in deed in his cap of mosquito netting, lace and ribbons, and we are sure all of the ladies were simply wild about him. Anyway, they ought to be. Those present were as follows: Misses Wood, O'Rourke, Martin, Davis, Moore, Bourgeois, Everitt, Comfort, Mrs. Tippin, Mrs. Hazelwood, Miss Dickerson, and last but not least Miss R. L. Smith, of Creosville, La. Messrs. Hooper, Comford, Woodruff, Langston, W. Eddins, T. J. Eddins, Carpenter, S. Solberger, Bollinger, Lawrence, Babb, Fields, Dr. Griffith, H. Bourgeois, Redwood, A. W. Smith, Tiffin and Williams.

Many of the gentlemen wore wedding bells, and we trust they may wear real ones at no distant date. Refreshments were served, and greatly appreciated by all present. In closing, let us say that the sock and handkerchief shower was an innovation of its kind, and we sincerely hope that many more of our young men will follow Mr. Eddin's example.

SHOWER FOR MISS MARTIN.
 At the home of Miss Gladys Martin, a most interesting evening, a prenuptial linen shower was given in honor of Miss Gladys Willie Martin, by the members of the Philathea class of the Baptist Sunday School. This is the third occasion of like character which this class has had the pleasure of giving to its members, thus showing their love and esteem for one another. At this shower sociability reigned supreme, and many nice and useful presents were showered upon Miss Martin. The decorations were in yellow and white. Refreshments were served upon tables on the spacious porches of the Little home. Mrs. Neuhauer, the teacher of the class expressed the sentiments of all that happiness, peace and prosperity follow Miss Martin through this life.

Among those present were: The following members of the Philathea class: Misses Gladys Martin, Edna Dickson, Ella Salmen, Vivian Comford, Beulah Bourgeois, Byrl Travis, G. Travis, Dona Everitt, Gladys Liddle, Mary Welsh, Florence Moore, Meta Moore, Mae Shockett, Semple, Myra Hays and Beryl Gazan, Amelia Sauer, also Mesdames W. A. Martin, W. Hazelwood, J. F. Polk, H. J. Willis, E. F. Hardee, P. Gardner, E. E. Bollinger, F. Salmen, B. P. Dunham, Sloan, Travis, Will Everitt, M. Everitt, Blackwell, C. M. Liddle, U. G. Neuhauer and son, Fritz.

FACIANE-PICHON.
 Married, Wednesday September 27, 1911, at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church, at 8:30 a. m., Miss Venerie B. Faciane and Mr. L. Pichon. Both of this parish. Miss Faciane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Faciane. The marriage took place at Holy Mass, the Rev. Bernard Keating officiating. The little church was tastefully decorated with ferns, roses and lilies. Long before the appointed hour the church was crowded to the doors. The bride, a petit brunette, was handsomely gowned in white satin and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and lilies. She wore the usual veil of illusion. After the marriage ceremony was over, the guests repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, where a bountiful dinner was served. We extend heartiest good wishes to the happy couple and trust that their bark will sail smoothly o'er the seas of life.

DIED.
 At Slidell, La., Thursday Sept. 28, 1911, Mrs. John Luther, aged 76 years, a native of Moss Point, Miss. Mrs. Luther has been a resident of this parish for the past twenty years. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. M. Crawford, and three sons, E. C. and Jean Luther, all of this parish. Mrs. Luther was a life-long member of the Methodist Church; a very devoted christian, a gentle and devoted mother. We extend our deepest sympathy to her children who will sadly miss the quiet christian influence and mother-love
