Miss Mae Poole returned Sunday after a week's visit to friends in New Orleans.

Messrs. M. E. Comeaux and Alfred Durand visited relatives in Covington Sunday.

Secretary W. B. Wilson, of the Sunday School Association for Rhode Island, is announced to give an address at the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. You are cordially invited to come and bring your friends.

The Trials of a Traveler.

"I am a traveling saleswoman," writes E. E. Young, E. Berkshire, Va., "and was often troubled with constipation and indigestion until I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills, which I have found an excellent remedy." For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles they are unequalled. Only 25c at all druggists.

You are probably aware that pneumonia always results from a cold, but you never heard of a cold resulting in pneumonia when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. Why take the risk when this remedy may be had for a trifle? For sale by all dealers.

Miss Truslow is making frequent additions to the Variety stock, which now includes many grocery articles, and she will warmly appreciate any patronage you may give her. f3-1t

Jenkins Brothers will turn over the Masonic Hall completed, next week, and will then break ground for the new Frederick building.

Miss Winnie White left Monday morning for Baton Rouge to be the guest of Miss Mamie Morrow for a week.

Dr. O. Powell, of New Orleans, was the Sunday guest of friends in Covington.

ROADS WILL Be SHELLED.

Mr. Herman Schultz has been putting shells on the Mandeville road from Covington, this week, and will start next week to shell the road to Abita Springs. Mr. Schultz maintained some time ago that he would accomplish the shelling of this road if there was any possible way of doing it. When this road is completed it will be a beautiful driveway, and no doubt during the summer will be crowded with pleasure vehicles, besides being a great convenience to travelers between Covington and Abita.

THE NEW FIREMEN'S HALL.

A hall for the fire association of Covington is a proposition that is and should awaken a good deal of interest in Covington. While the fund is not large, with proper handling the managers have no doubt of their ability in carrying out the project. The maintenance of the association is greatly assisted by the appropriation of $1000 yearly by the town and the members are impressed with the necessity of a building if their own, the matter being a man in finding a suitable building lot in convenient part of the town. The building will be a two-story structure, with either office rooms or hall upstairs, and will be conveniently arranged for the different apparatus of the companies.

A ST. TAMMANY AVIATOR.

There are periods in life when we would all like to fly—fly anywhere, into the skies or even into the bowels of the earth—but when a man in the supreme hours of his youthfulness is willing to risk his neck in an airplane—a real, genuine aeroplane—airship, just for the sake of seeing how far he can get off the earth's surface without bidding it a final farewell, then he is either a hero or a natural born hen-necsey.

This is what Mr. Louis J. Hennessey has done. He writes in a letter to Mr. Sanders: "On my trip the aviator, Brindley, took me up nine hundred feet, and I could see across the water to the other side of St. Tammany parish. We circled the track seven times and it was the most pleasant trip that I have ever had." Such is life. In the distant moments of journalism a man is apt to do most anything.

MILITARY ROAD NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Samuel, their daughter Isabella, and friend, Miss Cora Foster, are spending this week at their home here.

Mrs. Henry Loebte and Willie Loebte spent the week end at "Pineview."

Miss L. V. Werhmann, of New Orleans, is the guest of Miss Santer.

Mr. M. Davis, of New Orleans, visited Miss Huddleston on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mouldous spent the week end at "Sunnybrook."

Mr. James Wilson spent Sunday here.

THE WOODMEN'S CIRCLE.

Installation of Officers of Pine Grove No. 212 took place last Tuesday.

Installation of officers of Pine Grove No. 212, Woodmen's Circle, took place at the Woodmen Forest Tuesday, January 31, 1912. Past Guardian, Sovereign Corinne Smith, installed the following officers for the ensuing year: Guardian, Sov. Louise Delery; Clerk, Sov. Merry Mullally; Attendant, Sov. Minnie Coltrona; Chaplain, Sov. Emma Patrick; Banker, Sov. Cecile Champagne; Adviser, Sov. Jessie Norman; Inner Sentinel, Sov. Lizzie McGee; Outer Guard, Sov. Lizzie McGee; Physician, Dr. B. B. Warren; Managers, Dr. B. B. Warren, Sovereigns Lizzie Addison and Carmelite Kentzel.

After the meeting adjourned the members were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Mullally, which was beautifully decorated with pine boughs and other emblems of the Circle. Delicious refreshments were served and several toasts offered.

Mrs. Mullally is a charming hostess and a very good time was enjoyed by all.

Those present, besides the host and hostess, were: Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Delery, and Mmes. W. N. Patrick, B. B. Warren, Thos. Hebert, Archie Smith, Aug. Colg, P. E. Theot, D. I. Addison, F. Norman, F. Coltrona, and W. H. Kentzel.

BURNS IN ROW WITH LORIMER LAWYER.

Wordy Hostilities Again Mark Testimony of Detective.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Wordy hostilities between Detectives William Burns and Attorney Haney, Senator Lorimer's counsel, were renewed under cross-examination before the senate committee, investigating Senator Lorimer's election. Burns had attacked the credibility of Charles McGowan, a witness for Lorimer, who testified relative to alleged conversations about the $100,000 jackpot fund to put Lorimer over. Haney and Burns got into a wrangle as soon as the examination began.

"This man has been insinuating that I am in the chair," Dillingham requested him not to interfere in discussions between counsel.

"You can call him or I will stop him," retorted Burns.

"I'll do just as I please," the chairman answered.

"Can't the witness protect himself," fared Senator Kenyon as he turned toward the chairman.

"This man has been bullying everybody who has been on the witness stand," said Burns. "I don't propose to be insulted as if he keeps on I'll tell him something about his reputation."

"Oh, I guess my reputation is all right," interposed Haney.

The committee decided the attorneys must cease using language which could be regarded as insulting.

Attorney Haney wanted to know if Burns had given the information on which an associated press dispatch of January 21, 1912, announcing his work on the case has been based. Burns said he had not proposed to credit the newspaper.

"I never heard about it," declared Senator Jones, "and as I understand it, counsel for the committee were never told by the Burns people that they had evidence against McGowan and then the services were discontinued. Is not that so?"

"No, we know about it," replied Attorney Haney.

"Then I am sorry to hear it," returned Senator Jones.

Attorney Healey told of the Burns report to the committee's counsel and of the detective's report to the committee when Senator Jones was absent.

"About the time McGowan testified here in July," explained Attorney Healey, "Mr. Beck, of the Chicago Tribune, told us that a man named Stuart, who claimed he was a chum of McGowan's, was talking in Chicago about McGowan's testimony."

"Detective Bailey, a Burns operative, reported that Stuart intimated that McGowan had testified falsely and received money."

"Bailey went on a hunting trip with McGowan, we are told, and got admission from him. We considered, however, that it would be just a detective's word against McGowan's, and as the expenses were great and we were getting nowhere, we recommended that the detective be disposed of."

Burns objected to the statement that McGowan had "gotten nowhere."

"They had worked two or three months and did not claim to have gotten more than alleged admissions to a single man, uncorroborated," snapped Senator Jones.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the People of the Parish of St. Tammany:—I want to thank each of you for the handsome vote given me on Jan. 23d for Parish Assessor. I will show my appreciation by making an efficient and trustworthy Assessor for all the people of St. Tammany. I hope you will continue your support and solicit aid of your friends for the second primary on February 27.

I again thank you.
Yours respectfully, M. C. DAY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

STATE OF LOUISIANA, Parish of St. Tammany. Personally called and appeared before me, the undersigned, duly commissioned officer, after first being duly sworn by me, deposed and said that they were the commissioners and clerks and watchers of the election held in the 5th ward on January 23, 1912; that the election was conducted honestly and fairly according to the Primary Election Law; that every ballot cast for each candidate was counted and tallied as cast for each and every candidate as shown by our tally sheet, (poll list) returned by us to the Democratic Executive Committee:

Math Mizell, L. A. Talley, R. C. Cooper, Eabon Cooper, Watchers. L. C. T. Jenkins, L. A. Mitchell, R. E. Williams, J. W. Williams, Walter Pierce, T. M. Talley, Clerks.

Sworn to and subscribed to before me on February 1, 1912.

Justice of the Peace, W. A. Wad. The object and purpose of the above affidavit is to repudiate and put down a false impression and report being circulated that the 5th ward election returns were held back in the interest of Mr. Warren Thomas, candidate for Assessor. One cause of the delay was when they opened the State box there was not any tally sheets in the box, and they had to telephone to Covington for instructions. After being advised to provide them, it took them considerable time to get suitable paper. They are all farmers and their integrity and honesty is above reproach. Most of the commissioners and clerks were serving their first time as such. These facts alone should eliminate the idea of any crookedness in the voting.

The commissioner, Mr. Williams, is a brother of the defeated candidate for police juror for that ward.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

During one of my recent visits to the town of Slidell, I repeated a statement which had come to me to the effect that Mr. E. J. Frederick, candidate for Clerk of the Court, had promised one position to several different parties. Being since convinced that I was unwise in making this statement, it affords me pleasure to retract the same.

REV. J. M. WILLIAMS.

A CARD TO THE VOTERS.

I wish to thank my friends for their loyal support in the recent primary. I am in the race to hold office. I assure every voter who casts his vote for me in the coming primary that he will have no reason to regret his choice.

Respectfully,
WARREN THOMAS.

SAYS NOMINKE FAILED TO PAY POLL TAX.

Franklinton, La., Feb. 1.—Dr. J. L. Brock, incumbent, defeated candidate for coroner, has filed a protest with the Democratic Executive Committee, asserting ineligibility of Dr. J. E. Pierce, of Bogalusa, who acclaimed nominee. He claims Dr. Pierce is disqualified to hold office by failure to pay his poll tax for 1910. The committee will meet Wednesday.

ARMAND CAPDEVILLE.

New Orleans, Jan. 29.—Armand Capdeville was editor of the Bee, the oldest newspaper in New Orleans, died suddenly yesterday morning as he was at work alone in his office. While no one saw him die, the indications were that he expired instantly and without a struggle. On his desk was a letter which he had not finished writing. The door of the safe was swung partially open. It appeared as if Mr. Capdeville had stopped writing the letter for a second to open the safe, and that he must have expired as he drew open the door. His body, prostrate on the floor, was discovered at noon by one of his boys.

In the passing of Mr. Capdeville New Orleans loses one of the most energetic and eminent sons. He was born in the city 60 years ago, being the son of Augustine Capdeville. He was a brother of Paul Capdeville, auditor of the State, and of Dr. August Capdeville.

He was educated at the Jesuits' College, and, after completing his academic course, took up the study of law. He never followed law as a profession, but went at once into the newspaper ranks. His first work was on the Picayune in the business office. His inclination and talents led him to the editorial department, however, and he became a member of the reportorial staff.

About forty years ago he went to the Bee as a reporter, and about twenty-five years ago he became the manager and editor at the death of Numa Dufour, the managing editor at that time. The Bee is the oldest paper in the South, and in its long history has fallen to appear on but two days. During the war between the States, and when Ben Butler was in control of New Orleans, the paper by order of Butler, was not published for two consecutive days.

ARE SPIDERS LOOKING FOR YOU?

An exchange prints the following amusing story of Mark Twain. It is not only illustrative of his ready wit or savoir-faire, but is worth while to put before our advertisers as a lesson to be learned from a man who not only believed in advertising but could give good reasons for believing in it:

"When Mark Twain in his earlier days was editor of a country paper a superstitious subscriber wrote to him saying that he had found a spider in his paper and asked if it was a sign of good or bad luck.

"The humorist printed his answer as follows: "Old Subscriber—Finding a spider in your paper is neither good nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking over the paper to see what merchants are not advertising so he will know where the other spiders have their webs up."

The item was sent to us by friend Bear, who may have discovered some cobwebs somewhere since the election. He was a Michel man.

DISTRICT COURT.

Cases Disposed of Up to Friday, February 2, to Which Time the Court Adjourned.

District Court went into session Monday, with Judge Burns on the bench and District Attorney Morgan prosecuting. A few confessed judgments were entered and the following cases disposed of:

Sam Cousin, of Bayou LaCambre, pleaded guilty to allowing minors in his saloon and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

Ben DeHart, 13 years old, of Pearl River, pleaded guilty of carrying concealed weapons and was fined $100 or thirty days in jail. As he had been in jail some time, his sentence will expire in a few days. Judge Burns talked to the boy quite at length and gave him some excellent advice.

A number of negro prisoners pleaded guilty and were sentenced. Albert Jefferson, guilty of assault, fined $25 or thirty days; Sherman and Herman Keys, guilty of assault, Monroe Brown, Ancy Dillion and Felix Beardin, guilty of larceny, sentenced to sixty days and costs; Tony Taylor, guilty of violating labor contract, $25 and costs; Cled Mathews, carrying concealed weapons, $100 or three months in jail; Jesse James, guilty of larceny, twelve months at hard labor in the State penitentiary.

Court adjourned until Friday, February 9.
