Mr. Baltzer Wild, of New Orleans, spent Sunday in Mandeville, the guest of friends.

Hon. Lewis L. Morgan, the newly elected congressman of the Sixth District, spent Monday in Mandeville shaking hands with all his friends.

Mr. John L. Smith and family have left for Lafayette to remain a part of the winter. They will be guests of their son and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Duhon.

Mr. Gustave Theobald spent Sunday in Mandeville visiting relatives.

The Misses Estelle and Corinne Smith spent several days in New Orleans.

Miss Lilly Whiddon returned Monday from New Orleans.

Mrs. Mary W. Phillips is spending the winter in New Orleans.

Miss Gabrielle Leauont visited friends in Mandeville Sunday.

Mrs. Funnell spent Sunday in Mandeville, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith.

Mrs. Vincent and family returned from New Orleans and will remain in Mandeville for the winter.

Mr. Marks is much better, having been very ill all last week, spending the autumn months in Mandeville.

The Catholic congregation is going to give a grand festival for the benefit of their new pastor, Rev. Father Basile.

Miss Mary D'Aquin returned from New Orleans Wednesday.

The family of Mr. Bager, and his mother, Mrs. Pierre Bager, are spending a few months here this winter.

Mr. Cote, of New Orleans, was visiting friends in Mandeville Sunday.

The birthday party given for little Estrid Marks' ninth anniversary was a very pretty affair. Though the inclemency of the weather kept many of the children from attending, yet the crowd numbered about twenty-five children. Games were played and dancing indulged in by the little ones. And last of all was the donkey party. The prizes were won by Beatrice Froesch and Band Smith. Ice cream and cake were served to the children, who left very happy. Little Estrid is the charming little daughter of Mrs. Marks, who is teaching the primary grade in the Mandeville public school.

At a very large and enthusiastic meeting of the Women's Progressive Union on Wednesday evening many matters of interest were reported and discussed.

Reports were made by the chairmen of the various committees of the work done by their respective committees in furthering and perfecting the work and interest of the coming fair.

Mrs. B. B. Warren, chairman of the managing and consulting committee told of the work of her committee in visiting the neighboring owners and arousing the interest of their people to make a fine showing at our fair, and of the hearty response received from all. Mandeville, Sildell and Abita Springs have applied for separate space, showing that their exhibits will be larger and more important than last year.

Mrs. J. B. Wortham, chairman of the refreshment and restaurant committees of the fair, made a splendid report of her committee work, and showed how generously our people and even strangers had responded to the call for donations. It means something to give hams, turkeys and chickens, and yet our people are doing it. Mrs. Wortham will be glad of all donations in this line, and any one feeling that they care to help along the cause, can telephone this excellent lady and worker to that effect.

Mrs. T. M. Burns, chairman of the ice cream and cake committee, turned in a very fine report, showing willing work and enthusiasm on the part of herself and committee.

Mrs. Clifton Burns, chairman of the committee for canvassing locally for exhibits, reported good results and from it was seen that Covington was on her mettle and would well fill her exhibit space.

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Terrence, of Abita Springs, and Mrs. W. H. Kentsel, of Covington, were unanimously elected members of the Union. All these ladies are intelligent, good workers and will be a great aid to the Women's Progressive Union in their civic work.

A standing committee of ladies was appointed to call upon strangers who have come to Covington to make it their home for any length of time thereby giving said "strangers within our gates" ample opportunity of meeting and mingling with our home ladies. They should do desire.

It is the earnest wish of the president of the Union to express her warm appreciation of the large number of members present at Wednesday's meeting, and to urge them to always come and to take a deep interest in the work the Union is trying to do for Covington and her people.

WRS. WM. BODEBENDER,
President.
