15 Days' Free Trial UHLAP STEEL Typewriter Stand and Cabinet. It costs less—more solid—more durable—only 4 sq. ft. in space—20 sq. ft. in the ordinary building—does not move—does not offer any—holds enough stationery for a week's heavy work. Any business man who is looking for the highest efficiency in every detail of his business—let us show you—15 days' Free Trial work—where else more light and space—where an ordinary desk would not go. Let us show you a full hold-down of a steel roller of rollers—making stand still—strong or easily movable. If the trial does not convince you, every penny will be refunded. Full particulars on request.

CARD OF THANKS.

We hereby extend our most heartfelt thanks to our many friends and relatives for their kindness during the illness and at the death of our dear mother, Mrs. M. Palmer, who departed this life April 13, 1912. One and all have our lasting gratitude.

MRS. A. D. CRAWFORD, MRS. P. B. DENNETT, MISS S. PALMER.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the firemen and all those who assisted in saving our home from fire Tuesday evening and to let them know that we appreciate the service that is voluntarily given and that so often entails risk to life and limb. MRS. M. EVANS AND FAMILY.

MADISONVILLE NOTES.

A notable feature of the past week was a ball given under the auspices of the Madisonville Base Ball Club.

Visitors from Covington included Messrs. John Dandorf, H. K. Goodwyn, Arnold Dulion and Prof. Anthony Gabriel. Those from Slidell were Misses Jane Camulet, Ruth Cooper, Eugenia Ouliber and Mr. A. D. Camulet, and Miss Evelyn Kloger and Messrs. Bauville and Gross.

The feature of the evening was the selections of several lullabies by Prof. Gabriel, also his most famous imitation of Barnum's steam callopie, which was applauded by the guests.

Dancing continued until the wee hours of the morning after which the guests departed, having enjoyed themselves immensely.
