GOV. WILSON NOMINATED

Clark Loses Out After Hard Fought Battle.

Bryan as Well as Clark Refuses Vice Presidency.

Marshall Nominated for Second Place Third Ballot.

Bryan Promises Hard Work for Victory of Party.

Baltimore, July 3.—For President—Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey. For Vice President—Gov. Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana. This was the ticket completed by the Democratic National Convention at 1:56 a. m. Wednesday. The nomination of Gov. Marshall for Vice President came as something of a surprise, for when the night's balloting for Vice President began, it seemed that the Bryan-Wilson contingent in the convention had settled definitely upon Gov. John E. Burke of North Dakota. There was not much of a fight, however, and when two ballots disclosed Marshall easily in the lead, Gov. Burke's name was withdrawn and Marshall was proclaimed the nominee by acclamation. A minute later the convention adjourned sine die.

The first ballot for Vice President resulted as follows: Marshall, 389; Burke, 355; Chamberlain, 157; Hurst of Illinois, 71; Preston, 58; McCoombs, 18; Osborne, 9; Sulzer, 3; Wade, 2; absent, 46 1-3. Clark and Bryan Decline.

Speaker Champ Clark easily could have had the vice presidential nomination, and efforts of Wilson leaders, as well as those of Chamberlain and sections of the party, were directed toward having the Missouriian accept second place on the ticket. He resolutely declined and stated positively that he would not accept, even if the convention forced the honor of the nomination upon him.

Col. W. F. Bryan was among those placed in nomination and, in declining, took occasion to make his last speech of the convention. After expressing his thanks and saying he thought the post best fitted for another, he delivered what many regarded as his radiestory as the party leader.

"It is not because the Vice Presidency is lower in importance than the Presidency that I decline," he said. "There is no office in the nation so low that I would not take it if I could serve my country by accepting it."

"I believe that I can render more service to my country when I have not the embarrassment of a nomination and have not the suspicion of a selfish interest, more service than I could as a candidate, and your candidates will not be more active in this campaign than I shall be."

"My services are at the command of the party and I feel a relief now that the burden of leadership is transferred to other shoulders."

When, after the first ballot, some one moved to make the nomination of Marshall unanimous, Mr. Bryan started for the stage to make a statement. The motion was withdrawn before he could speak. When the motion was renewed after the second ballot, Mr. Bryan did not protest.

The platform, hewed out in committee several days ago, and warmly praised by Mr. Bryan, was adopted with a whoop.

Many of the delegates went directly from the convention hall to special trains, and by to-morrow practically all will have left town.

Gen. Vestary for Wilson. The nomination of Gov. Wilson to carry the standard of Democracy came Tuesday afternoon on the forty-sixth ballot. After steady gains upon several preceding ballots of the day's session, Underwood and Foss delegates were released and similar action taken in the case of the followers of Clark.

Party leaders and his opponents in the recent contest hastened to pledge him their support, and the sentiment was general that the Democratic party, with him as leader and a fellow-progressive on the ticket, had the greatest opportunity of years anywhere was voiced the belief that there was nothing to fear from either the regular Republican nominee or the proposed Roosevelt third party.

JUDGE CHAS. A. O'NEIL FOR THE SUPREME BENCH.

To the Good People of the Parish of St. Tammany:

I beg leave to submit my candidacy for Judge of the Supreme Court. There is no political issue in a judicial campaign. It is merely a matter of your selecting a Judge who is competent to administer the law and who will be true to its every principle.

With due regard for the responsibilities of the high office, I invite the voters of this district to look into my record of nineteen years at the bar and on the bench, and if you then conclude to vote for me, your confidence and kindness will be very much appreciated.

Yours very sincerely,
CHARLES A. O'NEIL.

THE HOUSE MIXES IT

Strong Fight Made for Assistance to Voters.

Erhart and Manion Vote Against Amendment.

Exciting Scene and Acrimonious Debate on Floor.

Johnson, Washington, Leads Forces for His Bill.

Baton Rouge, July 2.—Fighting and filibustering to the last, the New Orleans "ring," aided by a few supporters from the country parishes, was defeated in the House to-day in its attempt to amend the Johnson primary election bill by inserting a provision permitting indiscriminate voters in the preparation of their ballots.

The scene in the hall of the House during the exciting and acrimonious debate on the "ring" amendment was one of the most remarkable ever witnessed in the historic chamber. The New Orleans ward bosses and a corps of lieutenants, led by the veteran boss, John Fitzpatrick, filled the aisles and corridors and used every effort to induce members to vote for the Labbe "assistance" amendment. The bosses applied the lash to the city delegation and forced all of them to line up for the Labbe amendment, with the exception of Mr. Erhart of the Eleventh Ward and Mr. Manion of the Fourteenth Ward, who broke away.

Both Erhart and Manion were applauded when they cast their votes. John Fitzpatrick spent the greater portion of his time laboring with the city delegation to hold them in line. Representative Generally, floor leader of the New Orleans forces, flitted about over the chamber and prompted some of the members of the country parishes who spoke on his side of the question.

Hour's Debate. When the bill was taken up the House adopted a resolution limiting the debate to one hour on each side, at the end of which time the previous question was to be considered as ordered and the discussion on the amendments closed.

Mr. Johnson of Washington, the author of the bill, took charge of the measure on the floor. He offered the committee amendments one at a time, and each were adopted without debate until section 4 was reached. That section contained the anti-assistance clause. Then the storm broke.

Mr. Labbe of St. Martin offered an amendment permitting assistance to voters in the preparation of their ballots.

Mr. Johnson moved as a substitute that the Labbe amendment be rejected.

Mr. Labbe opened the debate with a speech advocating assistance to voters, claiming that unless such a practice be permitted under the law thousands of illiterate white voters will be disfranchised.

"Unless the supporters of the Johnson bill permit such an amendment," he said, "I warn them now that they will dig their own political grave."

"Ready to Dig." Mr. Johnson, replying to Mr. Labbe, said the issue was clear cut.

"It is simply a question of honest or dishonest elections," said he, "I am advocating the principle of honest elections, and if in doing so I am digging my own political grave, I am ready to dig it. This bill takes away from political bosses their power to control voters and places every white man on an equal footing."

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS July 14, 1912. The Seed of the Four Kinds of Soil. Mark iv:1-20. Golden Text—Receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls. Jas. 1:21.

1. Verse 1—What was the particular charm which attracted to him such great crowds?

2. Is preaching from a boat just as holy and acceptable to God as from a pulpit in a cathedral or a church?

3. Verse 3—Why did Jesus teach in parables and what are the advantages or disadvantages of that method of teaching?

4. Verse 5—In what respect is the teaching of religion like the sowing of seed?

5. Verse 4—How would you regard a gardener who deliberately sowed seed on the highway?

6. Should a Christian sow the seed of the gospel in those hearts that are not prepared to receive it?

7. Verses 5-6—What class of people are those who resemble the stony ground?

8. When emotional or shallow minded people hear the gospel and are moved by it are they or not as likely to develop into strong Christians as those under like influences who are not so easily moved and think more deeply? Give your reasons.

9. Verse 7—What effect does preaching the gospel have upon those who will not give up their sins?

10. If a person is ever so much influenced by the gospel, but still holds on to some sin or sins, how much Christian fruit is he likely to bear?

11. Verse 8—How may it be possible for every person who is appealed to by the gospel to become a "good ground" hearer? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

12. How do you account for the different degrees of fruit bearing from those who answer to the "good ground" in this parable?

13. Verse 9—Is it a fault or a misfortune, and why, to have dull or no spiritual hearing?

14. Verses 10-13—Why did Jesus speak in parables that he knew some would not understand or would misunderstand?

15. What is the only way by which we may understand the teaching of Jesus?

16. Verse 14—What is "the word" which all Christians must sow?

17. Verse 15—What class of persons are "wayside" hearers?

18. Verses 16-17—Do those stony ground "hearers," who receive the word with gladness and afterward fall away, actually get converted? Give your reasons.

19. Verse 20—What reward will they who are "good ground" hearers get?
