A very interesting event this week was the marriage of Miss Christine Dubuisson to Mr. Eugene Seymour Dubuisson on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The bride looked lovely, gowned all in white. Her only attendant was Miss Camille Dubuisson, sister of the groom.

The bride-groom awaited the coming of his bride with his best man, Mr. Frank Dubuisson, brother of the bride. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, where a lovely evening was spent. The bridal couple were accompanied by numerous and handsome presents. They will reside in Slidell.

Mrs. Mabel Cleveland, of Meridiana, is here as the guest of her parents.

One of the most prominent social events of the season was the marriage of Miss Marie Anne Dubuisson to Mr. J. L. Gells, which took place Sunday evening, in the presence of a very large assemblage at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church.

The little church was more beautiful by the elaborate decorations of palms and ferns grouped with flowers embellishing the altar that was ablaze with candles. The wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Marie Garcia, announced the entrance of the bridal party. The bride's only attendant was Miss Florence Guzman, who was very beautifully gowned in white. She carried a great cluster of white carnations. The bride was accompanied to the altar by her father who gave her to be married, and the bride-groom awaited her coming with his best man, Mr. Paul Corbise. The bride looked beautiful gowned in white, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The veil was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bernard Keating. A reception immediately followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents where a pleasant evening was spent. The bridal couple were the recipients of numerous presents. They will reside in Slidell.
